All Saints Parish wants to welcome you back while keeping you safe. We have a plan in place to achieve social distancing as our attendance continues to grow. Once the church has reached capacity guidelines, we will be utilizing the gym next-door (St. Anthony campus) with Mass on screen to accommodate everyone. A Eucharistic minister will bring communion to those attending Mass in the gym.

Hearts & Hands in Ministry

Amy Rhodes and Kevin Titzer

It's been a while since our landscaping on the corner of our convent (1st Ave. and Columbia) had any TLC.

Amy, who is entering our Church and being confirmed on Pentecost Sunday, and her husband Kevin, took on the mission to renew and beautify this high profile spot. As things grow and bloom, we will be able to offer our passersby a much more appealing impression of All Saints. Thank you Amy and Kevin.

COVID-19 guidelines...Update

The past two weeks have been joy filled as we've been able to celebrate Holy Week and Easter with more of our parish family gathering at Mass! Thank you for your continued support as we work to keep each other safe and healthy!

We have heard the changes being made at the state and local levels in regard to wearing masks. We have received the following guidelines from Bishop Siegel: "Bishop Siegel has consulted with priests, diocesan directors and local health officials, and has directed that current parish and diocesan guidelines remain in effect without changes through April 30. At that time, all factors will be reevaluated to determine whether adjustments can be made.

A variety of reasons have led to this decision. The most important among them include the potential impact of spring and Easter breaks on COVID-19 numbers across our 12 counties, the ongoing process of administering COVID-19 vaccines to a large segment of our population, and the still-significant number of people who remain at high risk for infection due to underlying health conditions who have not yet been vaccinated."

Please get the vaccine for the safety of us all.

Questions of the Week

First Reading:

Luke gives us a glimpse into the solidarity of heart and mind with the original community of believers in Jerusalem. How does your current community of faith compare to this first-generation Jerusalem church?

Second Reading:

John speaks of the power of faith and love for believers in conquering evil in the world. How does the faith and love in your life sustain you?

Gospel:

The story of Thomas' doubt in the resurrected Jesus is one of the most well-known resurrection narratives. Why do you think Christians throughout the ages are drawn to this story?

Family Faith Formation

"I received from the Lord what I handed on to you."
1 Corinthians 11:23

What does it mean to believe in the risen Christ?

How is our belief visible to others?

Does the presence of God have to be proven to us, too?

How does celebrating Mass bring us closer to God and to being Christ to one another?

2nd SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Communion

First Communion will be celebrated on Sunday, May 2nd at our 10:30 am Mass.

Continue to pray for our young people as they continue to prepare for their First Communion.

Catholic School Families

It is that time of year when families with Kindergartners for the 2021-2022 school year are visiting schools. All Saints Parish does enter into a partnership with qualifying parish families offering tuition assistance. If you are interested in learning more about this partnership, contact Sharon at the Parish Office (812) 423-5209 or svogler@evdio.org

Justice Challenge

2nd Week of Easter/Divine Mercy Sunday

This Sunday is designated by the Church as Divine Mercy Sunday. Mercy goes beyond justice, not just forgiving someone who has done something wrong, but freeing them from further repercussions and giving them the chance to start over. Mercy is a powerful expression of discipleship. Your challenge this week is to take one of the works of mercy (spiritual or corporal) and literally live it out. At the end of the week, share with your family what you did and how it changed you. Remember, mercy wasn't just the theme of a Jubilee Year!

Thoughtful Moments

Start small

Concepts such as the Holy Trinity are difficult for anyone to understand, let alone children. That's why they are called, "mysteries." That doesn't mean you shouldn't introduce them, even when your children are young. As their cognitive abilities grow, they will understand more, but you can plant seeds even as they are young.

God trusts you

Do you ever feel overwhelmed by the responsibility of parenting? Sometimes it can feel as if we aren't up to the task of doing the job right and if we had to do it alone, we might not be. Fortunately, God never intended to leave us on our own. When he gives us a child, he stays with us and guides us. If he didn't trust us, he wouldn't have chosen us in the first place.

Experience counts

"The glory of the young is their strength, and the dignity of the old is gray hair" (Proverbs 20:29).

Easter returns each Sunday

Easter morning comes after six weeks of darkness and sacrifice. In fact, the joy of Easter is meant to last throughout the year. "Sunday recalls the day of Christ's Resurrection. It is Easter which returns week by week, celebrating Christ's victory over sin and death" (Dies Domini, Pope John Paul II). Try these ideas to celebrate Easter each week:

Make ready for Sunday. Acknowledging sin isn't comfortable, but it is essential in order to experience the joy of Easter. Turn Fridays into penitential days in your home during which you work to eliminate whatever keeps you from being best friends with God. Share meatless meals, fast from television or video games, spend quiet time together.

Rejoice in reconciliation. Jesus knew that while our intentions may be good, our resolve isn't always perfect. That's why he created the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Take your family to Confession regularly. Your children will learn that God is always ready to forgive.

Rejoice in the Resurrection. Before you participate in Sunday Mass, read the gospel selection out loud so that that everyone is familiar with it. Talk about what the priest will do, the hymns you like to sing, or ask which prayers your children like best. This helps all of you to experience Mass, not just witness it. Easter returns every Sunday. Don't miss it.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday?

In 1931, Jesus appeared to St. Faustina Kowalska, a simple Polish nun, with his hand raised in blessing and two rays of light radiating from his heart – a red and a pale one. He told her to paint the vision with the words, "Jesus, I trust in you." He also asked that the Sunday after Easter become the "Feast of Mercy," and promised that anyone who approaches him as the King of Mercy would receive special graces and great mercy.

Beautiful symbols of Easter

Easter is the most important feast day in the Catholic liturgical calendar, celebrating the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. We use popular symbols to represent truths about this holiday.

Lily: Lilies grow in spring – the season of new life. They begin as a bulb or seed buried in the ground that bursts forth with new life. Jesus was buried and then came forth with new, glorious life on Easter morning.

Eggs: The egg is a symbol of the rock tomb out of which Christ emerged when he rose again. The chick, hatching out of the egg, symbolizes new life.

Lamb: The lamb was a sacrifice made during the Jewish Passover, celebrating when the "angel of death" passed over the homes of those who had lamb's blood smeared on their doorposts, sparing the firstborn sons. Jesus was crucified during Passover week and was the ultimate sacrificial lamb. He is referred to in the Bible as the "Lamb of God" and "our Passover lamb." During Easter, we celebrate Jesus' passover from death to life.

Scripture LESSON

John 10:1-10, The Good Shepherd

This Gospel tells of our relationship with God. Jesus is the Good Shepherd, we are his flock. A shepherd guards and guides his flock. A flock of sheep knows its shepherd by voice. When he calls, the sheep follow that voice but not any other.

Society tells us today to follow our own voice. In fact, we get the message that it's okay for us to each pursue our own desires and look after ourselves. As a result, when trouble strikes, we would have no one to turn to for guidance and comforting.

Jesus is now the Good Shepherd for everyone. As the Good Shepherd, he gives his life for his sheep. But he also looked beyond the sheepfold of Israel. His hope is to have one flock and one shepherd for the whole world, the Church which he founded.

What can a parent do?
The picture of Jesus as the Good Shepherd and us as the sheep he takes care of is appealing to children. We can reinforce that picture by stressing that our children can trust in Jesus.

Feasts & Celebrations

April 23 – St. Adalbert of Prague (997). As Bishop of Prague, Adalbert spent his life spreading the Good News. His efforts to reform the clergy of Prague were met with opposition that forced him to leave for Rome. While Adalbert was on a mission in Prussia, he was martyred by the pagan priests.

April 28 – St. Peter Chanel (1841). Born to a peasant family in France, Peter Chanel was ordained and entered the Society of Mary. He was sent to evangelize the Marshall Islands. Despite adversities, he baptized natives, including the chieftain's son. He was martyred by hostile warriors. The island converted two years after his death.

April 30 – Pope St. Pius V (1572). Born to a poor family in Italy, Antonio Ghislieri became a Dominican. After serving as an inquisitor during the Catholic Reformation, he became Pope Pius V. He established seminaries and hospitals, and published the Roman Catechism, Roman Breviary, and the Missal. He is known for efforts to implement the Council of Trent.

Parent TALK

The local paper carried an article about COVID patients in the hospital who were sad because they wouldn't be home for Easter. Their families were also upset because COVID patients can't have visitors. The story in the paper touched my girls and we talked about how we could help. After a discussion, we decided to make Easter baskets to bring to the hospital. I reminded the girls that Jesus said when we show compassion to the sick, lonely, or the forgotten, we serve him.

After a trip to the store, we assembled brightly colored baskets with a prayer card, Mass card, a stuffed animal, and some candy. Each basket was tied with a pretty ribbon, and we brought them to the hospital across the street from the church. We couldn't deliver the gifts to the patients directly but the nurses assured the girls that everyone will truly appreciate them.

GROWING + WITH THE Gospel

CYCLE B

PUZZLE

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

Thomas replied, "You are my Lord and my God!"

MISSION

Talk to God about a friend who does not believe in Jesus. Ask God to give you the right words to say about Jesus. Then ask God to help you be patient.

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

BECAUSE VIBRANT
CHURCHES MATTER

2nd Sunday of Easter • John 20:19-31

GOSPEL

In today's Gospel, Thomas had a hard time believing his friends. Jesus was alive! They saw Jesus! Well, Thomas could not believe it. He needed proof. Thomas wanted to see Jesus for himself. Thomas wanted to touch Jesus' scars on his hands and his side. Once Thomas did that, then he would believe. You may have doubting friends like Thomas. Be patient with them. Do not get angry with them. Love them instead, and gently tell the truth about Jesus. Ask Jesus to open their hearts, so they can believe in him, too.

PRAYER

God, help me to be patient with my doubting friends. Show them that Jesus is their savior, too.

DRAW

Draw a picture of yourself playing with a friend who does not believe in Jesus.

Small Things Can Make a Big Difference

When it comes to caring for our planet, it's the cumulative effects of small things that each of us can do that will change the course for a better future. One way is to convert a portion of your grass lawn into a wildflower habitat. It's an easy thing to do that will bring benefit to wildlife and add enjoyment to your life. Tri-State Creation Care will be offering a virtual Wildflower Sanctuary workshop on Wednesday, April 14 at 6:30 pm. You will be shown how it is done and receive free seed for your plot.
