"I received from the Lord what I handed on to you."

1 Corinthians 11:23

This week in our readings, we hear that we are reminded that as humans we make choices that do not follow the teachings of God...we sin.

Our joy is in knowing that Jesus suffered and died for our sins. We are saved through the grace of God.

What is one behavior we can change during this 4th week of Lent?

4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

FOURTH WEEK OF LENT

TRYING NEW FOODS IN TIMOR-LESTE

Timor-Leste has the highest rate of child malnutrition in Asia, and many children suffer from stunting, which makes a big impact on a child's growth and future. Home gardens and fishponds are helping families provide better nutrition for their children. What do you eat to stay healthy? What can you do to ensure children have enough food to thrive? Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

You can find more information, videos and meatless recipes online at <https://www.crsricebowl.org/>

CAJE Good News: City Council Approves Money for Gun Violence Intervention

On March 8th, in a 9-0 vote, Evansville City Council approved the Mayor's allocation of $100,000 to begin a GVI partnership with the National Network for Safe Communities!

Seating was restricted to just 12 seats for the public - CAJE members filled nine of them, while additional members were out in the hall, listening.

Mayor Winnecke, in a rare appearance, presented the ordinance and Erin Bloom and Louisa Aviles attended via Zoom to add details and answer questions. Three members of our Safe Neighborhoods committee gave prepared testimonies.

Leading up to last night's council meeting, over 100 CAJE members sent emails to the councilors, urging them to approve the Mayor's allocation. We also did media interviews and hounded city officials by tagging them in social media posts - every single time a shooting has occurred since our CPA.

Furthermore, Mayor Winnecke announced that the administration wants to go all in with a $385,000 investment for a two year partnership with the NNSC and another $50,000 will go before council to be included in the next finance ordinance!

Here is a link to the local paper's coverage of the council vote:

Questions of the Week

First Reading:

The author of 2 Chronicles reflects on how historically God's fidelity and mercy was often met with Israel's disobedience and arrogance. How does the Lenten journey provoke an examination of conscience for you and your faith life?

Second Reading:

Paul speaks of our faith and our salvation as "the gift of God" to us. In what ways do you show appreciation for God's grace?

Gospel:

Jesus taught Nicodemus that God sent His only Son into the world to offer eternal life to believers. Who in your life needs to hear this message?

Justice Challenge ~ 4th Week of Lent

In today's Gospel, we hear...

"For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God."

In this 4th week of Lent, what is God calling us to do in the light? What good deeds are we called to do for someone in need? Choose one act of charity or justice to do this week.

4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

GROWING WITH THE Gospel

CYCLE B

PUZZLE

Help the boy find Jesus:

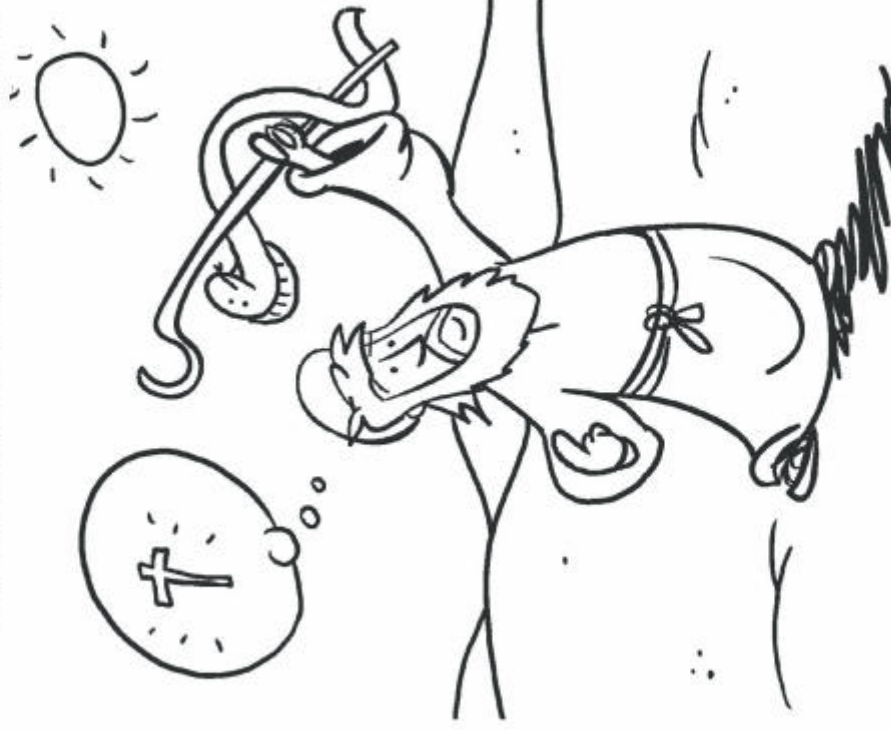

MISSION

Help your parents wash dishes. As you take dirty dishes and wash them clean, talk about how Jesus washed our sins away on the cross.

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

GOSPEL

When the Hebrews sinned in the desert, snakes came to bite them. Moses lifted up a metal snake in the desert. If God's people looked at the metal snake, their painful snake bites would be healed. Instead of dying from their snake bites, they would live. Our sins are a lot like those snake bites. Sins turn us away from God, hurt us, and hurt other people. When Jesus was lifted up on the cross, he washed our sins away. Jesus gave us healing and forgiveness. We don't need to die from our sins. We can believe in Jesus, follow God with our whole hearts, and live forever.

PRAYER

God, thank you for sending Jesus to wash away my sins.

DRAW

Draw a picture of Jesus on the cross. Around the cross, write down your sins in pencil, then erase them. This will show that Jesus has washed all of your sins away.

Have you or someone you know suffered the devastating loss of a loved one? Are you trying to make sense of your feelings? GriefShare might be a way for you to share those thoughts/feelings or just time away to sit and reflect with others who truly understand what you're going through. Our group welcomes all faiths and meets on Tuesday evenings from 6-8 pm in the Church conference room at Good Shepherd Parish. There is no fee to attend and no pre-registration required - just attend the first meeting. Should you have any questions, contact Sue Kroupa at (812) 449-3740 or email at skroupa@evdio.org. This is a national organization so if you'd like to check out other resources, their website is: www.griefshare.org

St. Joseph Catholic Cemetery News

We're preparing for the mowing season at the cemetery and are asking your help in removing any Christmas decorations and other items that will get in the way of our mowing crews. Remember that during mowing season, all floral decorations must be placed in vases attached to monument or approved in-ground vases. Shepherds crooks, whirly jigs, balloons, banners, statues and any other object which interferes with mowing and trimming of the cemetery grounds must be removed. Thank you for helping us keep the cemetery grounds in good shape while also providing for the safety of our mowing crews.

Good Friday Way of the Cross

On Good Friday, April 2, 2021 the Catholic movement, Communion and Liberation, will host a Way of the Cross at the State Hospital Grounds in Evansville. We will begin at the parking lot next to the baseball field. We will begin at 3:30 pm and will reflect on the path that Christ followed for our redemption. The event should finish around 5:00 pm and will be held completely outdoors. If you have questions, please contact Fr. Alex Zenthoefer at azenthoefer@evdio.org.
