Melanoma Skin Cancer

Did you know in 2015, that 73,870 new cases of melanoma skin cancer were diagnosed and 9,940 people died from melanoma skin cancer (National Cancer Institute, 2016)? The estimated number of new cases of melanoma skin cancer for 2016 are 76,380 with 1460 of those being in Indiana (American Cancer Society [ACS], 2016). The estimated number of deaths from melanoma skin cancer for 2016 are 10,130 and 3,520 from other skin cancers (ACS, 2016). The risk for melanoma of the skin can be reduced by limiting the amount of time in intense sunlight (10 a.m. to 3 p.m.), wearing protective clothing, sunglasses, and a hat. If you are going outside applying sunscreen 30 minutes prior to going outside to all exposed skin. This even includes the tip of the ears, this is one location that is frequently overlooked. The sunscreen should have a sun protectant factor (SPF) of 30 or higher. Be vigilant by checking your skin once a month thoroughly using a mirror. These are the warning signs of melanoma or new changing skin growth: asymmetry (unmatched size from one side of mole to the other), uneven borders, various colors throughout the mole, and diameter of the mole greater than ¼ inch across. Other warning signs are a sore that do not heal, spread of pigment from the border into nearby skin, a change in sensation, and a change in surface of mole (ACS, 2005). If you have any of the mentioned symptoms contact your doctor or a dermatologist. Please contact the health ministry team if you have any questions about melanoma. "Our skin heats up like an oven" (Lamentations 5:10a), we can protect our skin by using sunscreen with a SPF 30 or higher or by wearing protective clothing.

Tours of the Grotto at St. Boniface Parish!

The month of May, "Mary's Month," is set aside as a time to take a tour of the St. Boniface Parish Grotto. Every Sunday in May guided tours are conducted between 10:00 AM and 2:00 PM. Gather the family and bring them to the St. Boniface Grotto, located under the church at 418 North Wabash Avenue in Evansville. If you are unable to visit during May, call the parish office (812-423-1721) to arrange for private or group tours. Throughout the year there is a Mass on Saturday morning at 7:30 AM in the Grotto. You are always welcome to attend Mass in the Grotto.
