BACK TO SCHOOL

It is that time of year...when we start looking toward the beginning of another school year...

...sending our little ones to pre-school and pre-K

...having our little ones begin Kindergarten

...a new year and new teachers

...teachers setting up their classrooms anxiously awaiting the arrival of their students

...parents planning the new routine to get everyone up, have breakfast and off to school...all on time

...parents planning lessons for home schooling

...day care providers...grandparents....family....neighbors adjusting for the incoming before and/or

...after school care for the children

...high school seniors looking at this last year

...college youth packing up and driving off to campus

...adults "going back to school" learning new skills for that new job or continuing education

Jesus our Teacher,

We thank you for all you have taught us.

We will do our best to...Love God with all our heart, with all our soul and with all our mind and to love our neighbor as ourself.

Jesus, we thank you for the beginning of another school year.

We ask your blessings on all of us this year.

May we have the energy, the enthusiasm, the motivation we need for this new year.

May we have the love and support we need to help us get a good start and persevere this year.

May we know your presence with us throughout the year...

...in all of our struggles

...in all of our joys

...in all of our work

...in our opportunities for play

...in our times of learning great new things

...in the routine, ordinary days

...in the times of confusion

...when our friends or a stranger need our support

Jesus, we make this our prayer of praise and intercession, in your name. Amen

Lawn Mowers & Grounds Keepers

It's the height of the mowing season and we always feel a great debt of gratitude this time of the year to our volunteer lawn mowers and our grounds keepers at both campuses. When it's 90 degrees out, all we can do is praise them and express our heartfelt gratitude for their dedicated service. Thank you grass cutters and garden keepers for your faithful service.

Questions of the Week

First Reading:

Early in their Exodus journey, the Israelites expressed fear and frustration to Moses. God heard and responded to their "grumbling" by sending bread from heaven. When you have you experienced God answering your plea for help?

Second Reading:

Paul told the Ephesians that as believers in Christ you should "put away" the bad parts of "your former way of life." How have you done this in your life as a believer in Christ?

Gospel:

We hear today the introduction of Jesus' extended "bread of life" discourse. In referring back to the ancient Israelites who ate "manna" (bread) in the desert, Jesus tells the crowds: "I am the bread of life." How would you explain to someone how Jesus sustains you?

1 Corinthians 11:23

Family Faith Formation begins on Sunday, August 29th! We pray that we are able to gather in person this year... if not, we know how to Zoom!

In today's Gospel from John we hear...

"And when they found him across the sea they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you get here?"

Jesus answered them and said,

"Amen, amen, I say to you,

you are looking for me not because you saw signs but because you ate the loaves and were filled.

Do not work for food that perishes

but for the food that endures for eternal life,

which the Son of Man will give you."

So, when do we look toward God?

What has God given us/taught us that we are to share with others?

Justice Challenge

18th Week in Ordinary Time

This week the Church remembers Blessed Pope Paul the VI. One of his most famous quotes is, "If you want peace, work for justice." This idea comes from years of Catholic social teaching responding to the world and the issues at hand in any given age. This statement can be clearly understood today. Just take a look at the civil war in Syria. At the heart of the refugee crisis is a lack of justice from a government that has amassed wealth while the people go hungry or without opportunities for education and participation in decisions that affect them. Followers of Jesus Christ must work to alleviate issues that attack the dignity of the human person – with works of charity and acts of justice. What exactly does that mean? When Syrian refugees are hungry and homeless, we must feed them and help them get the safe homes they deserve. Those would be acts of charity. At the same time, we can encourage our government to pressure the Syrian government to alleviate the problem and find solutions that will benefit the people and ensure the people won't suffer so terribly ever again. Policy and political change are both ways to bring justice. Both are needed to make change happen.

Your challenge is to choose an injustice you see in your community. Ask questions about the issue. What do I know about this injustice and what don't I know? Who is affected by the issue? Who has the power to change the issue? Who seeks to gain if the issue isn't resolved? Now... what are YOU going to do about the issue? Start today.
