Justice Challenge 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Gospel for Sunday includes Jesus' call of Peter, Andrew, James, and John to be his apostles. Scripture tells us that they dropped their nets and immediately responded to his invitation. Your challenge this week is to listen to Jesus' call to you. What is he asking you to do this week, particularly for those who are in need of healing. Just as Jesus cured those who were sick as he proclaimed the Kingdom of God, how can you help to heal someone who has an injured heart or soul? How can you bring them Jesus' message of God's boundless love and desire that all people live in dignity and hope?

OR

This week we celebrate the Feast Day of Saint Francis de Sales (Jan. 24). Legend has it that Francis was so holy that his reputation spread across the land. He was once approached by a stranger who asked him to share the secret of a holy life. Francis replied, "Would you please close the door more gently?" Francis wanted the stranger to understand that it is in the ordinary, day-to-day events and actions of our lives that we truly live good and faithful lives. Your challenge this week is to look at the little ways in which you tolerate or practice injustice. If someone tells a racist joke, do you laugh or remain silent? If someone advocates for laws which benefit the rich and the middle class but hurt the poor, do you support those laws? If someone is bullying someone smaller or weaker, do you just watch? Track the day-to-day ways in which you practice justice and a special option for the poor; also track when you practice injustice or tolerate it in others. Then choose one way in which you are unjust and work this week on becoming a more faithful person or family.

3rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Family Faith Formation

"This is my body given for you."

(Luke 22:19) ...Awesome God

People reaching for God and God reaching for people.
We can't get there on our own.

In our First Reading this weekend, we hear,

"The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;
upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shone.

You have brought them abundant joy and great rejoicing"

The light of Christ has been shone on us...Christ has brought abundant joy.

How do we share Christ's light with others? How do we share Christ's joy?

When is it difficult to share Christ's light and joy?

With whom is it difficult to share Christ's light and joy?

From the homilies recently...

Fr. Tom

Who are you? Who am I?

Where have you been? We can all answer these questions.

The big question...What are you living for?

What is All Saints Parish living for as a community? What force is directing our lives?

John the Baptist was living to be part of God's plan. You and I are the same. Everything John says and does points to Jesus.

Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. At the Last Supper, Jesus washed the feet of the disciples and said do as I do.

How do we let the light of Christ shine through us?
How do we build up a community of justice?

Fr. Jay

We are about to run out of stories about John the Baptist and launch into the stories of the life of Jesus.

Story of John the Baptist....listen online at <https://allsaintsevansville.org/category/homilies/>

John's job was to point out Jesus, the Messiah when he came. Sometimes things are just hidden from us. Jesus was not in his expected context. John's clue was when he saw the Spirit come.

Jesus shows up in our lives in different ways. Sometimes we don't see him. Where has Jesus appeared in your life? When have you gotten a sign that Jesus was present? You may want to ask Jesus to let you know more often when he is present in your life.

Congregations Acting for Justice & Empowerment

Research continues thru January and February. Each problem issue is directed by a steering committee and has a larger committee represented by all the congregations.

Starting in March, these groups are responsible for cutting the issues and developing the questions that will be presented to key individuals who have the power to implement these community changes.

St. Meinrad Sunday Weekend of February 4 & 5, 2023

For many years, the Diocese of Evansville has benefited from the ministry of those formed at Saint Meinrad Archabbey, Seminary and School of Theology. Our parish will learn more about their important work from a monk of Saint Meinrad.

In our diocese, 46 active and retired priests, 46 permanent deacons, and 312 lay ministers attended Saint Meinrad. In addition, countless high school students were formed in faith and prepared for liturgical ministry through Saint Meinrad's "One Bread, One Cup" program.

After the weekend of February 4 & 5, Archabbot Kurt Stasiak, OSB, will send a letter asking for your financial support to continue their efforts. Please consider partnering in their work.

As always, please continue to pray more vocations to the priesthood, permanent diaconate, vowed religious life, and lay ministry.

To learn more about Saint Meinrad and to submit prayer requests, visit www.saintmeinrad.edu/prayer.

GOSPEL

Today's Gospel talks about people living in darkness. When you think about darkness, you may also think about stumbling, falling, or even being afraid. That's what your life could be like without God. You could stumble around trying to find love or happiness, but without God you will only fall. Jesus brings light into a dark, unhappy world. With Jesus, you no longer need to fall, and you don't need to be afraid. God loves you.

Dear God, thank you that with Jesus I don't need to be afraid.

Thoughtful Moments

The Church is family

The Catholic Church is more than just a building or an organization. The Church is a family we join at Baptism and to which we belong forever. Wherever our children go in their lives, they can always come home. Keep them close to the Church as they grow. Remind them often that every Catholic church is their home, and the parish is their family.

Kindness

In today's busy world, showing kindness to others can make a big impact. Remember how good it felt the last time someone showed you an unexpected kindness? Look for ways to show kindness, even when it's unexpected. You can make a difference with a simple act, like holding the door for the person behind you, taking a moment to talk to a lovely stranger, or offering up prayers for people who need them.

"Do not neglect hospitality, for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels" (Hebrews 13:2).

Build a Christ-centered home

A Christ-centered home is one in which, "Christ is the Head of this house, the unseen guest at every meal, the silent listener to every conversation." His presence is always felt. Knowing Jesus and following Him are key to living joyful, fulfilling lives in this world and being happy with Him in the next. As a family, make your top New Year's resolution to center your home on Christ.

Joy – Different than happiness, joy comes from understanding that our welfare lies in Jesus' hands alone. Teach children to give all their concerns to Him. No circumstance can rob us of our joy if we truly believe we belong to Christ.

Grace – Our homes must be safe places filled with love. Family members need to know that love, not perfection, is the point of the family and that mistakes aren't fatal. Children will encounter hostility, judgment, antagonism, and criticism out in the world. A Christian home should be a place of comfort, rest, and healing.

Service – Jesus will give us everything we need. Sometimes, he uses other people to deliver His gifts. Christ-centered families place all that they have at His disposal and pitch in with an attitude of service and selflessness.

Worship – Homes centered on Christ make Scripture, prayer, and God's will top priority. Nothing comes before Mass and Sacraments.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

"Christ" is not Jesus' last name. In fact, it is a title from the Greek Christos, meaning, "anointed one." It refers to an ancient Jewish tradition of anointing a new king with oil.

For Jesus, calling him, "Christ," affirms that His

Why do Catholics call Jesus "Christ"?

Lordship includes all of creation and points to His mission as the Savior and the promised Messiah of the Jews. By recognizing Him as "Christ," Christians affirm they're under His kingship and that they owe their final loyalty to Him.

Forming good habits

Forming responsible, independent children into responsible, independent adults involves encouraging good habits early. Try these tips to help your youngsters become thoughtful, independent, and wise:

Thoughtful: When the situation allows, explain in age-appropriate ways why you want your youngster to perform particular tasks, such as, "Eat your vegetables so the nutrients will help you grow healthy and strong." Giving them explanations can help them make thoughtful choices later.

Independent: Let children be part of keeping the household running well. Set predictable routines and apportion chores to each person in the home. Encourage youngsters to take responsibility for their chores without having to be reminded. Make a checklist and assign the task of checking off daily duties when complete. Reward success with praise.

Wise: Wisdom often comes from experience. Make your home a place where it is safe to learn from mistakes. Encourage youngsters to come to you when they have erred. Explain what went wrong and work to identify steps to make it right. Help them learn from the experience.

Scripture LESSON

Matthew 5:1-12a, The pathway to happiness

When God created us, He put into our hearts the desire to be happy (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #1718). In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus pointed out the path for happiness and gave us a compass we can use to navigate our way. Our path to happiness lies in surrendering to God's will and trusting in Him.

When Jesus said, "Blessed are the poor in spirit, they who mourn," He promised that when we turn to God in times of trial, we will be comforted and cared for. When He referred to "the meek, the merciful, the pure of heart, the peacemakers, those who hunger and thirst for righteousness," He gave us a compass. We can measure our behavior against these standards to see if we are on the right path to happiness.

What can a parent do? Read the Sermon on the Mount with your children and help them compare their behavior against its standards. Teach them to see that Jesus gave us these guidelines to help us be happy on Earth and eventually get to Heaven.

Feasts & Celebrations

January 4 - St. Elizabeth Ann Seton (1821). An American, St. Elizabeth became Catholic after her husband died. She founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph, a teaching order that established affordable schools.

January 9 - Baptism of the Lord (1st Century). Jesus began his public ministry by getting baptized by St. John the Baptist. Jesus was to be baptized to "fulfill all righteousness" (Matthew 3:15). This was also when God reveals Jesus as his "beloved Son" (Matthew 3:17).

January 17 - St. Anthony the Abbot

(356). St. Anthony the Abbot was born to a rich family around 250 A.D. in Egypt, yet he gave up his riches to live a life of simplicity in the desert. He is the founder of monasticism.

January 26 - Saints Timothy and Titus (1st century). Timothy was converted by St. Paul and became his trusted friend, joining him in apostolic work, especially at Corinth. Titus served the early Church as a peacemaker and as administrator to a community on Crete.

Parent TALK

My New Year's resolutions were not going well. I hadn't gotten to the gym, regularly attended daily Mass, cleaned the house daily, and still be patient, loving, and kind! A few weeks after New Year's Day, I realized the rest of my family was struggling, too.

"How about," suggested my husband, "we each pick just one resolution on which to focus." "Something that's challenging, but doable," Kara chimed in.

"One is more doable than five," agreed my daughter, Tessa.

We each declared our resolutions: helping around the house, no TV during the week, no procrastinating, and going to Mass more often. I wrote our names next to our resolutions and taped the list to the refrigerator. Every week, we check in to see how our resolutions are going and offer encouragement when we struggle to keep them.

With God's grace, we are keeping our resolutions, one day at a time.
