Representatives of Christ

Key Passage: He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God." (Matthew 16:15–16)

Adult: If you were asked, how would you explain Jesus to a person who had not heard of him?

Child: Who do you tell people Jesus is?

Do you know someone who would like to learn more about the Catholic faith?

Does your spouse ask you questions about what you believe or what the Church teaches?
Do you have a friend or relative who asks you what it means to be Catholic?
All it takes is an invitation!

Inquiry is the OPPORTUNITY SOMEONE YOU KNOW IS LOOKING FOR.

Inquiry is a time to learn about basic Catholic beliefs and practices in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere. Questions are encouraged and answered to help the Inquirers grow in their faith as they learn about the Catholic faith and the Church.

Inquiry is held the first and third Thursdays of every month from 6:30 to 7:30 pm in the Davidson Conference Room in the CFL Building.

Our next Inquiry Session is Thursday, September 7th.

Questions? More information? Contact Lisa in the Parish Office at 812-423-5209.

Joint Statement of the National Black Catholic Clergy Caucus and the Association of U.S. Catholic Priests

After Charlottesville:
To honor God we all must love all

We Catholic priests, black and white and other, mourn the death of Heather Heyer and extend condolences and prayers to her family. We pray also for the families and friends of state troopers Jay Cullen and Berke Bates who died while working for public safety in Charlottesville, and for others injured in body or in spirit. We stand in solidarity with the people of Charlottesville.

We pray too for the repentance of all who caused or contributed to this suffering, and for ourselves, because of what we have done or what we have failed to do. We cannot remain silent.

God created the human race. God loves the human race. God calls the human race to love itself. That includes all persons of all colors, genders, nationalities, sexual orientations, languages, religious and political convictions, etc. We are all members of the human race. None of us is better than the other by who and what we are, only by how we are. We need one another. To honor God we all must love all. That is the only way to peace in our hearts, in our society, in our nation, in our world.

As Catholic priests we stand with our bishops and all persons of good will against the manifest evils of racism, white supremacy and neo-Nazism. We deplore organizations, associations or movements that embody in their purpose and activities such convictions and sentiments. Every person must resist allowing hatred and fear of any sort to take possession of their heart. God is love. God loves the human race, the whole of it. So must God's children, all of us. To be not only Christian but fully human, we must love.

Family Faith Formation 2017-18
Living as Missionary Disciples

In Matthew's Gospel this weekend, we hear...
"Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"
They replied, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets."
He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"
Simon Peter said in reply,
"You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

So, who do I say that Jesus is?
If I agree with Peter and say that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God...what does that mean?

Who is Jesus to me?
How do I live my life because of who Jesus is?

Family Faith Formation

Come Holy Spirit! This weekend, we are helping with the Church Picnic. Kickball at 12:30.... Volleyball at 1:00... Water Guns to Tie Dye shirts at 1:30... Tag at 2:00. (I have some white shirts, but if you have some at home that you don't mind dying, please bring them.)
For class Sunday evening, we are going to be taking the leftover food to Ruth's House. If you would like to join us, please feel free. Peace out, Sister T

World Day of Prayer for Creation
September 1, 2017

God of all creation,
At the beginning of time
You placed a single mandate on humankind-
To be stewards of creation
To replenish and nurture through all generations
What you have made
We kneel today amid that same creation-
A world that is, in many ways, more splendid than ever
But, in too many ways, scarred beyond recognition
Turn us from our unmindfulness
Help our torch be light
Help us renew the world that supports us
So we may once more know creation
As it was in the beginning
Amen

In consideration of my registration and participation in this event, I hereby take action for myself, my executors, administrators, heirs, next of kin, successors and assigns as follows:

(A) I hereby expressly agree that the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, its directors, officers, employees, volunteers, representatives and agents, event holders, event sponsors and event directors (all hereinafter referred to as St. Vincent de Paul) shall not be liable for any damages arising from personal and/or bodily injury, including death or property damage sustained by me or my guest while participating in the Friends of the Poor® Walk/Run. I assume full responsibility for any such injuries or damages that may occur to me or my guest. "Going Gold" in Recognition of Childhood Cancer Awareness Month

The Memorial High School Community is "Going Gold" in recognition of Childhood Cancer Awareness Month. Memorial's home football game against Evansville North on Friday, September 1 is the Fifth Annual SamStrong Childhood Cancer Awareness football game. Mayor Lloyd Winnecke has also proclaimed September 1 as Childhood Cancer Awareness Day in Evansville.

SamStrong carries on the final mission of Memorial Class of 2012 graduate, Sam Featherstone, to raise awareness of childhood cancer and money for much needed research. Sam, a life-long member of St. John the Baptist Parish, died on January 2, 2013 after battling brain cancer for over 3 years.

Everyone attending the game on September 1 is encouraged to wear gold, the color representing childhood cancer, to show their support of this important awareness event. Gold SamStrong Tshirts with the powerful message of Philippians 4:13, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me" printed with one of Sam's drawings showing the strength needed to fight cancer, will be available for purchase at the game or can be ordered at www.samstrong.org. Short sleeve shirts are $10 and long sleeve are $15. Order forms can be sent to SamStrong, P.O. Box 252, Newburgh, IN 47629-0252.

The money raised by SamStrong is used only for research at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. If you would like to learn more about Sam, SamStrong, or childhood cancer please visit www.samstrong.org.

Before age 20, 1 in 285 kids will receive a cancer diagnosis. Cancer kills more kids than all other diseases combined. Every day, 46 children in the United Sates are diagnosed with cancer and every day, 7 children die from cancer.

A home is not a home because of its room dimensions or the color of the walls. It is about how you feel when you walk through the front door; the way you can instantly envision your life unfolding there. This is about more than real estate. It is about your life and your dreams.
