Hearts & Hands in Ministry

Our Veggie Donors

This past Sunday, we held our second successful veggie giveaway of the summer.

We had a good crowd and all were able to take home what they wanted.

Seton Harvest provides the major part of the produce, but many of our gardeners brought their bounty to share with the folks.

Their generosity and the gift of their gardening skills made the day for many people on Sunday.

Our hats go off to our veggie donors this week.

Want to become a Catholic?

If you or someone you know is interested in becoming Catholic, please talk to a member of the staff or call the parish office, (812) 423-5209.

For more information on our Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA), visit allsaintsevansville.org click on the "Faith Opportunities" tab then scroll down to RCIA Process and RCIA Q&A.

Questions of the Week

First Reading:

Joshua, who helped settle the Israelites into the Promised Land, knew the struggle ahead lay in Israel's fidelity to God. How does anyone best show fidelity to God?

Second Reading:

Toward the end of his letter, Paul takes up the topic of husbands and wives. He speaks of the importance of mutual subordination and love. What do you see as secret to a successful marriage?

Gospel:

Jesus' bread of life discourse ends with the report that "many of Jesus' disciples" no longer followed Jesus. How should we respond to family or friends who choose to walk away from Jesus?

Family Faith Formation

"Say the Word and My Soul Shall be Healed."

People reaching for God and God reaching for people.
We can't get there on our own.

Family Faith Formation begins next Sunday, August 29th!
We pray that we are able to gather in person this year...
if not, we know how to Zoom!

All families should have received information in the mail a couple of weeks ago. If you did not, contact Sharon at the Parish Office...or you can find the registration and waiver forms online at our parish website... go to our parish website

<https://allsaintsevansville.org/> and click on forms at the bottom of the page... or go directly to

Registration-Form.pdf](https://allsaintsevansville.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/07/2021-2022-Family-Faith-Formation-Registration-Form.pdf)

Our Gospel this week ends with...

"As a result of this, many of his disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him.
Jesus then said to the Twelve, "Do you also want to leave?"

Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.

We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God."

I'm going back to our theme for Family Faith this year...."Say the Word and My Soul Shall be Healed."
People reaching for God and God reaching for people.
We can't get there on our own.

How will we reach for God this week?

What challenges will present themselves at home...
work....school?

What will our response be to these challenges...
frustrations...opportunities?

Take time to reflect this week on times when you said
"yes" to following Jesus.

Justice Challenge

21st Week in Ordinary Time

If there is a message to hear this week, it is about being ready. The parables foretell the end of the world... be ready for you don't know when that might be. For Christians, that means we need to believe in, think about, and do the right things in life; we need to have our priorities in order. So what does this include? Feed the hungry, clothe the naked, visit those in prison and give drink to those who are thirsty. Spend your life doing these things and you will be prepared. Why is that? These things shape our hearts and make us humble and willing to put others before ourselves. They help us to see the face of Christ in our midst. It is the crazy paradox of being a Christian. To be first, you must be last. To be a leader, you must be a servant.

Are you ready? What are you spending your time on these days? The challenge this week is to look at your calendar... personal and family. How are you spending your time? Read Matthew 25:31-46, and make sure some of those things make it on your calendar each week.

Faith & Racial Justice: Changing Systems and Structures

Program Goals...

Faith & Racial Justice: Changing Systems and Structures invites participants to formulate their own Christian-rooted responses to racism in their churches, workplaces, and communities.

Faith and Racial Justice turns a group of individuals into a community rooted in trust and compassion. Through new learning from articles, videos, and resource books, it lends new insights to participants' awareness of privilege and racism. By encouraging new spiritual practices and informed action, it cultivates an expanding community of Christians who work to dismantle racism in their respective contexts.

"Transformative is the single word that comes to mind. This program challenges us to deal with (and not just examine) the reality of racial injustice on individuals, families, and communities as well as entire segments of our country..." - John L., Participant
