Hearts & Hands in Ministry

Holly Earhart

Holly is one of our young adult parishioners who attends our 5:00 pm Sunday liturgy. She is one of our regulars for lecturing at this Mass and, in pre-Covid time, was a SCRIP seller. What is extra special about Holly these days is that she is a recent graduate with a nursing degree and works at Deaconess Hospital. Our health care workers deserve our heartfelt gratitude for their selfless service. Thank you Holly for all the goodness you offer us.

Questions of the Week

First Reading:

The prophet Jeremiah speaks of the blessings and good fortunes one receives by trusting in the Lord. How have you seen this reward present in your life?

Second Reading:

Paul challenged those in Corinth who did not believe that Christ rose from the dead. In what ways do you defend the faith with unbelievers?

Gospel:

In presenting both divine blessings and woes to his disciples, Jesus emphasizes a great reversal of these conditions in the future. What does this teach us about God's sense of justice?

Lent begins on March 2

What does that mean for you?

All Saints Parish will be offering an opportunities for prayer and reflection.

Catholic Relief Services – Rice Bowls will be available again this year.

Looking for a daily reading & reflection for Lent?

Join All Saints Parish as we read, reflect, pray and put into action Coming Back to Life.

These inspirational readings will be available each day on our Facebook Page, Website, and Parish App.

14 Day Prayer Challenge

Stay tuned for a 14 day prayer challenge we will be offering through Chat on our Parish App during Lent.

Reminder...

Coming to Mass and wanting to social distance in the pew? St. Joseph and St. Anthony Churches, BOTH, have a reserved section that is roped off for those who are wanting to sit in a socially distanced space. You will find these sections roped off with blue yarn in both churches. This leaves every other pew empty to allow for social distancing. Once in the pew, please be aware of the distance required between you and the next person/family sitting in the pew.

Family Faith Formation

"Say the Word and My Soul Shall be Healed."

People reaching for God and God reaching for people.
We can't get there on our own.

Could you make a list of things that you hope for?

What would it include?

...Health and safety for family and friends?

...An end to the pandemic?

...World peace?

...More time to spend with family and friends?

...Health for yourself?

...Joy for those you love?

...Justice for the poor?

In today's responsorial psalm we pray,
"Blessed are they who hope in the Lord."

How does God fit into our hopes?

If we hope in God, do we need to hope for anything else?

Justice Challenge

6th Sunday of Ordinary Time

February is Black History Month. In addition, we celebrate President Lincoln's birthday on February 12. Lincoln wrote the Emancipation Proclamation to restore to African Americans their God-given right to be treated as human beings fully equal in God's eyes with the rest of society. Jesus told us his mission was to emancipate people from the things which oppressed them—poverty, enslavement, despair, whatever broke the human spirit. Your challenge this week is to emancipate someone from injustice. Who needs to be freed from oppression? Is it the kid at school who is constantly picked on? Is it the worker who is discriminated against? Is it the elderly shut-in? Whom will you liberate?

12-day pilgrimage to Turkey and Greece
October 14–25, 2022

Please consider joining Bishop Siegel on an exciting pilgrimage to Turkey and Greece, where we will reflect on the life and journeys of St. Paul. In Athens, Ephesus, and Corinth, we will consider his bold mission before cultures rich in history, science, the arts, politics, and religious practices. In Ephesus, we will pray at the "House of Mary." On the island of Patmos, we will visit the site where St. John experienced an extraordinary vision in which he was directed to write down his experiences as the Book of Revelation.

This will be a unique pilgrimage of discovery, faith, reflection, and celebration! May the experiences of St. Paul, St. John, all the early saints whose memories we shall encounter, and, of course the grace-filled "yes" of the virgin Mary, inflame our hearts with a greater desire to bear witness to the presence of the crucified and risen Jesus in our world!

The March 30, 2022 deadline is fast approaching. There is still room for more pilgrims. Don't hesitate! Visit <https://www.evdio.org/events.html> for more information or to sign up for this extraordinary experience. Call (812) 424-5536 for more details.
