Justice Challenge

2nd Sunday of Easter

A consistent theme in Catholic social teaching is the preferential option for the poor and vulnerable. God loves all people but has a soft spot in his heart for the poor and vulnerable members of society. Thomas was vulnerable because he missed out on the first appearance of Jesus to the Apostles. He was an outsider among the group, and he expressed his sense of being "distant" by refusing to believe their story. When Jesus arrived again with Thomas present, he directed his attention to the vulnerable Thomas. Jesus loved all of his followers, but Thomas was in need of special, preferential attention. Jesus delivered, and Thomas believed. The challenge this week is to give attention to the outsider in your group. Draw that person back in with your love. It's just the right thing to do as we celebrate Divine Mercy!

Have your wishes been recorded? Most Americans don't have a will. A simple will assures your wishes for asset distribution are followed. It will get your money into the hands of the people and charities you love.

Question of the Week

First Reading:

Luke tells us of the success and healing power of the apostles in the Jerusalem church in the early days, weeks, and months following Jesus' resurrection. Where do you see this level of enthusiasm for the faith today?

Second Reading:

The resurrected Jesus appears to John on the island of Patmos during his exile for bearing witness to the faith. In this encounter, John is initially fearful but then reassured by Jesus. When have you turned to Jesus in moments of fear in your life?

Gospel:

The apostle Thomas challenges his fellow apostles about the reality of Jesus' resurrection, seeking direct evidenced from Jesus himself. How often do you encounter fellow believers who are skeptical in their faith?

Since you are silencing your phone anyway, a quick check in on your social media might just be the invitation that someone you know needed.

Parish Council DISCERNMENT Process

It is that time of year again.

We ask you to spend some time in prayer with the Holy Spirit and the names of members of the parish who are eligible for the Parish Council.

Each church has copies of the list of eligible parishioners. Please take one to pray with. Think of the gift(s) this person would bring to the Council. On Saturday/Sunday, May 7 & 8 after all three Masses, you will be invited to remain for a short time to share the name and gifts of the person you believe would be a good choice for the Council. These names and gifts will be given to the present Council for further discernment.

If you are unable to stay for one of these meetings, there is a box in each church for your nominations. Please write the name of the person you are nominating AND list their strengths/gifts and put it in the box. This will be taken into consideration as the discernment process continues.
