Special Points of Interest

Baptism of children should be arranged in advance by contacting Fr. Davidson at the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA): Those wishing to become Catholic or learn more about the Catholic faith may call the Parish Office.

Marriage: Couples planning to be married should contact Fr. Davidson at least six months before the wedding date. This ensures time for adequate preparation.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the Parish Office. It is best to arrange the anointing while the person who is ill can participate.

Catholic Schools: Grades K-12, open to children of our parishioners. Contact Sharon Vogler at the Parish Office to ask about our policy of sponsoring students in Catholic Schools.

Family Faith Formation: Religious Education for families and children is available. Please call Sharon Vogler at the Parish Office.

Prayer Chain: Contact Judy Wittgen at our Parish Office if you would like to join the phone or email prayer chain.

Homebound, Nursing Home or Hospital Visitation: Call the Parish Office.

New Parishioners: Call Tom Bogenschutz at the Parish Office to receive our Welcome Packet and Parish Directory.

Come Join Your Parish Family!

The day we've been waiting for is almost here! Covid restrictions are being lifted effective the weekend of June 12/13. After more than 15 months of dreary isolation we'll be able to again gather with our church family as a community of believers!

I waited patiently for the Lord; he turned to me and heard my cry. (Psalm 40)

Throughout the pandemic we never lost faith that this day would come as we worked to stay connected through the recorded Mass and through the website, the app, our Facebook page, the U.S. mail and recorded telephone calls. But there is nothing that equals the joy of physically coming together as the body of Christ, uniting in one powerful voice as we pray Holy, Holy, Holy!

Several things have been planned to mark this special "Family Reunion Weekend." On Saturday, June 12th, we will have refreshments after the 4:00 pm Mass at St. Joe. If the St. Joe Mass is your choice, please plan to stay after for a bit to enjoy some homemade treats and get reacquainted with your church family!

On Sunday morning, June 13th, we will serve a light breakfast in the cafeteria at the Saint Anthony campus from 8 am to 10 am.

Another reunion opportunity with your church family!

In addition, there will be children's activities – among them a visit to the Wildflower Garden/Pollinator Park to explore the different wildflowers blooming there and to walk the labyrinth and the Way of the Cross (an experience many adults will enjoy as well!)

The Lord has indeed turned his face upon us. Come join your family in joy and fellowship at our long-awaited family reunion!

Hearts & Hands in Ministry

All Saints Staff

This past year challenged us in many ways. In the parish, we had to become more innovative in how we communicated and had to learn a few more technological tricks to put in our tool box. We also had to fill the vacuum left by the loss of volunteers. Through it all, the parish staff took on the challenges and generously offered a "can do" spirit. We are blessed in having good people serve us and we offer them our deepest gratitude.

Questions of the Week

First Reading:

Moses and the ancient Israelites ratified the covenant God established with them at Mount Sinai with the blood of a sacrificed animal. The sacrificed animal affirmed Israel's commitment: "We will do everything the Lord has told us." Why do you think Israel tied sacrificed blood to their verbal commitment?

Second Reading:

The author of Hebrews teaches us that the sacrificed blood of Christ sanctifies us and offers us eternal redemption. How do you see this connected to ancient Israel's practice of sacrificing animals for their blood?

Gospel:

Mark's account of the institution of the Eucharist is linked to the Jewish Feast of Unleavened Bread when a Passover lamb was sacrificed. What do you think Mark is teaching us in making this connection?

Justice...Our Mission

Welcome to...Justice....Our Mission

All Saints Parish Vision Statement: We are called to be a faith filled family, who acts justly, loves tenderly, forgives freely and walks humbly with our God.

As we know living the Gospel teaches us the need for Charity but also the importance of working for Justice. We will be offering resources to help us grow in our understanding of Justice and opportunities to work for Justice.

From the Sisters of Providence, St. Mary-of-the-Woods

"Yes above all things; justice, justice. If any preference may be shown let it be to the poorest or most abandoned." Saint Mother Theodore Guerin

We strive to live out these words for the good of all of God's people and you can too. Please join us in supporting these justice issues.

Family Faith Formation

"I received from the Lord what I handed on to you."

1 Corinthians 11:23

Sunday, May 9th, one week after First Communion at All Saints. One of our young people shared a question that was asked of him... "Was today your second First Communion or your first Second Communion?"

I went with his first Second Communion.

I love watching as our children come to communion with us after their First Communion. I often pray that I approach communion with the mystery and appreciation and joy that I see in their faces.

How many "communions" have you had? What have they meant to you?

Each year, at the end of their preparation, the children are asked to write a prayer that they will pray when they get back to their pew after receiving the Eucharist. What do you pray after receiving Christ in the Eucharist? I too often am thinking of what I have to do next.

What does it really mean to receive the Eucharist?

How does it "feed" us for the coming week?

How does it call us to "communion" with our friends, family, community, world?

How does it call us to be in relationship with God and others?

Justice Challenge

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

This week we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. What does knowing Jesus mean for us? Remember back to the stories we know of the life of Jesus from Scripture... Jesus as a child and refugee as they fled to Egypt... Jesus as a child in the temple... Jesus as teacher... Jesus as healer... Jesus who worked miracles... Jesus who died and rose from the dead for us.

How do these realities of the life of Jesus challenge us to live? What has Jesus called us to as his followers? How does receiving the body and blood of Christ in the Eucharist strengthen us to follow Christ?

Challenge for this week... consider one way that you can live your belief in Jesus. One way you can make a difference in your family, work, parish, community. Do one thing this week in Christ who strengthens you.

All Saints Parish

Thoughtful Moments

Afraid of mistakes?

Sometimes we get overwhelmed by the weight of our job as parents. We worry that our mistakes will have lasting negative consequences. "Your every act should be done with love" (1 Corinthians 16:14). Remember that if all you do is performed with love, based in love, and out of true love, you will be in harmony with God's will.

A good friend

When we see someone doing good, we are inspired to do good, too. The opposite is also true. Children whose consciences are still being formed can be easily led into sin by the bad examples of their friends. Be watchful about the company children keep and encourage friendships with those who do good.

Thou shall not kill

One way to model the 5th Commandment is to avoid watching television shows or movies about killing and to refuse to allow violent video games.

For fathers

"In word and deed honor your father that his blessing may come upon you; For a father's blessing gives a family firm roots" (Sirach 3:7-9).

Teach children to love being Catholic

Catholic parents aim to help children ultimately return to God in Heaven. Their best opportunity for doing so is to grow up surrounded by adults who authentically practice their Faith and to remain active and practicing Catholics throughout their lives.

Try these tips to help children love being Catholic:

Encourage awe and wonder. What happens between God and his children is stunning. Give youngsters opportunities to experience the awe and wonder of a personal relationship with God through liturgy, sacraments, devotions, acknowledging answered prayer, encountering creation, and more.

Answer questions. Asking questions is a normal part of growing up. Encourage questions and answer all you can. Keep a copy of the Catechism of the Catholic Church handy or refer to it online at www.usccb.org. The glossary makes it easy to find topics. If you get stumped, ask your priest for help.

Share what you love. Children imitate what they see and hear at home. When you treat Mass as an encounter with Christ, children will, too. When you worship and pray together, children absorb your love.

Don't force it. The surest way to turn children off is to try to force a child to love being Catholic. Instead, show all that is loveable, open the Church door, and invite her in. Let the Holy Spirit do the rest.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics have hope?

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope" (Romans 15:13). Hope is a theological virtue that comes from God and inspires us to await eternal life. It inspires us to place our trust in Christ's promises. This virtue teaches us to rely on the help of the Holy Spirit to merit salvation and to persevere to the end of our earthly life.

The best father on Earth

Scripture doesn't tell us that St. Joseph was born with special graces, yet he was chosen to raise God's Son. The Bible doesn't say that he had a gift of prophecy, yet Joseph never doubted God's word. He was an ordinary man who lived an extraordinary life.

Ever faithful. It would have been hard for any man to believe his fiancé was pregnant by the Holy Spirit. As a faithful Jew, though, Joseph knew what was written about the birth of the Savior. His devotion to God's Word helped him recognize God's will.

Steady protector. At a moment's notice, Joseph left everything behind to whisk his family to safety (Matthew 2:13-15). Joseph's hard work and skill helped keep his family safe in a foreign land.

Good man. Scripture calls St. Joseph, a "righteous man," meaning he lived a virtuous life (Matthew 1:19). For example, he was compassionate by his treatment of Mary. Who better to raise the Son of God and care for his Mother than the best father on Earth?

Scripture LESSON

Mark 5:21-43, Rewards of faith.

Jairus had a daughter who was critically ill. As the leader of the local synagogue, he knew it was dangerous to have anything to do with Jesus, let alone acknowledge his power as the Son of God. Still, Jairus risked everything to approach Jesus and beg for his daughter's cure. He believed that Jesus could and would help him, and he was rewarded for his faith.

There was also a woman suffering from a serious hemorrhage. According to Jewish law, her constant bleeding would have made her unclean, and most people would have nothing to do with her.

She was afraid Jesus wouldn't want to touch her either, but she knew he had the power to cure her. So great was her faith that she was convinced she could just touch his garment to be cured.

What can a parent do? Tell your children of these two faith-filled people and how their faith was rewarded. Remind them that they can turn to Jesus and trust him to help in any situation. Great things are possible when we believe.

Feasts & Celebrations

This month we honor the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The unquenchable flame of the Sacred Heart symbolizes Christ's unending love for us. Mary's pure mother's heart goes out to everyone loved by Her Son who loves Him back.

June 1 – St. Justin (165). When ordered by a pagan judge to renounce his faith or die, St. Justin responded, "Nobody in his senses would give up truth for falsehood." He was beheaded as a result.

June 3 – St. Charles Lwanga and his companions (1886). While serving Ugandan King Mwanga, St. Charles and 21 of his friends were executed for refusing the evil king's immoral demands. They were all baptized before they died.

June 21 – St. Aloysius Gonzaga (1591). St. Aloysius prayed vigorously and fasted from age 7. Upon joining the Society of Jesus, he was told to ease up in order to study and spend time with the other students. He died while nursing the sick.

Parent TALK

It has become challenging to get help around the house. I agree that chores are boring, but our home will only work well when we pull together.

I decided to implement some new rules.

First, each bed has to be made, clothes in the hamper, and bedrooms tidied before a screen gets turned on. This way, children learn that responsibilities have to be met before enjoying free time.

Next, I assigned each child a set of household chores and a timeframe in which it has to be completed. If someone beats that time, the minutes saved will be added to their screen time.

Finally, each person will take a turn as Inspector Clutter. The Inspector roams the home looking for stray possessions and "jails" them in a basket. To bail them out, the owner must perform an extra chore.

Motivation and humor will surely be more effective than nagging!

PUZZLE

Find your way from Jesus to the cup.

MISSION

Using the concordance found at the back of your Bible, look up the word "Passover." As a family, write down the verses, find them in your Bible, and read them out loud. Sometimes Jesus is referred to as the Lamb of God, or the Lamb sacrificed for our sins. Talk about how Jesus took our sins away when he died on the cross.

GOSPEL

Ever since the night Moses led the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt, God's people remembered that special night with the Passover meal. They ate flat bread, just as the Israelites did the night they left Egypt. They drank wine, remembering the lamb's blood that saved the Israelites from the Angel of Death. Jesus ate the Passover meal with his disciples. As they ate, Jesus taught his disciples that, under God's new agreement, his own body and blood would save them.

PRAYER

Dear God, help me to be truly thankful for the way Jesus gave up his own body and blood to save me from my sins. Amen.
