This Advent brings with it a new time in the life of All Saints Parish.

As you all know we had a parish synod a couple of years ago. One of the areas that was chosen to be addressed was Leadership. The Planning Committee has been working since then to determine the best direction for All Saints Parish. That opportunity has arrived.

I have decided that it is time to retire from full time ministry as the pastor of All Saints Parish. I will continue to work as a Sacramental Minister along with Fr. Steve Lintzenich.

We have decided that the leadership of the parish will continue with a Pastoral Life Coordinator (PLC). Bishop Siegel has appointed Sharon Vogler as our Pastoral Life Coordinator. I'm sure that you will give Sharon your wholehearted support!

The appointment will be effective November 28.

Sincerely,
Fr. Jay Davidson
Pastor

Justice Challenge

1st Week of Advent

The first reading for this Sunday is one with which we are familiar. It is the passage from the Book of Isaiah (2:1-5) describing what the world will be like when the Messiah comes. The image of people beating swords into plowshares—taking instruments used to kill people and changing them into instruments which help grow food to feed people—is a powerful one.

Your challenge in this first week of Advent is to spend some time reflecting on how you are peacemakers (as a family and as individuals). Do you bring people together by your words and actions or do you create conflict? Then decide on one action you can take to make the world a more peace-filled place. Do you want to pray for peace in our world, our country, and our families? Do you want to write to government leaders to advocate for a more peaceful approach to a particular issue? Do you want to take a stand for more gun control? How do you want to bring peace?

Congregations Acting for Justice & Empowerment

CAJE is holding a Research Kick off meeting Monday, December 5. Contact your Team Leader for specifics or Brenda Meyer at (812)457-5529.

CAJE Network members who want to work on finding proven solutions commit to working on a particular CAJE issue campaign. Each issue group sets up meetings to further study the problem, talk with key individuals and learn how other communities have addressed similar issues.

Research starts in December and continues thru January and February. Each problem issue is directed by a steering committee and has a larger committee represented by all the congregations.

Starting in March, these groups are responsible for cutting the issues and developing the questions that will be presented to key individuals who have the power to implement these community changes.

Family Faith Formation

"This is my body given for you."

(Luke 22:19) ...Awesome God

People reaching for God and God reaching for people.

We can't get there on our own.

The First Sunday of Advent?! Where did the year go?!

As we begin Advent, we always hear a theme of getting prepared for Christ to come as we remember at Christmas and again at the end of time.

I know the 3 quotes below are out of context. I just liked what they said to me about preparing.

First Reading - "Come, let us climb the LORD's mountain, to the house of the God of Jacob, that he may instruct us in his ways, and we may walk in his paths."

Responsorial Psalm - Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

Gospel - Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come.

These three passages make me reflect on how I bring myself to Mass on the weekend. Have I prepared for Mass? Do I come rejoicing knowing that I will hear the Word of God, receive Christ's body, celebrate with the Body of Christ present at Mass? And how do I leave this celebration renewed and strengthened for the coming week until we gather again?

All Saints Parish Angel Tree

This year, we are helping at least 10 of our All Saints Parish families.

We will continue our tradition of giving our families gift cards. With these gift cards, they are able to purchase the exact items they need. Gift cards that can be used for Christmas gifts, groceries or gas are appreciated. Not to tell you what to purchase... but....WalMart, Schnucks, IGA, Target, Kohls, JCPenney, etc.

We will NOT have SCRIP cards available this Christmas...sorry.

We know this is a tight time of year for some of us and our budgets. Please give as you can. If you cannot give, please keep our families in your prayers.

Gift cards can be put in the Angel Tree boxes at either Church, or you can drop them in the collection basket or drop them off at the Parish Office. Please be sure to mark the envelope "Angel Tree."

Last day to donate a gift card is Friday, December 9th.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish families.

From the homilies recently...

Fr. Steve

Question.... How do we deal in a crisis?

How do we deal with all of the fears in our lives?

Challenge of the Word today.... in the midst of all the struggles we need to persevere.

Jesus says by perseverance you will save your life. All of these unfortunate things will happen. Be a people of hope. No tragedy is beyond hope in God's healing. God is always near us.

St. Paul would tell us don't give in and don't give up.

The Lord will always rule with justice, we just need to persevere.

Fr. Jay

The temple is where God lived among them.

Jesus is telling us that the end for everything is coming. All kinds of things in our lives come and go. Precious things. We cannot be too attached to things of this earth. We have to be ready to give them up and it's not easy.

Jesus tells us don't prepare. Fr. Jay shared the story of Gwen and Clark Bush. Go online to hear the story.

All we can do is trust in God because God loves us. The God of justice is going to turn all bad things around. He's going to make sure that we enjoy this new life with him.

Take a few moments to reflect on our faith and relax. Thank God for his blessings and be prepared to live with him forever in glory, in joy, in the warmth of his love.
