Justice Challenge 22th Week in Ordinary Time

The powerful Gospel this Sunday has Jesus teaching us to be humble and not seek the best seat in the house. He also wants us to be hospitable to the most marginalized people in our communities. He tells his followers to invite the "poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind" to our banquets—in other words, those who can't pay us back. Your challenge this week is to extend an invitation to someone less fortunate than you—to a family barbecue, breakfast, a movie, or just coffee. Go out of your comfort zone and share your own blessings with someone who cannot pay you back.

From the homilies recently...

Fr. Steve

Inclusivity....

3 year olds....just playing and having a good time. They don't see differences.

We are not separate but united.

We need to welcome all people.

Going to Mass every Sunday, going to communion, reading your Bible, being a good steward....forget it. Jesus tells us that is not all that is needed to get into heaven.

The challenge is for all of us to form that unity with those we call the people of God, especially the poor.

Discipline ourselves not to be just for ourselves but to be for one another.

Fr. Jay

What will we show Jesus when we get to heaven?

Will he ask us, "What have you absorbed? What have you taken on as part of yourself? What have you learned? What have you changed about yourself?"

Fr. Gabriel occasionally taught religion when I was in grade school. He told us that in heaven everyone will be perfectly happy, and some will be happier than others. He gave the example of a row of glasses set on a table. They are all filled to the top. We are like the glasses. We all have different capacities for happiness.

Our job on earth is to grow our capacity for happiness. Absorb what the Lord is telling us and make it part of our being. What have we absorbed into our being to be more like Jesus?

People reaching for God and God reaching for people.

We can't get there on our own.

In today's Responsorial Psalm we sing..."God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor."

We hear an example of this in today's Gospel. How do we make a home for the poor in our lives?

Eucharistic Renewal

The Eucharistic Renewal in our diocese focuses on four goals:

1. Believe: Foster belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.
2. Worship: Foster attendance at Mass, as well as valuing Mass in its entirety.
3. Live: Encourage living in such a way so as to reflect the Eucharist in our daily lives.
4. Share: Encourage sharing the truth, beauty and goodness of Mass with others so that they in turn may be drawn to it.

As part of our participation in the Renewal, I will be sharing responses from members of the parish. I hope you will enjoy reading their thoughts, be encouraged by their thoughts, and be challenged to look at how you see and live the Eucharist as part of your life.

From a member of the parish...

1. Why is it important to you to attend Mass?

Mass is my rock, my grounding place, my weekly reset.

2. What does it mean to you to receive the Eucharist/Body of Christ?

The Eucharist is the renewal for my soul.

3. How does receiving the Eucharist/Body of Christ help you, change you, challenge you?

The Eucharist is a physical manifestation and reminder of the Lord's sacrifice to me and all sinners. And it reminds me to try and be worthy of that sacrifice.

4. How is your receiving the Eucharist/Body of Christ reflected in your life, shared with your world?

5. Other thoughts you'd like to share.

I've been interested and attending Latin Mass at another parish that is closer to my new home and more convenient. Would love to know if there is any possibility of Latin Mass coming to All Saints? I happen to be more traditional, more conservative and find greater appeal and greater resonance in the Latin Mass.

Tri-State CC would like to share with you several exciting activities and developments in store for late Summer and early Fall. (detailed info is on our website: www.tristatecreationcare.org)

The volunteer work is optional. The picnic lunch begins at 11:30 am. Tri-State CC will provide good food from the grill. Just bring a lawn chair and maybe a dish to share and we'll get to know each other better.

www.setonharvest.org

Also in partnership with Seton Harvest, TSCC is co-hosting poet Matthew Graham for an evening of nature poetry on Saturday, Sept 24., 6:30 pm at Seton Harvest. # GROWING WITH THE Gospel CYCLE C

PUZZLE

How many hearts can you count?

The answer is sixteen

MISSION

When you sit down with your family for dinner tonight, ask if you can serve the food. You may surprise your parents and get some pretty big smiles from them.

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

 BECAUSE VIBRANT CHURCHES MATTER

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time • Luke 14:1, 7-14

GOSPEL

If you act bossy, you might get your way, but you won't make many friends. Jesus shared a secret about making friends. When you treat other kids with kindness, they will want to be your friends. Instead of telling other kids what to do, ask other kids to choose a game. If you want to play tag with other kids, offer to be "it" first. If it is time to line up to go outside, offer to go to the back of the line and let other kids in front of you.

PRAYER

Dear God, help me to be a good friend.

DRAW

Draw a picture of yourself at the end of the line.

BECAUSE VIBRANT
CHURCHES MATTER

The Worshipping Assembly at Mass

In Liturgy, we do not simply remember the past. No, the mystery of our salvation is present to us. This happens because the liturgy is opus Dei. By God's grace we enter into God's own life. Thus, liturgy is not fundamentally something we do. But an action, a mystery that we receive, that we remain open to, that we are drawn into.

–Bishop Arthur Serratelli

The celebration of Mass is a corporate act, an act of the whole assembly gathered for worship. All the particular ministries serve this corporate function (General Instruction of the Roman Missal [GIRM],27). In the Mass, the Church is joined to the action of Christ, “the high point both of the action by which God sanctifies the world in Christ and of the worship that the human race offers to the Father, adoring him through Christ, the Son of God, in the Holy Spirit” (GIRM,16). We are joined to this divine action through Baptism, which incorporates us into the risen Christ. This action, which lies at the center of the whole Christian life (GIRM,16) is not initiated by us but by God acting in and through the Church as the body of the risen Christ. It becomes our action only to the extent that we give ourselves to this mystery of redemptive worship. The liturgy is designed to bring about in all those who make up the worshipping assembly “a full participation of the faithful, both in body and mind, a participation burning with faithful, hope, and charity...” (GIRM,18). To the extent that we are able to participate in this way, the work of redemption becomes personally effective for each of us. By such participation, the General Instruction says, we make the actions and prayers of the liturgy our own; we enter more fully into our personal communion with Christ's redeeming act and perfect worship (see GIRM,54, 55, etc.).

In the celebration of Mass the faithful are “a holy people, a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of his own” (1 Peter 2:9) they give thanks to God and offer the Victim not only through the hands of the priest but also together with him and learn to offer themselves. They should endeavor to make this clear by their deep sense of reverence for God and their charity toward brothers and sisters who share with them in the celebration (GIRM,95). They should become one body, whether by hearing the word of God, or joining in prayers and liturgical song, or above all by offering the sacrifice together and sharing together in the Lord's Table (GIRM,96).

Because the whole liturgy is a corporate act of the gathered assembly (GIRM,34; Catechism of the Catholic Church 1144), there are certain parts of the Mass that are to be done by the whole assembly, the congregation of the faithful and all the ministers, in order to express the corporate nature of this act. Through these actions, the entire congregation of the faithful joins itself to Christ in acknowledging the great things that God has done and in offering the sacrifice (GIRM,78).

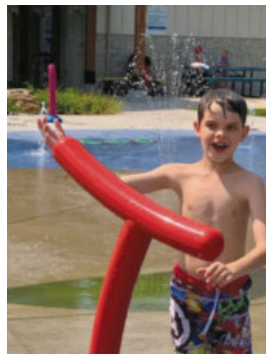

These acts include:

- ◆ Listening with reverence to the readings of God's word (GRIM,29)
- ◆ Engaging in the dialogue of prayer through acclamations, greetings, and responses to spoken and sung prayers (GRIM,34-37) in a tone suitable to the text (GRIM,38);
- ◆ Joining in an action through common postures and gestures (GRIM,42);
- ◆ Participating in communal silence (GRIM,45);
- ◆ Because of their baptismal dignity, letting themselves be included in the offering symbolized by incensation (GRIM,75);
- ◆ Participating in the greeting of peace as a sign of ecclesial communion with each other (GRIM,82);
- ◆ Participating in specific spoken prayers and other texts, namely:
  - > the formula of general confession during the Penitential Act (GRIM,51);
  - > the Creed (GRIM,67-68);
  - > the Prayer of the Faithful (GRIM,69);
  - > the Lord's Prayer (GRIM,81);
  - > the prayer of humility before sacramental Communion (GRIM,84);
- ◆ Participating in the offering during the Eucharistic Prayer, which is spoken or chanted by the Priest alone, but in which all internally should join as the Church to offer the "spotless Victim to the Father in the Holy Spirit" and "offer their very selves, and so day by day to be brought, through the mediation of Christ, into unity with God and with each other, so that at least God may be all in all" (GRIM,79f);
- ◆ Participating in liturgical song, because singing is a way of expressing both the corporate nature of the act of worship and the intense union to be achieved between God and the Church in Christ through the Holy Spirit. Singing is also an act which unifies and focuses the individual (GRIM,39), thus encouraging that participation in body and spirit that is conscious, active, full, and motivated by faith, hope, and charity (GRIM,18). These songs and acclamations are normally to be sung, in whole or in part, by all the participants:
  - > Entrance Chant (GRIM,48);
  - > Kyrie, eleison (Lord, have mercy) (GRIM,52)
  - > Gloria (GRIM,53)
  - > Responsorial Psalm (GRIM,61);
  - > Acclamation before the Gospel (GRIM,62);
  - > Song at the Preparation of the Gifts (GRIM,74)
  - > Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy), Mystery of Faith, and Amen (GRIM,79, 151);
  - > The Lord's Prayer (GRIM,81);
  - > Agnus Dei (Lamb of God) (GRIM,83);
  - > The optional psalm/canticle/hymn after Communion (GRIM,88).
- ◆ For those who are properly disposed (GRIM,80), partaking in Holy Communion, receiving in the bread and wine consecrated at this Mass the Lord's Body and Blood, in the same way that the Apostles received them from Christ's own hands (GRIM,72).

A huge THANK YOU to Fatima for having a picnic with the Choir kids!

As you can tell by the smiles,
it was a hit!!
