Diocese of Evansville Impact Report

The Diocese of Evansville has recently finished their 2020-2021 Impact Report. We intend for this to be an annual publication in which we give our benefactors a report on the effects of their contributions to the Catholic Parishes Campaign. Around March 1, The Diocese of Evansville will mail this report to anyone who made a contribution/pledge to CPC in 2020. We believe this report will shed some light on the ever-present question "What happens with my gift to CPC?" It will also help with your efforts when the appeal rolls around in the fall. To view the full report visit:

Hearts & Hands in Ministry

Charlotte Connerton & Mary Berendes

In this Covid time, some groups have found ways to remain active.

One of our ministries, our health committee, particularly Charlotte Connerton and Mary Berendes, have found ways to continue meeting and offering services.

Last August it was a walking program and just recently it has been a virtual version of the Healthy Eating and Active Living program.

Their dedication to bettering our lives is commendable and we thank them for their unflagging service to us in the midst of an epidemic.

Daylight Savings Time Begins March 14th

Daylight Saving Time begins next Sunday, March 14th at 2:00 AM. On Saturday evening, our clocks need to "spring forward" one hour.

All Saints Women's Group

Our mission is to encourage and unite the women of All Saints Parish to join us in prayer, fellowship and to build a closer relationship with Christ. We meet via Zoom the third Monday of each month at 6:00 pm. Our next meeting is Monday, March 15th. Please call the Parish Office if you would like to join us. New members are always welcome!

Questions of the Week

First Reading:

In God's revelation to Moses of His "10 Commandments," seven of the ten Commandments regulate how we are to relate to each other. Which of these seven Commandments challenges you most?

Second Reading:

Paul speaks of Jesus as both the "power of God and the wisdom of God." How could you prove Paul's assertion to a non-believer?

Gospel:

John connects Jesus' cleansing of the Temple in Jerusalem to Jesus' bodily resurrection from the dead with a quote from Psalm 69: "Zeal for your house will consume me." During this season of Lent, how passionate is your faith?

Update on Faithful Families HEAL Classes

Healthy Eating and Active Living (HEAL) classes by video are underway with weeks one and two completed where participants learned about Planning what's for dinner, Get the best for less and Shop for value, Fixing it fast at home versus eating out and Fix it safe.

Weeks three and four build on choices; choosing more fruits and vegetables with making smart drink choices and to choose to move more and making the connection.

Responses by various participants have been "great presentation of information, easier to make better choices, and the colored handouts are easy to follow." In the coming two weeks participants will:

- Receive the video link for week 3 and 4 by e-mail.
- Bags of incentives will be at Parish Office, available at church or delivery arrangements can be made. Incentives include a thermal shopping bag, cooking utensils and cookbook. Incentives have been provided through the Upgrade grant.
- Questions or comments please email, phone or use All Saints App chat room 'Health Challenge' we love hearing from you!

A grand prize will be given to a person chosen from those participating and who have completed their pre-evaluation and post evaluations. The winner will be announced at Masses on March 27 and 28, 2021.

1 Corinthians 3:16 "Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you?" Let us look to God's Spirit within each of us for strength, as we work each day to care for ourselves and others.

Family Faith Formation

"I received from the Lord what I handed on to you."
1 Corinthians 11:23

We are beginning our 3rd week of Lent.
How is it going?

Fr. Jim told us a couple of weeks ago that all we have to do is ask, "God what do you need me to do today?"
How is our love of being with God showing this Lent?

3rd SUNDAY OF LENT

CAJE Update

Congregations Acting for Justice & Empowerment

Our research teams have been very busy the last few weeks!

The Evansville Affordable Housing and Safe Neighborhoods teams met together with City Councilmen Beane, Burton and Heronemus to learn more about the councilors' priorities. We learned that all three councilmen are concerned about the gun violence in Evansville and the urgent need for safe, decent and affordable housing.

Councilman Heronemus was the most forthcoming and shared with us details on the Mayor's recent allocations of funds that will be used to begin a two year partnership with the National Network for Safe Communities. Because of the Mayor's allocation (in the form of an ordinance), CAJE sent representatives to last night's City Council meeting, which was the first reading of the ordinance. There was little discussion concerning the funds for what the city has dubbed the "Community Gun Violence Prevention Program".

Our own Associate Organizer, Kedzie Hopkins, went before council and shared her personal experiences with gun violence. She spoke eloquently of her fears and subsequent relocation to a safer neighborhood.

The 2nd and 3rd readings of the ordinance will be at the March 8 City Council meeting; third floor of the Civic Center, 5:30 pm. If you feel it is safe for you to attend - please do! CAJE staff and some committee members will be there early to hand out CAJE stickers. Seating will be limited.

If you do not wish to attend, please click this link to send an email to City Council, urging them to approve the allocations on March 8:

Updates on our other campaigns are coming up this week! In the meantime, don't forget to follow CAJE on Twitter & Facebook!

Thoughtful Moments

Penance vs. punishment

Penance isn't punishment. Real penance helps us undergo a change of heart that helps us become better people who positively affect others. Our sin affects others, and our penance and reparation can, too.

Foster loving kindness

In a time that seems to be full of bad news, selfless acts can result in an emotional uplift for the giver and the recipient. Practice acts of kindness each day. Use a gentle voice in every circumstance. Smile at someone who looks like they need it. Allow others to go get ahead of you in line. Sit with someone who looks as if they need a friend. Pray for those who are unkind to you.

As God loves

"Charity, love, is sharing with the one we love in all things. Love makes us similar, it creates equality, it breaks down walls and eliminates distances. God did this with us." Pope Francis

Raising good decision makers

At the root of every sin is a bad decision. Children's inexperience and lack of perspective often leads to bad choices that get them into trouble. A well-formed Catholic conscience, accountability, and experience are powerful ways to raise happy, healthy and holy decision makers.

Faith as foundation. Solid ways to form a Catholic conscience include taking families to weekly Mass, regular Confession to a priest, making religious education classes a priority, and expecting and modeling Gospel-centered behavior at home.

Modeling good choices. Parents have the biggest impact on forming children's consciences. The process begins when children start developing attachments. Children start to imitate the mannerisms, speech, and habits of trusted adults. It is important that they see our faith in our actions.

Experience is a powerful teacher. If parents are attentive, respectful, and nurturing to a child, she learns to internalize these characteristics as the way to relate to others. For example, attending to a child's emotion pain will teach remorse when she causes others pain. Invest active time in children, foster a sense of belonging, and communicate love.

Accountability is loving parents holding children responsible for their own decisions. When confronted by their bad behavior, youngsters may try to shift blame, refuse to acknowledge or follow rules, or attempt to avoid consequences. Set standards, give consequences, and follow through.

Why Do Catholics Do That ?

Why do we fast?

Fasting is a traditional form of penance to show sorrow for our sins. By creating hunger and a desire for that which is denied, we are reminded of the reason why we are fasting. During Lent, we fast because Jesus fasted during his time in the desert before he began his public ministry.

We also fast to sympathize with those who are hungry or poor and don't have the blessings we enjoy. Fasting helps us to be more loving and compassionate.

Find renewal during Lent

When choosing Lenten observances, children are inclined to give too much or too little. For example, "I'll give up playing video games for the entire season!" or "I'll give up green vegetables that I don't like." Yet, Lent isn't just about sacrifice. This is also a time to make changes that will bring us closer to God and give Him a central place in our family life.

Practice gratitude. Gratitude helps to keep everything in perspective. Encourage children to share what they count as blessings and guide them to recognize the source as God.

Make Sunday about God. If you have to choose between sports and Sunday Mass, choose Mass. Resolve to make sure the Eucharist and Mass come before anything else.

Spend time with your family. In a pandemic, alone time may be what keeps us sane. Yet, family time is critical to forming healthy families. Try to find ways to spend more time together. Read books, tell stories, draw pictures. Make the good times overwhelm the bad.

Scripture LESSON

Mark 14:1-15:47,
Join our pain with Jesus'

This Gospel reading tells of Jesus' suffering and death on the Cross. Remembering Jesus' suffering is not just something we do just once a year. The more often we remember, the more it will help us recall that Jesus was human, too, and experienced what we feel – and so much more. If we offer him our suffering and remember his, it makes our pain easier to bear.

Every day our frustrations, our fears, our loneliness and temptations can become ways in which we share in the suffering and death of Christ. Likewise, our joys, our good health, our family and friends are all important ways to share in the joy of his Resurrection. The point is to offer everything to Christ.

What can a parent do? Suffering is part of life. Yet, disciples of Jesus can have the same attitude toward suffering as he did, and we can also share in his joy of the Resurrection. When children are hurt, sad, or scared, help them remember to turn to Jesus because he wants to comfort them with his great love.

Feasts & Celebrations

March 2 – St. Agnes of Bohemia (1282). Born in Prague to King Ottocar I of Bohemia, St. Agnes renounced court life to become a Poor Clare instead. She was known for serving the poor and working miracles.

March 17 – St. Patrick of Ireland (493). Born in Scotland, St. Patrick was kidnapped by Irish pirates and brought to Ireland as a slave when he was about sixteen. He escaped several years later and became a priest. He was ordained the bishop of Ireland and is credited for having established the Church there.

March 19 - St. Joseph (1st century). Husband to the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph is a model of fatherhood and a protector of families.

March 28 – Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion. The Sunday before Easter is called Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion. It recalls Jesus' entry into Jerusalem when he was greeted by crowds waving palms and cheering. It marks the beginning of Holy Week. We use palms to commemorate this special day.

Parent TALK

As Lent approached this year, I realized that children were pretty stressed between online learning and missing usual activities curtailed and eliminated by the pandemic. So this year, we took a different Lenten path.

Every time the children asked us to buy something – a new game, takeout for dinner, a new toy – we asked if it was something they could live without. If they said, "yes" (often with guidance), we looked up the price of the item and put that amount into our family Lent jar. Once the jar was full, we dumped the contents into the Poor Box at church.

Next, we tackled excess. Every day during Lent, we go through our closets and drawers and put one item in the give-away pile.

The daily activities keep us focused on Lent and we are working to simplify our lives. When Easter comes, we will be lighter and more grateful for what we have.

GROWING WITH THE Gospel

CYCLE B

PUZZLE

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

Don't make my Father's house a marketplace

MISSION

Read John 2:13-25 with your family. Ask God to help you keep your church clean. Church should never be a store or a barn. It should be a special place to pray.

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

GOSPEL

Imagine coming to your church to pray. All around your church, you see people selling animals. It smells like a barn. The animals are loud. The people are shouting. You cannot even pray with all the noise and activity going on around you. That is what Jesus found in today's Gospel. It broke his heart and made Jesus angry. God's house is not supposed to be turned into a barn or a store. It should be special place where people can meet with God.

PRAYER

God, my church is a place for prayer. Help me to remember that always.

DRAW

Draw a picture of people singing and praying in your church.

Have you or someone you know suffered the devastating loss of a loved one? Are you trying to make sense of your feelings? GriefShare might be a way for you to share those thoughts/feelings or just time away to sit and reflect with others who truly understand what you're going through. There is no fee to attend and no pre-registration required - just attend the first meeting. Should you have any questions, contact Sue Kroupa at (812) 449-3740 or email at skroupa@evdio.org.
