Hearts & Hands in Ministry

Vince Wagner and Rose Rogge

Vince and Rose have become our mainstay cantors throughout our Covid experience. Our choir and cantor ministry has been nearly silenced by the Covid concerns and restrictions and we've had to lean more heavily on our cantors, Vince and Rose especially. Their presence is even more vital with not being able to use the song books. We thank Vince and Rose for stepping up during these special times.

October Community Produce Giveaway

Our final Produce Giveaway of the season will on Sunday, October 11 from 3:00-4:00 pm. Seton Harvest will be bringing their produce van full of fresh vegetables to share with the local community. In addition to free veggies, our neighbors will be able to enjoy music beginning at 2:15 pm, recipes and a cold drink. First come, first served until all the produce is gone. Come join us at St. Anthony Church parking lot...1st Avenue and Delaware Street.

Sharing with our Neighbors

Here's your chance to be part of our Community Giveback! We encourage our parishioners to share your vegetables that you have grown. We hope you can bring your produce on October 11 by 2:30 pm.

Your health. Your way.

Questions of the Week

First Reading

The prophet Ezekiel warned that even the just at times turn away from justice. But the just are saved through repentance. How do you turn away from your sin?

Second Reading

Paul presents in Philippians one of the Church's earliest Christological hymns, emphasizing the humility of Christ. Who do you see as a model of humility in your life?

Gospel Reading

In a tense exchange between Jesus and the religious leaders of Jerusalem, those on the margins of society are held in higher regard by Jesus because of their repentance. What do you think motivates anyone to repent?

Justice Challenge

26th Week in Ordinary Time

This Sunday's gospel focuses on the difference between words and actions. Jesus teaches us that promising to do something is meaningless when it is not backed by action. Your challenge this week is to reflect on a time when you resolved to do more to help the poor and vulnerable, but then got busy with everyday life and never got around to serving. Or think of a time when you were specifically asked to do something to help others, but said no. Then choose one action you thought of doing or previously turned down and just do it! You may find it so uplifting that you make a commitment to do it on a weekly or even monthly basis. The important thing is to act.

Family Faith Formation

"I received from the Lord what I handed on to you."
1 Corinthians 11:23

In today's second reading we hear…
"Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory;
rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves,
each looking out not for his own interests,
but also for those of others.
Have in you the same attitude
that is also in Christ Jesus."

As we look at our theme for this year…
"I received from the Lord what I handed on to you."
and today's second reading…how do we hand on the attitude of Christ Jesus?
How do we look out for the needs of others?
Can we recognize ourselves as being humble and putting the needs of others first?

Summary of the Diocesan Pastoral Council Meeting, September 19, 2020

The Diocesan Pastoral Council (DPC) met on September 19 at the Catholic Center in Evansville. The DPC is a consultative body to Bishop Siegel. Following Mass, Bishop Siegel opened the meeting by explaining that then Bishop Charles Thompson promulgated a Diocese of Evansville Pastoral Plan in 2016. Several significant developments have since occurred, such as the reorganization of parishes and the Stewards of God's Grace Capital Campaign. Bishop Siegel is asking priests, the DPC, and diocesan department directors to review the 2016 plan so as to offer their recommendations on diocesan pastoral priorities.

Dr. Tad Dickel of T.A. Dickel Group, LLC, facilitated DPC discussion. The DPC identified many significant developments that have occurred since 2016, discussed what they liked about the 2016 plan, and what could be improved and clarified. Following that, DPC members offered suggestions about broad diocesan priorities moving forward.

The meeting concluded with some final comments from the Bishop and an opportunity for Q&A. The next meeting is scheduled for November 7, 2020.

Who said Pen Pals are a thing of the past?

This has been a discussion from members of the parish….to the Women's Group….to our Team meeting. And, we decided we're going to give it a go!

So…here goes…

If you are a member of All Saints Parish and would be interested in having a member of the Parish be a Pen Pal…

1. Complete the following information:
   a. First and Last Name
   b. Mailing Address
   c. Interests, hobbies, pets & a little something about you Examples:
   - I am retired. I love to read mysteries. I've had a cat for the past 12 years. I used to love to Garden - vegetables and flowers.
   - I work full time at Deaconess Hospital Midtown. I have 3 children. When there wasn't a pandemic I was busy going to their sporting events. I like to spend time at the lake just relaxing or sometimes fishing.
2. If any of our youth (those under 18 years old) are interested in being a Pen Pal, that is fine. We expect parents will be reading the letters their children are sending and receiving. PUZZLE

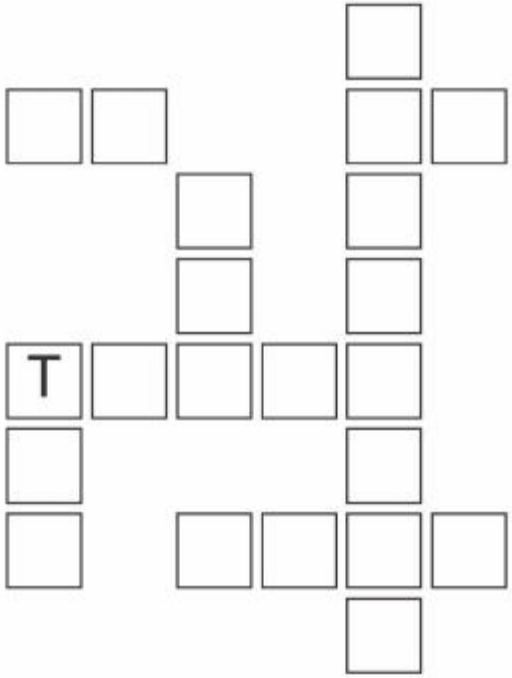
Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:
Go and work today in the vineyard.



MISSION

Show kindness to a friend. Help someone pick up a mess they made, just because you love Jesus.

BECAUSE VIBRANT CHURCHES MATTER

GROWING WITH THE Gospel

CYCLE A

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time • Matthew 21:28-32

GOSPEL

Maybe you have heard that actions speak louder than words. It means that the things you do are more important than the things you say. Show kindness to others. Trust God. He wants what is best for you, so find out how to work for God. Then do what he asks.

PRAYER

God, I want to show you that I love you.

DRAW

Draw a picture of yourself washing the dishes.

Pray the Rosary

The Office of Family and Life invites Catholics of ALL ages to pray the rosary with us starting October 3. Go to http://www.evdio.org/the-rosary.html for many more details and to sign up!

Westside Catholic School Faux Festival

Westside Catholic School will be hosting a "Faux Festival" on October 8, 9, and 10. We will have both of our booths set up at the St. Boniface campus (1 block north of Franklin St on Wabash Ave) on October 8th 11am-7pm, and October 9th &10th from 11am-9pm. We will be selling our world famous pronto pups, chocolate and peanut butter fudge, potato swirl candy, kuchens, chocolate chip cookies, and cotton candy. We will be close to where the WSNC will be selling their half pot tickets so come grab some food when you get your tickets. Social distancing will be encouraged during the event. Thank you for your support.

Remember a loved one at Mass

Please call the Parish Office at (812) 423-5209 or email jwittgen@evdio.org

Rosary Rally

We will pray for our nation as we continue to face the coronavirus crisis, social upheaval and the sins of our nation. We desperately need a supernatural solution. The solution was given by the Blessed Mother at Fatima in 1917 when she told people to pray the rosary for world peace. In answer to Our Lady's request, America Needs Fatima is planning 20,000 public rosaries on Saturday, October 10th at noon. A local rally will be held in front of Sacred Heart Church. Please join us for a spiritually rewarding display of our devotion to Mary. Call John Hodge, (812) 453-7667 for additional information or questions.

Presentation on Recycling

Recycling in Evansville has been around for some time, but there is confusion about what is accepted and what actually gets recycled. Tri-State Creation Care will be hosting a presentation on recycling by Brian Whitesell of Tri-State Resource and Recovery and Mary Allen, co-founder of Zero Waste Evansville, in an online Zoom meeting on Thursday, October 8 at 6:30pm. Mr. Whitesell will speak to current practices while Ms. Allen will present a vision of no waste. All are welcome. Send an email requesting a meeting link to tristate.creation.care@gmail.com.
