From the homilies recently...

Fr. Steve

The truth is we all have all the faith we need. We sometimes think we need more money or more time or more faith.

God has instilled in us enough faith to move mountains. God tells us to just do our job as disciples. Serve others.

Habakkuk faced a lot of pain and destruction. He knew the vision of his mission would come.

Stir into flame the faith in your heart...be strong, loving and wise. Stir into flame the Spirit in your heart. We have been given plenty of faith...put it into practice.

Fr. Jay

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith." We've probably all asked for this. Faith comes with difficulty. Faith is believing in what we do not see. We have to stand up sometimes and confront people and hope that we are right. Faith is not easy.

A person asked their Spiritual Director, "How can I get God to speak more loudly so I can hear him?" The Spiritual Director says, "God's speaking as loudly as he's going to speak. What you need to do is get rid of the noise in your life, the clutter that keeps you from hearing.

With all of our noise (external and internal) it is hard to hear God. We need to empty ourselves at times and hear what God has to tell us.

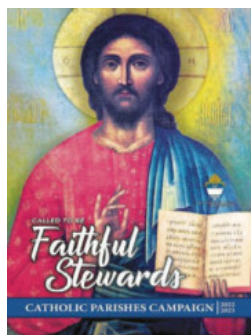

Faith is a relationship with God. To increase our faith, spend more time with God and increase our relationship with God. Let God work within us.

Called to be Faithful Stewards— CPC (Catholic Parish Campaign)

We are into our CPC Campaign now, this week you should be receiving your CPC letter, pledge card and other information about how CPC helps our Diocese families. To make a pledge electronically go to www.allsaintsevansville.org. At the top of the page click on Online Giving and follow the prompts.

Please be sure to sign your pledge card then, you can mail it back in the return envelope or just drop it in the collection basket.

Justice Challenge 28th Week in Ordinary Time

Sunday's Gospel tells the story of the ten lepers (Luke 17:11-19), only one of whom returned to thank Jesus for being healing. Lepers were considered outcasts in Jewish society, sometimes being forced to wear bells around their necks to warn others of their approach so people could avoid them completely. How starved for human contact they must have been! Jesus' healing of the lepers was more than a cure for a skin disease. He gave back to them the precious gift of interaction, of connection, of touch.

Your challenge this week is to reach out to someone who has been rejected by others. It might be the kid at school whom everyone picks on, or the co-worker who messes up all the time, or the family on the block who doesn't keep their yard as tidy as the neighbors think they should. It might be a whole immigrant community. Whoever you choose, spend some time with this person or group, learning something about them which reminds you that they, too, are created in God's own image and likeness. They, too, deserve respect and dignity. Keep them in your prayers.

28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Family Faith Formation

"This is my body given for you." (Luke 22:19). . . Awesome God
People reaching for God and God reaching for people.
We can't get there on our own.

In Family Faith Formation this year, as we learn about traditions, we are learning about and using prayers. At a past session, we prayed the Lord's Prayer and then we asked all our participants, young and old, to share what they thought each part of the prayer meant to them. Below is a compilation of some of their responses. May you enjoy it as you pray it slowly and meditatively.

Lord's Prayer....Our Father....

God in heaven above, father who knows everything, Honor. Holy is your name. Everything comes from him. He is so perfect, even his name is special.

Heaven come.

God will make earth like heaven.

Nourish. He provides all our needs. Give us what we need to live this day.

Show us mercy in the same way we show mercy to others. He always forgives us. He wants us to also learn to forgive people who did wrong to us.

Keep us away from anything that might harm our relationships with you. To make good choices; Don't lead us into trouble.

Help us not to do bad things. Keep us safe. Keep us safe from bad things. Make us not turn evil.

Amen.

Today's Gospel ends with Jesus telling the healed leper...Then he said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."

How have you known God's healing power in your life, through your faith?

Questions of the Week

First Reading:

In the healing of Naaman from leprosy, we hear how Naaman became a believer in the one God of Israel. How have you experienced God's presence in your life?

Second Reading:

Paul teaches Timothy the importance of perseverance and commitment to one's faith in Christ. When have you decided to remain faithful, even when it was hard?

Gospel:

Jesus seems disappointed that of the ten lepers he healed, only one of them, a foreigner (the Samaritan), thanked him. How can you show gratitude to God today? During the week?
