Justice Challenge
19th Week in Ordinary Time

Pope Paul the VI said "If you want peace, work for justice." In a world that has wars, terrorism, violence, and fear, the Christ-like way to fix it is to be people of peace. This only happens when we work for justice. When everyone has enough food, decent shelter, hopes for an education, meaningful work, and healthcare, then justice will be the norm. Many people have given their lives to the work of justice in the world.

Your challenge this week is to do a Google or other internet search of people who work for justice. You may find names of people you have heard of and many you have not. Take time to learn about justice and peace workers this week. Keep as a role model or mentor someone you discovered in your search. Share their story and keep their dream alive.

From the homilies recently...

From Fr. Steve...

Learn to pray...Learn to listen...Listen to God's generosity in our lives.

The key to prayer is to get out of your own way. Listen to God's words. The answer to our prayers sometimes is "No." Ask God, what is really best for me at this time. I will accept it.

Ask and seek and knock and God will give us everything we need. Not necessarily what we want. And God will give us the Holy Spirit. We need to get up and give the bread to all who ask for it.

All Saints Parish gives a Shout Out to Seth Allen

This week we recognize Seth Allen, a member of All Saints Parish since 2004. Seth attends the 10:30am mass at our St. Anthony campus and his favorite thing about All Saints is that everyone is treated like family, helping out whenever needed. A true example of giving, Seth participates in family faith formation, youth group, soup kitchen, and clothes closet. In his free time, Seth enjoys weight lifting, camping, community service, running, studying health/fitness and chemistry. You may also find him watching true crime documentaries or listening to music. Having graduated high school with academic/technical honors, a member of the National Honor Society, and as an Eagle Scout, we can only imagine what a bright future he has ahead of him. Seth will be attending Purdue University in the fall for engineering.

All Saints thanks you for your time and talent. Boiler up!

Family Faith Formation

"I am with you always...Believe...Worship...Live...Share"
People reaching for God and God reaching for people.
We can't get there on our own.

In today's Gospel, we hear that the servants are to be prepared for the master's return. They were to have gone about the work of the master during his absence in order to be ready for his return.

What does God ask of us? What is the work of God that we are to be doing? When we grow tired and weary of doing God's work, how do we get a new energy and commitment to God's work?

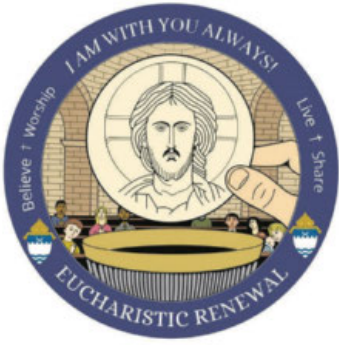

SAVE THE DATE

Family Faith Formation

Eucharistic Renewal

The Eucharistic Renewal in our diocese focuses on four goals:

1. Believe: Foster belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.
2. Worship: Foster attendance at Mass, as well as valuing Mass in its entirety.
3. Live: Encourage living in such a way so as to reflect the Eucharist in our daily lives.
4. Share: Encourage sharing the truth, beauty and goodness of Mass with others so that they in turn may be drawn to it.

As part of our participation in the Renewal, I will be sharing responses from members of the parish. I hope you will enjoy reading their thoughts, be encouraged by their thoughts, and be challenged to look at how you see and live the Eucharist as part of your life.

From a member of the parish...

1. Why is it important to you to attend Mass?

In all honesty, if there was no obligation, some weeks are so busy that going to Mass would fall far down on my to-do list. Sometimes it can feel difficult to squeeze the time into my schedule. But once I'm there, it's a respite from all the busyness of life and the chaos of the world.

2. What does it mean to you to receive the Eucharist/Body of Christ?

It means that Christ becomes part of me and accompanies me when I leave the sanctuary of Church; that He goes with me wherever I go.

3. How does receiving the Eucharist/Body of Christ help you, change you, challenge you?

If He's with me, that prompts me to stop and remind myself to consciously consider what He'd want when I'm faced with a choice or challenge. I am reminded that He always wants what's best for me and for everyone else as well. My thoughts, words, and actions should be more intentional, not just impulsive.

4. How is your receiving the Eucharist/Body of Christ reflected in your life, shared with your world?

I try to be compassionate and understanding, even when I'm not necessarily initially feeling it in the moment. A small example: At the end of a long stressful day at work, I was tired, but a co-worker needed a ride home, so I helped out. Afterward, I felt like I did what God would've wanted. If it's something I'm feeling helpless about, I remember the power of prayer.

FOCUS

Emma Hoffman attended Resurrection and Mater Dei and is a recent graduate of IU. She noticed that of the group of Catholic students who also attended IU from our area, very few participated in Mass or other activities at school. She found a need to get more involved in her faith and eventually joined a college prayer group. The prayer group introduced her to FOCUS - "A Catholic collegiate outreach whose mission is to share the hope and joy of the gospel with college and university students inspiring and equipping them for a lifetime of Christ-centered evangelization, discipleship, and friendships in which they lead others to do the same." Emma is one of 200 missionaries who are committed to helping students continue in their faith after they leave home and enter college, a time when many drop out of faith participation. She will be posted at Grand Valley State University in Michigan starting this fall. If you are interested in helping support Emma in her efforts, she can be reached at 812-453-3404 or emma.hoffman@focus.org.
