All Saints Parish Fall Festival Booth #98

The 2022 The Fall Festival is October 3rd-8th

Check out the new menu item, Taco al Pastor. It's a pork & pineapple taco & Mexican Street Corn.

Again this year José Ramirez is providing the food. If you see José, please thank him for his generous donation!

How you can help

Help at the Fall Festival Booth, please choose a 4 hour shift from Monday, October 3– Saturday, October 8 or what fits into your schedule. You can choose more than one shift and bring a friend. Sign up by going to the App or call the parish office. Thank you for your continued support to All Saints Parish!!

Canned Drink & Bottled Water Donations Needed!

Canned Coke, Diet Coke, Sprite or Ski (only these four products please) and bottled water. These drinks will be sold at the Fall Festival Booth. Drinks can be dropped off at Mass or the Parish Office.

St. Vincent de Paul Society meets every Wednesday at 5:15 pm.
All are welcome to attend any

Wednesday meeting to experience how the Members assist the hundreds of under privileged people in our neighborhood. In fact, this past couple of months, so many have water shut offs lately that our funds are extremely low. Our founder Blessed Frederick Ozanam said we are not to worry about resources when we are doing good works; help always comes along.

2022 Community Produce Giveaway

FREE produce to our Neighbors just two Sundays left.

Starting at 3:00pm

September 25 * October 23

Thank you to Julie Phillips,
Charlotte Connerton and Mary Berendes who have scheduled a list of vendors that will be joining us this month:

USI Nursing Students,
Anthem Medicaid & Medicare,
Familia Dental,
Master Gardeners,
Smokefree Communities and
Seton Harvest veggie van.

Again, thank you for your continued support to serve the community!

Fr. Steve

On vacation, I watched the movie, Unforgiven and read two books, A Time for Mercy and Confession.

All three were about losing and being found.

Most of us have lost things in life. Many of us grew up poor, in homes of abuse and addiction.

(Fr. Steve told parts of the stories from all three of these....no spoilers here....)

Jesus teaches us today very clearly that as an adult we get to eat with whomever we want to. As a people, we can be stiff necked like the Israelites. Jesus calls for us to be treated with mercy.

The parables of the lost sheep, the lost coin, and the lost son...The scriptures today are filled with mercy and compassion. Mercy and compassion that has been given to us. We are to treat each other with mercy.

Fr. Jay

We hear how Jesus ate with the tax collectors and sinners. In that culture, this made the tax collectors and sinners equal to the Scribes and Pharisees, which made them angry. Jesus wanted them to know that all people are equal.

Fr. Jay went on to tell the Parable of the Lost Sheep from the viewpoint of the lost sheep.

You can hear the story at

<https://allsaintsevansville.org/category/homilies/>

The lost sheep learned how at home, at peace and loved he felt when he was found by the shepherd and reunited with the flock.

Think about the mercy we have received from God and others. How others have forgiven us, overlooked our faults and have been kind to us.

How do we extend mercy and forgiveness to those who have hurt us?

Baptism of children should be arranged in advance by contacting Fr. Davidson at the Parish Office.

Catholic Schools: Grades K-12, open to children of our parishioners. Contact Sharon Vogler at the Parish Office to ask about our policy of sponsoring students in Catholic Schools.

Family Faith Formation: Religious Education for families and children is available. Please call Sharon Vogler at the Parish Office.

Homebound, Nursing Home or Hospital Visitation:
Call the Parish Office.

Marriage: Couples planning to be married should contact Fr. Davidson at least six months before the wedding date. This ensures time for adequate preparation.

New Parishioners: Call Tom Bogenschutz at the Parish Office to receive our Welcome Packet and Parish Directory.

Prayer Chain: Contact Machalle Walker at our Parish Office if you would like to join the phone or email prayer chain.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA): Those wishing to become Catholic or learn more about the Catholic faith may call the Parish Office.

Justice Challenge 25th Week in Ordinary Time

The Responsorial Psalm this Sunday is: "Praise the Lord, who lifts up the poor" (Psalm 113). Numerous psalms praise God for caring for the poorest and most vulnerable in our world. They also invite us to be part of God's plan for bringing justice to all. Your challenge this week is to peruse the psalms until you find one which speaks to your family of God's compassion for the poor. (You can also use Psalm 113.) Every day this week, pray at least part of your chosen psalm as a family or household on behalf of a person or community struggling with poverty, hunger, or lack of shelter. Start on Sunday with someone in your neighborhood or local community. Each day stretch your prayer further afield so that you are praying for global needs by the end of the week.

Eucharistic Renewal

The Eucharistic Renewal in our diocese focuses on four goals:

1. Believe: Foster belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.
2. Worship: Foster attendance at Mass, as well as valuing Mass in its entirety.
3. Live: Encourage living in such a way so as to reflect the Eucharist in our daily lives.
4. Share: Encourage sharing the truth, beauty and goodness of Mass with others so that they in turn may be drawn to it.

As part of our participation in the Renewal, I will be sharing responses from members of the parish. I hope you will enjoy reading their thoughts, be encouraged by their thoughts, and be challenged to look at how you see and live the Eucharist as part of your life.

From a member of the parish...

1. Why is it important to you to attend Mass?

Mass is important to me so that my relationship with my Father, Jesus and the Spirit will grow stronger. Mass is also important to me because I experience community with everyone there. We are together to support one another in living our Christian life

2. What does it mean to you to receive the Eucharist/Body of Christ?

In receiving Jesus Christ, He strengthens me for whatever He has planned for me to do during this coming week.

3. How does receiving the Eucharist/Body of Christ help you, change you, challenge you?

The Eucharist challenges my faith- believing Jesus Christ is truly present. And I am receiving Him. He is present and I need to bring His Presence to others this next week.

4. How is your receiving the Eucharist/Body of Christ reflected in your life, shared with your world?

I hope with Christ's love and Grace I will bring Him to any encounter to pass on His love, peace with compassion and authentic care and love.

Tri-State CC would like to share with you several exciting activities and developments in store for late Summer and early Fall. (detailed info is on our website: www.tristatecreationcare.org)

Tri-State Creation Care, in partnership with Seton Harvest, will be hosting a poetry reading, "Evening on the Farm", with Indiana Poet Laureate Matthew Graham on Saturday, Sept 24, at Seton Harvest (9400 New Harmony Rd).

Admission is free, but donations are gladly accepted. Gates open at 5:30 pm and the event begins at 6:30. Registration is required. Visit the TSCC's website, www.tristatecreationcare.org, and look for the registration link on the activities page. Attendance is limited so don't delay.

Finally, Tri-State CC will be hosting Evansville's first ever electric vehicle cruise-in. "EV's for EVV" is on Sunday, Oct. 2 from 4-7:00 pm at N. Green River Road. Come and check out the latest in electric cars and bikes.

Tri-State CC is proud to announce that we now have a new website, <http://www.tristatecreationcare.org> on which all these activities are posted. Share it with your friends.

The celebration of Mass is an act of the whole assembly gathered as the Body of Christ for worship. In the Mass, the Church is joined to the action of Christ. We are joined to this divine action through Baptism, which incorporates us into the risen Christ. This action, which lies at “the center of the whole of Christian life” (General Instruction of the Roman Missal [GIRM], 16), is initiated not by us but by God acting in and through the Church as the Body of the risen Christ. The Liturgy is designed to bring about in all those who make up the worshipping assembly a “participation of the faithful, namely in body and in mind, a participation fervent with faith, hope, and charity” (GIRM, 18). To the extent that we are able to participate in this way, the work of redemption becomes personally effective for each of us. By such participation we make the actions and prayers of the Liturgy our own; we enter more fully into our personal communion with Christ’s redeeming act and perfect worship.

“In the celebration of Mass the faithful form a holy people, a people of God’s own possession and a royal priesthood, so that they may give thanks to God and offer the unblemished sacrificial Victim not only by means of the hands of the priest but also together with him, and so that they may learn to offer their very selves. They should, moreover, take care to show this by their deep religious sense and their charity toward brothers and sisters who participate with them in the same celebration. . . . Moreover, they are to form one body, whether in hearing the word of God, or in taking part in the prayers and in the singing, or above all by the common offering of the Sacrifice and by a participating together at the Lord’s table” (GIRM, 95, 96).

The participation of each person in the Liturgy is important. Each person needs to do his or her part.

Ordained Ministers in the Liturgy

Bishops and Priests are called to act in the Liturgy in the very person of Christ, on behalf of his people, pronouncing the most sacred prayers of our faith, presiding over the celebration of the sacred mysteries, explaining God’s Word and feeding God’s People on the Body and Blood of Christ. A Bishop has the added responsibility of being the chief shepherd, the principal liturgist of his diocese in his role as the successor of the Apostles. By God’s grace others are ordained to the ministry of Deacon. In the celebration of the Mass Deacons proclaim the Gospel, occasionally preach the homily, and assist the Bishop and Priest in exercising their sacred duties.

Other Liturgical Ministries

In addition to the ordained ministries, some roles in the Liturgy are exercised by lay people who place their time and talent at the service of the liturgical assembly as acolytes (altar servers), readers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, cantors, choir members, instrumentalists, and ushers. Others contribute their time and talent to planning and organizing the Liturgy; to keeping the church and the vestments, vessels, and appointments clean and well ordered; or to providing decorations that reflect the spirit of the liturgical feast or season.

This variety of offices and roles should be maintained. It is desirable that individuals function in roles of service at Mass. For example, if a Deacon is present, the celebrant or a concelebrant should not read the Gospel. The reader should not normally take on the role of a server or an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion.

A wide variety of services needs to be performed, and it is preferable that different individuals exercise those services so that the talents and gifts God has placed within the Christian community are fully used and that these roles of service are not monopolized by a few.

Those engaged in liturgical roles need to be well prepared for those roles and to know how to carry them out with reverence, dignity, and understanding. Receiving the proper preparation requires a further gift of time on the part of the person being prepared as well as on the part of those in the parish responsible for the training of liturgical ministers. Finally, the practical task of assigning individuals to particular Masses and organizing the distribution of roles is another indispensable element in the fabric of well-ordered liturgical ministry in a parish.

All the baptized need to understand that part of their duty regarding the Liturgy is to accept some responsibility for the Liturgy, to place themselves and their God-given talents at the service of the community whenever possible. Whether one brings up the gifts at the Presentation; reads the Word of God; assists with the distribution of Communion and brings the Eucharist to those unable to be present at Mass; serves at the altar; provides music that augments the joy, solemnity, and festivity of the celebration; or serves the community as an usher, he or she is contributing to the worship of the community and fulfilling the responsibility that comes with Baptism.

Not all members of the parish community will have the time, energy, strength, or ability to serve in these roles. However, individuals must be careful not to excuse themselves too easily. What is important is that all understand that the celebration of Liturgy is not just the responsibility of the pastor, although he is delegated by the Bishop to oversee the liturgical life of the parish. Pastors need the help of people who are serious about living out their baptismal right and responsibility to worship.

The Role of the Baptized

This catalog of specialized roles might give the impression that those who are not exercising one of these roles are free to sit back passively and simply let the Liturgy happen around them. Nothing could be further from the truth. Those who come together for Liturgy do not have the luxury of acting as spectators, waiting for all to be done for them. “Full, conscious, and active participation” in the Liturgy (as commended by the Second Vatican Council) is not only their right but also their duty and their responsibility. That responsibility includes full engagement throughout the liturgical celebration. The baptized faithful who form the congregation are called to join in praise and thanksgiving in song and spoken word, to listen attentively to God’s Word, and to exercise their baptismal priesthood in prayer for the Church, the world, and all in need during the Prayer of the Faithful.

In the Liturgy of the Eucharist the baptized faithful join their prayer to that of the Priest Celebrant, offering Christ the Victim, “not only by means of the hands of the Priest but also together with him,” and offer themselves as well (GIRM, no. 95). Their participation culminates in the reception of the Body and Blood of the Lord, the Sacrament that unites them more fully with Christ their Head and with one another. We need to be aware, therefore, that “participation” does not refer primarily to external activity or function during the celebration of Mass; rather, it refers to a deeply spiritual, interior participation of mind and heart, filled with devotion and penetrating the very depths of the mysteries we celebrate.

In their sincere efforts to participate, those present minister to the Priest, to others who serve in liturgical roles, and to one another. Their attention and active engagement in the celebration can draw from the Priest and the other ministers the best they have to offer. Their enthusiastic song and verbal responses made with conviction can encourage others to sing and respond; their very presence at the celebration of Mass when so many other enticing options might have been chosen instead supports and reinforces others who have made the same choice.

The Liturgy, then, is about God’s own people joining the saving work initiated by God, each with different offices and roles. When we play our roles in the Liturgy with our bodies, minds, and hearts fully engaged, we make to God a perfect sacrifice of praise.
