Justice Challenge 3rd Week of Easter

It was a huge catch of fish..."so many fish they could not haul the net in.... In spite of the great number, the net was not torn." Yes, there is room for more. The net represents the Church. Our churches need to be full, but they often are not. Why? There are certainly plenty of people populating the areas around most churches, yet the people aren't joining. Perhaps we are only casting our nets in familiar waters. Jesus suggests casting the net elsewhere. The challenge is to expand our vision of who should belong. Are there people living in your community who might not be desirable members of your church? Start talking to other parishioners about how to reach out to them. The net is strong enough to hold all of you together.

OR

May 5th is a day to remember St. Hilary of Arles, a 5th century bishop. He used his office to serve the poor. He did manual labor to earn money for the poor, and was known to sell sacred vessels to pay ransom for those who were held captive. He was a man who did what he could do with the resources at his disposal. This is the call of all Christians. Do something good for Christ using whatever is available to you. The challenge this week is to examine your daily routine. What kind of influence do you have? What are your resources? How can you use your influence and your resources to do something good for someone or some community that needs your help?

"Say the Word and My Soul Shall be Healed."
People reaching for God and God reaching for people.
We can't get there on our own.

Fr. Steve asked us to consider...

How do we wash other's feet?

How do we serve?

How do we move the stone from the tomb?

We are called to be alive and on the move.

How do we spread the Good News through our words and actions?

Fr. Jim challenged us...

Easter is real!

How real is Jesus to us today as we live our daily life?

Who is our neighbor?

How compassionate are we?

Are we peace makers or trouble makers?

Let's live in the new life we've received through Jesus.

What will we be "growing" during our Easter time?

Please feel free to add your response to our collection of Easter eggs in the basket in front of the altar at church.

St. Agnes Church/Westside Catholic School Campus.

More Information to come!

Hearts & Hands in Ministry

On this Volunteer Appreciation Sunday, we thank all who offer their time and talent to make All Saints Parish alive and vibrant.

It can't happen without you!

Thank you especially to those of you who have returned your stewardship commitment. It's on that commitment and generosity that we build church.

Urban Goedde, a veteran of the Koren War and his brother flew on the Honor Flight Saturday to Washington DC. If you see Urban please thank him for his years of service.

First Reading:

The apostles faced trial and even persecution from the religious leaders of Jerusalem (the Sanhedrin) for bearing witness to Jesus' resurrection. Why do you think some people are threatened by the good news of Jesus risen from the dead?

Second Reading:

John sees a vision of heaven in which all of the created order is worshipping Jesus as the slain and risen "Lamb." What images of heaven bring you comfort?

Gospel:

The resurrected Jesus appeared to seven of his disciples while they were fishing on the Sea of Tiberias. In doing so, Jesus comes to strengthen Peter for his upcoming leadership role. What gives you strength in your faith journey?

Boilers have been installed and are working well. AC will be going in shortly.

Tom shared that the Stewardship on Time, Talent & Treasure video was shown this past weekend at the Masses.

Marketing Committee: For Synod we sent out about 1600 cards in a 1-mile radius from church.

Other: Parish Council is losing 3 positions this year and will need to fill those. The discernment process will begin the weekend after Easter.

Pastor's Comments: Fr. Jay reminded everyone that on April 11 we will be holding the CAJE Rally at St. Anthony Church.

Next Month's Meeting will be held Tuesday, May 3 beginning at 6:00pm. This meeting is scheduled to be hybrid.

All Saints Health Ministry Upcoming Events

Coming during the month of May 2022

Parishioner Peyton Rogge, a soon to be dietician graduate, will provide a demonstration video for the Healthy Eating Active Living event called Herbs and Spices. This instructional video will be available for viewing in the Mind Body Soul App. Recipes will also be available through the app.

Parish Council DISCERNMENT Process

It is that time of year again.

We ask you to spend some time in prayer with the Holy Spirit and the names of members of the parish who are eligible for the Parish Council.

Each church has copies of the list of eligible parishioners. Please take one to pray with. Think of the gift(s) this person would bring to the Council. NEXT WEEKEND Saturday/Sunday, May 7 & 8 after all three Masses, you will be invited to remain for a short time to share the name and gifts of the person you believe would be a good choice for the Council. These names and gifts will be given to the present Council for further discernment.

If you are unable to stay for one of these meetings, there is a box in each church for your nominations. Please write the name of the person you are nominating AND list their strengths/gifts. This will be taken into consideration as the discernment process continues.

You may also submit a form through the App

Helping our children grow in their Catholic faith.

May 2022

All Saints Parish

Thoughtful Moments

Talk about God

Children are naturally curious about God. Discuss your child's concept of Him. Does he see God as a loving parent or a harsh police officer, for example. Children are more likely to want to spend time with someone who is kind. Remind them that Jesus wants us to know God as our Father who loves and accepts each of us unconditionally.

A family novena

Introduce your children to the power of the novena. Together choose an intention and spend the next nine days praying about it. You can pray the Rosary for nine days, recite the Divine Mercy chaplet, or even write a novena service of your own. Even better, find out if your parish has a novena service you can attend as a family.

"And he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart" (Luke 2:51).

Help children love the Mass

At each Catholic Mass, Jesus Christ becomes sacramentally present among us, feeding us with the fullness of love. Helping children know and love the Mass will help them experience His love throughout their lives.

Prioritize. A busy family can have competing activities throughout a weekend. Yet, going to church together sends a strong message to children that Mass is more important than any of them. Don't miss Mass on Sunday or Holy Days. If you know you'll be traveling for vacation, research nearby Catholic churches and Mass times beforehand.

Prepare. Discuss the Gospel before Mass and read Scripture together often. Help children perform a daily examination of conscience and go to Confession regularly to ensure everyone eligible can receive Communion.

Pray. Praying as a family is one of the ways to activate the graces we receive through the Sacraments. Start with a decade of the Rosary or traditional prayers before meals or bedtime. Our sacramental life sanctifies our everyday life. Sing. Children (of all ages) can connect with the celebration of Mass through the hymns. See who can sing the loudest.

Celebrate! The Sacraments are channels of God's life, love, and grace. Write a special family prayer you can pray together to thank God for His many gifts after Mass. Afterwards, celebrate with a special dessert or fun family activity.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

The world's religions bear witness to the truth that God's children yearn for the One who created us. In turn, He draws us to the mysterious encounter known as prayer.

Prayer is the raising of our minds and hearts to God, or the petition of good things from Him that are in harmony with His will. Christian prayer is the personal and living relationship of the children of God with their Father, with His Son Jesus Christ, and with the Holy Spirit. It's how we stay connected with the One who loves us most.

Why do Christians pray?

Encourage children to embrace Mary's virtues

May is a month in which we honor our Blessed Mother in gratitude for leading us to her Son. She shows us how to follow Him by sharing the practice of virtues, such as:

Humility. Even when Mary learned she would be the mother of the Savior, she still considered herself a "lowly handmaid" (Luke 1:48). She surrendered to God's will. Children can practice humility by doing what they're asked willingly and quickly, and by waiting their turns patiently.

Generosity. After the Annunciation, Mary hurried to Elizabeth's house knowing that her cousin would need help when St. John was born. Children can look for ways to help at home. They can also be merciful by letting go of grudges and choosing forgiveness instead.

Gratitude. Mary's Magnificat is a prayer of praise, joy, and thanksgiving to God for blessing her and fulfilling His promises. Tell children to say "thank you" when someone does something nice for them. Encourage them to look for ways to share their gifts with others in need.

Scripture LESSON

Luke 24:46-53, Know Him, love like Him

The disciples' heads had to have been spinning. Jesus reminded them that His suffering, death and Resurrection had been part of God's plan and that they should tell everyone about it and invite them to repent. Then, He ascended and was taken from their sight.

As they stood staring at the heavens, two angels appeared to clarify matters for them. Jesus was enthroned in Heaven, but He had left them with a mission. They had to build up and maintain the Church and tell everyone the Good News. The blessings of the New Covenant come through the preaching of the Gospel and the administration of the Sacraments that were entrusted to the Church. Salvation now extends beyond Israel to encompass all nations.

Then other generations after them would encounter Christ and believe in Him.

What can a parent do?

Tell children about Jesus and how He wants us to live. Tell them His story, spend time with Him in prayer, and receive the Sacraments regularly. Then people will know we belong to Christ if we treat them like He did.

Feasts & Celebrations

May 1 – St. Joseph the Worker (1st century). Entrusted with the care of the Blessed Mother and Jesus, Joseph was a humble carpenter who was dedicated to his family and obedient to God.

May 13 – Our Lady of Fatima (1917). The Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to three shepherd children near Fatima, Portugal, and asked that they pray the Rosary for peace, for the end of World War I, for sinners and for the conversion of Russia.

May 19 – St. Celestine V (1296). Born in Italy, Peter di Morrone was a monk and hermit who founded the order of the Celestines as a branch of the Benedictine order. He was elected pope and accepted because the papacy had been vacant for two years. He resigned to return to his humble, pre-papal life but was imprisoned by his successor and died in prison.

May 30 – St. Joan of Arc (1412). Patron of France, St. Joan was inspired by God in a vision to lead the French to victory during the Hundred Year's War against England. She was captured and falsely accused of sorcery. She was canonized in 1920.

Parent TALK

It is important to me that we eat together as a family but every night I had to call Tobin three or four times for dinner. The food would get cold and my temper hot while we waited for him to join us. Finally, I decided to try something new.

The next night I announced that I would ring a bell at 6:00pm each night when dinner was ready. Whoever wanted to eat was welcome. An hour later, dinner would be over and the kitchen would close until breakfast the next day.

The next night I rang the bell and everyone came ... except Tobin. We said grace and enjoyed a nice, hot meal.

An hour later, Tobin came down looking for supper, puzzled that I didn't call him again. I reminded him that dinner was at 6:00pm and he missed it. "But I'm hungry," he said. "Then you'll really enjoy breakfast. We're having pancakes," I replied calmly and walked away. He was never late again.
