Questions of the Week

First Reading:

The prophet Isaiah spoke of the importance of being strong of heart when it comes the ways of God. Why do you think this is such an important virtue?

Second Reading:

James encouraged believers to view the rich and poor from God's perspective. Why do you think people struggle with this divine point of view?

Gospel:

In today's reading, we hear how Jesus healed the deaf man with a speech impediment at the request of the "people" close to this man. Who do you know in your life who needs healing from Jesus?

Parish Office Closed on Labor Day

The Parish Office will be closed on Monday, September 6 in observance of the Labor Day Holiday. Have a safe and blessed Labor Day weekend!

No Sunday Morning Breakfast September 12

Our Parish Picnic is next Sunday, September 12, therefore we will not have a Sunday morning breakfast. Come join us for coffee and donuts before Mass on September 19 from 9-10 am.

MINISTRY OPPORTUNITY!

Then Jesus, calling the twelve to him, began to send them out two by two... (Mark 6:7)

Sunday, September 12th we will be walking the neighborhood around the church after the 10:30 Mass to distribute doorhangers reminding our neighbors about the Free Produce Giveaway on the following Sunday (Sept. 19th).

We need your help!

If you can stay after Mass for about a half hour or so you could really make a difference helping this feeding ministry. Our desire is to send out teams two by two, as Jesus did. Please plan to give a half hour of your time on the Sunday, September 12th.

BINGO Prizes Needed

All Saints Parish Picnic is next Sunday!

Lots of fun activities are being planned. We will gladly accept donations for the BINGO prizes including SCRIP gift cards or even cash to buy prizes if you choose.

23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Justice Challenge

23rd Week in Ordinary Time

On September 12th, we celebrate Grandparents' Day. This is an opportunity to look at how we treat all of the elders in our communities, including but not limited to those in our own families. Your challenge this week is two-fold: do something special for the grandparents in your own family, but also identify an older person or couple in your community who suffer injustice in some way. It might be the injustice of loneliness, in which case a visit and a conversation would be great. It might be poverty; bringing a food basket or household supplies would be appropriate. Once your family identifies the elder in need, brainstorm the best way to help which also gives dignity and honor. No matter what you choose to do, find a way to let the elder share a life story or some wisdom with you from the perspective of many, many years of living. Finally, don't forget to thank them for the gift of their wisdom.

Upcoming Retreats

Healing Anger Through Forgiveness (Midweek Retreat)
September 28-30, 2021 Br. Zachary Wilberding, OSB
Anger is an unavoidable human feeling and we often have good reason to be angry. But anger can also be an obstacle to living a fuller life. This retreat aims to examine Jesus' teaching on anger and forgiveness. ($255 single, $425 double)

Unpacking the Vocation of Marriage through Scripture and Married Saints

October 1-3, 2021 Josh and Angie Greulich (Married Couples Only)

With all the distractions of the world, children, jobs, volunteering, etc., the vocation aspect of marriage tends to fall to the wayside as we try to raise our families and survive daily life. This retreat will provide inspirational experiences for couples to learn more about the vocation of marriage through Scripture and examples of married saints. Josh and Angie have been married nine years and have two children. Their hope is that couples will leave the retreat excited, refreshed, and renewed in their love for each other and for the vocation they entered together. ($425 double)

JustMatters

Faith & Racial Justice: Changing Systems and Structures

Program Goals...

Faith & Racial Justice: Changing Systems and Structures invites participants to formulate their own Christian-rooted responses to racism in their churches, workplaces, and communities.

Faith and Racial Justice turns a group of individuals into a community rooted in trust and compassion. Through new learning from articles, videos, and resource books, it lends new insights to participants' awareness of privilege and racism. By encouraging new spiritual practices and informed action, it cultivates an expanding community of Christians who work to dismantle racism in their respective contexts.

"Transformative is the single word that comes to mind. This program challenges us to deal with (and not just examine) the reality of racial injustice on individuals, families, and communities as well as entire segments of our country..." - John L., Participant
