Justice Challenge

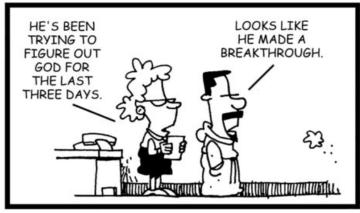

Solemnity of the Most Blessed Trinity

On Sunday we celebrate the Trinity, the union and communion of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The Trinity lives in perfect harmony and love as three persons in one God. They are a model to all of us of living together as one in community. Catholic Relief Services reminds us that we are one human family. Your challenge this week is to live in communion with someone in need. Stand in solidarity with a person who is outside your regular orbit of family, friends, fellow workers or students, neighbors, etc. Listen to this person's story, share something of yourself, and offer support of some kind. ©Center for Ministry Development. TRINITY SUNDAY

Family Faith Formation

"Say the Word and My Soul Shall be Healed." People reaching for God and God reaching for people. We can't get there on our own.

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

One of the first prayers we learn. We teach it to our youngest members. It is so much fun watching little people try to remember how to make the Sign of the Cross when all they are interested in is getting into "that water."

Why do you make the Sign of the Cross? What does it mean for you?

When do you pray to God as Father? When do you pray to God as Son? When do you pray to God as Holy Spirit?

From the homilies recently...

Fr. Jim

Who is the Holy Spirit?

The answer is present in our hearts.

The presence of the Holy Spirit is seen in how we live our lives.

Where we experience unity and communion, there is the Holy Spirit.

When we are peacemakers, when we embrace the whole world/ all people in love, there is the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit always encourages us to give us heart, to give us hope.

Fr. Jay

Jesus told his apostles, "The Holy Spirit will teach you everything." Today we often hear other things.

Jesus speaking to St. Francis of Assisi "Build my church." Not only rebuilding a church that was falling down but to build the church of and through the people.

The Church is all of us. How do we all come together?

"In a previous gathering of the Association of United States Catholic Priests, we were asked two questions, How has the Church hurt you?

How has the Church helped you?

These questions were very insightful for our group. Many things were shared that had not been expressed before. What could these questions tell us?

Should we have a gathering in our parish giving us an opportunity to ask these questions and respond to them? Please email me (jdavidson@evdio.org) and let me know if you think we should have a gathering.

Pray that the Spirit will come as strongly as he did in the past.

First Communion Class 2022

Let us continue to pray for Georgia, Giovanna, Harper & Ava

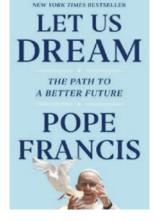

Let Us Dream: The Path to A Better Future.

We have a great history of justice and charity work at All Saints, but the COVID pandemic has affected us all. Some are not yet comfortable returning to Mass, much less attending public meetings or activities.

I have been thinking about a book I read as we were all hunkering down during the pandemic. It's called:

Let Us Dream: The Path to A Better Future. This is a small book (6 x $8\frac{1}{2}$ x $5\frac{3}{4}$) and 144 pages. Pope Francis wrote this book for American Catholics during the COVID crisis. He tells us we enter a crisis to be sifted, but we do not come out of a crisis the same as we were, but either better or worse. He suggests we need to think about what we experienced, what we saw and how our hearts were tested. The temptation is to retreat, and Pope Francis says instead we should make things better. "This is a moment to dream big, to rethink our priorities—what we value, what we want, what we seek—and to commit to act in our daily life on what we have dreamed of."

I think it would be immensely helpful to take time to consider his words and how they might apply to us. Things that were important to us before COVID, may not be now and something else may really be where we want to put our energies.

As the new Justice Minister at All Saints Parish, I would like us to start off the new Justice Ministry with both support and discovery. I envision the impact that can happen if many of us take 4 hours out of our busy life to think about COVID's impact and what it means to us, our community and what we should do as a result.

I will facilitate a small discussion group of Pope Francis' book Let Us Dream and include time for prayer for justice in the world, in our country, in our community, in our Parish, in our Justice Ministry and in ourselves. We would meet four times before Mass to discuss Pope Frances' book Let Us Dream.

The book is divided into four sessions:

- Prologue first session
- •A Time To See second session
- •A Time To Choose third session
- •A Time To Act and Epilogue fourth session

Times are set to fit into your day if you are already coming to a particular Mass:

St. Joseph Church- Saturday, June 11, 18, 25, and July 2, 2-3:00pm.

St. Anthony Chapel- Sunday, July 10, 17, 26 and 31, 9-10:00am.

St. Anthony Chapel- Sunday, August 7, 14, 21, and 28 3:30-4:30pm.

I will arrange a Zoom meeting series either during the day or evening during the week if there is interest.

The book costs about $16.00 new. I have two copies to share.
