Called to be Faithful and Prudent Stewards

"One of the chief responsibilities of the Office of the Chancellor is to assure the directives of the USCCB's Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People are followed. The Diocese of Evansville recently learned that it is in compliance with the data collection requirements for the 2019-2020 Charter audit period. StoneBridge Business Partners carried out the audit." The Office of the Chancellor is supported by our contributions to the Catholic Parishes Campaign.

Hearts & Hands in Ministry

Suzanne and Larry Donald

We are blessed to have many super volunteers in our Wednesday community meal team. Suzanne and Larry are among those special people. They recently took on the task of cleaning and reorganizing our kitchen which was in bad need of it. It is because of the generosity of people like Suzanne and Larry that we are able to serve our community as we do. We thank them and all our great Wednesday morning volunteers.

Gospel:
Jesus and the scribe agree on the two greatest commandments: to love God and to one's neighbor. Which of these two commandments do you find most challenging?

Family Faith Formation

"Say the Word and My Soul Shall be Healed."
People reaching for God and God reaching for people. We can't get there on our own.

In today's Gospel…
One of the scribes came to Jesus and asked him,
"Which is the first of all the commandments?"
Jesus replied, "The first is this:
Hear, O Israel!
The Lord our God is Lord alone!
You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart,
with all your soul,
with all your mind,
and with all your strength.
The second is this:
You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

In Family Faith Formation, we completed our study of Moses. We talked about the 10 Commandments. How we are to love God and love others. How can we do this in our everyday lives?

You can still join us for Family Faith Formation…
contact Sharon at the Parish Office…
or you can find the registration and waiver forms online at our parish website…

Justice Challenge

31st Week in Ordinary Time

We celebrate the Feast of St. Martin de Porres on November 3rd. His life exemplified care for the poor and the sick, and Martin himself lived a very simple life, subsisting on bread and water to atone for the sins of injustice and to stand in solidarity with the poor and the powerless. Martin was canonized by Pope Saint John XXIII, who called him the patron saint of all those who work for social justice. Your challenge this week is to honor the memory of St. Martin by choosing one act of self-denial you can do to offer reparation for the sins committed against the poor. What can you give up and how can you use the time or money you save to help those who are sick or suffering?

Welcome to...Justice....Our Mission

As we know living the Gospel teaches us the need for Charity but also the importance of working for Justice. We will be offering resources to help us grow in our understanding of Justice and opportunities to work for Justice.

Creation Care News

Many organic gardeners opt for shredding their fall leaves for use in compost piles. While this is certainly a more environmentally friendly practice than bagging leaves and sending them to the landfill—shredded leaves will not provide the same cover as leaving them whole, and you may be destroying eggs, caterpillars, and chrysalis along with the leaves. We suggest that leaves in garden beds and lawn edges be left whole. Where space allows, consider creating a leaf pile and allowing it to break down naturally, or add the leaves gradually to your compost pile over time. Such efforts will keep critters safe and allow you to benefit from the rich garden gift that falls from the trees above.

CAJE Updates GOOD NEWS and more...

We have wrapped up our Listening Process and CAJE staff is working hard to compile stories and categorize problems.

Across the board, the most discussed problems have been:

1. Lack of Affordable Housing
2. High Utility Bills
3. Deplorable housing conditions (specifically, rental housing)
4. Access to mental health care

Clergy & Team Captains: Our Listening Process Report Back is on Zoom, Monday October 26; 6:00pm - 7:30 pm.

This is a pivotal meeting for the organization. This is when we collectively choose the problems that will go up for vote before our membership at the November 15 Community Problems Assembly
Email or call your CAJE Organizer.

We have some special plans for our annual Community Problems Assembly - Monday November 15, 6:00 - 8:15! This will be a hybrid event. Holy Redeemer Catholic Parish will host the event AND livestream on Facebook. We will also provide a Zoom link for members who wish to watch the livestream but do not have a Facebook account. Details coming soon!

New Member Congregations!!

Bethel UCC voted in August to officially covenant with CAJE. You may recall that Bethel conducted an exploratory process of about 16 months.
After just one House Meeting (and several 1-1s with our Lead Organizer) Zion Missionary Baptist Church has decided to become a member. Zion, along with Bethel, will officially covenant at the November 15 Community Problems Assembly. Rev. Gerald Arnold, co-founder of CAJE and pastor of Independence Baptist Church has, after a 3.5 year hiatus, informed us of his desire to reactivate Independence as a member of CAJE.

This is encouraging news! More congregations are recognizing the value of joining forces with other faith communities in order to transform our community.

CenterPoint Energy Requests to Build Another Power Plant

YOU can make a difference now! I have copied and pasted information from the in.gov website:

CenterPoint Energy Indiana South has filed a petition before the Commission requesting the issuance of a CPCN for the construction of two combined cycle gas turbine generation facilities and other related cost recovery.

During field hearings, ratepayers have the opportunity to speak directly to the Commission or submit written comments. Please note, though, that because this is a pending case, the Commissioners and Judge are not allowed to answer questions or engage in any discussion about the case. Those individuals who are unable to attend may submit written comments to the Indiana Office of Utility Consumer Counselor at www.in.gov/oucc/2361.htm. Ratepayers also can submit their comments by mail or email:

Mail: Public Comments
Indiana Office of Utility Consumer Counselor, 115 W. Washington St., Suite 1500 South Indianapolis, IN 46204
Email: uccinfo@oucc.IN.gov

Written comments should include the ratepayer's name, mailing address, and a reference to "Cause No. 45564."

CAJE staff looks forward to working with each of you to build People Power!

Peace,

Birthright of Evansville

Birthright provides free pregnancy tests, counseling, free maternity, and baby clothes. We also have a list of referral services to aid parents during their journey with pregnancy and parenting. Everything we do is non-judgmental and confidential. We also offer person to person contact. Birthright is not just a referral service. Birthright is unique because it operates mostly by volunteers. We are open Monday, Wednesday and Friday, from 10 am-2 pm for services and donations. Our address is: 20 Read Street in Evansville.

Birthright exists because of your financial and moral support. We are always in need of clothing, bottles, diapers, and wipes for size preemie to size 6T.

If someone is unable to bring items to us, we are more than willing to pick-up those items. We are unable to take furniture or car seats. The mothers and babies of Birthright would like to thank you for your monetary and baby item donations.
