Fr. Steve

Jesus is not commending the steward for being dishonest. He is being commended for being prudent.

It challenges us, how do we use our money, all of the blessings God had given us? Do we help those in need? We need to be accountable for what we give. How generous are we with the money and possessions we have?

In this parable, we are told to plan for eternal life. Amos tells us we can't trample on the poor and needy.

We are to be concerned about what God asks of us. St. John Chrysostom tells us, if we do not share, we rob from the poor. We take away their livelihood.

Do we care more about God or about man, money, possessions?

Justice Challenge 26th Week in Ordinary Time

Sunday's Gospel tells the story of the rich man and Lazarus (Luke 16:19-31). Ironically, we don't see the rich man doing anything bad—he didn't hit Lazarus or make him leave or even yell at him. So why did he end up in eternal damnation? It was because he didn't even notice his suffering brother. The rich man was totally oblivious to the needs of Lazarus.

Your challenge this week is to increase your awareness. Look at your community, your country, and even your world with new eyes. Who are the invisible poor who need your help? Discuss every evening who you have noticed for the first time. Then, at the end of the week, as a family or an individual choose one action you can do to help a person or a group whom you identified. The help could be a financial donation, direct service, or a form of advocacy on their behalf (e.g., emailing your state legislators to change laws to provide more aid to the homeless or single-parent families or the mentally ill).

Parish Picnic 2022

Great food, good time.

Thank you to the volunteers who helped to make the day a success!!

Eucharistic Renewal

The Eucharistic Renewal in our diocese focuses on four goals:

1. Believe: Foster belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.
2. Worship: Foster attendance at Mass, as well as valuing Mass in its entirety.
3. Live: Encourage living in such a way so as to reflect the Eucharist in our daily lives.
4. Share: Encourage sharing the truth, beauty and goodness of Mass with others so that they in turn may be drawn to it.

As part of our participation in the Renewal, I will be sharing responses from members of the parish. I hope you will enjoy reading their thoughts, be encouraged by their thoughts, and be challenged to look at how you see and live the Eucharist as part of your life.

From a member of the parish...

1. Why is it important to you to attend Mass?

It is important for me to attend mass because I feel it's a time that all our loved ones that have passed are with us and watching as we pray for them.

2. What does it mean to you to receive the Eucharist/Body of Christ?

Receiving the body of Christ weekly is a reminder that Jesus is in my heart and I should go out for the week and show that to others that I encounter.

3. How does receiving the Eucharist/Body of Christ help you, change you, challenge you?

It helps feel every Sunday is a way to start fresh. To ask for Forgiveness for the weeks shortcomings and remind me Jesus is in me and encouraging me to be the best I can be.

4. How is your receiving the Eucharist/Body of Christ reflected in your life, shared with your world?

I use this at work often. If times arise when I must deal with unkind people, I try and think that these people are Gods people just like me. I remind myself to take a moment to remember Jesus wants to treat all people kind.

5. Other thoughts you'd like to share.

All Saints is truly a place to come for a weekly renewal. Somehow every message speaks right to me and I walk out feeling good and ready to spread the kindness and love of God to others.

One Minute Meditations

Our home is not here

No one wants to stand out or appear different from the norm. Yet, in the prayer, "Our Father," we are reminded that our real Father is in Heaven. Our life on Earth is temporary. By asking us to pray this prayer, Jesus reminds us that our Father waits for us in Heaven, our true home.

Choose entertainment wisely

Those who make movies, television shows, video games, or other forms of entertainment make what sells. They don't necessarily intend to enlighten or uplift. A steady diet of violent entertainment and media helps us become comfortable with violence and to see people as characters rather than humans. Instead, choose entertainment that inspires you to live a better life, and pray for victims of violence and for the souls of those who perpetrate it.

From St. Therese of Lisieux

"Without love, deeds, even the most brilliant, count as nothing."
(Story of a Soul)

What gifts did God gift just to you?

God gave us each a distinctive set of talents and gifts that make us unique and special. He intends us to use those gifts to bring others to Him and encourage us to grow in love and knowledge of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Here are some practical tips for discerning your spiritual gifts and how to use them:

Take a clue from what you enjoy. How do you like to spend your time? Do you enjoy teaching, creating, singing, reading, constructing, instructing, socializing? We often enjoy doing what we do best. God often wants us to use those competencies to share His love with others.

Tap into your personality. God loves and delights in each of us. He will purify our sinfulness, but what is essential to us, He wants to develop and strengthen. If God made you humorous, artistic, pragmatic, or athletic, grow your best qualities for His use.

How are you living your vocation? Whether we are married, single, or consecrated religious, it's the "role" in which we serve God best. All priorities should be ordered around that vocation.

Make your gift a gift to others. Our gifts are meant to be given away in service of the Kingdom. We give away and God gives us more. Ask God where your gifts can do the most good.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics honor the saints?

Non-Catholics often wonder at the hundreds of calendar days, prayers, and statues devoted to the saints. The Church recognizes and celebrates men and women of extraordinary holiness who we realize are in heaven. We look to them as examples to follow and what we can become when we cooperate fully with God's grace. God's goodness, beauty, and love is reflected in the saints' lives. Just as complimenting an artwork is honoring the artist, so by honoring the saints, we glorify God.
