Justice Challenge 4rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sunday's Gospel is Jesus' beatitude teaching from the Sermon on the Mount. The beatitudes provide us with a blueprint for being people of faith and justice. Your challenge this week is to take one beatitude each day. Read the beatitude in the morning, and ask God for the strength to practice that attitude throughout the day. Then in the evening, reflect on whether or not you lived that particular "attitude of being" in your life during the day. Thank God for your successes, ask for forgiveness where you failed, and pray for the courage and strength to live that beatitude in the future.

Family Faith Formation

"This is my body given for you." (Luke 22:19) ...Awesome God People reaching for God and God reaching for people. We can't get there on our own.

Blessed are the poor in Spirit....Blessed are they who mourn....Blessed are the meek....
The Beatitudes.....what do they mean? How do they apply to everyday life?

Below are some resources:

Examination of Conscience Based on the Beatitudes

1. Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Do I live a spirit of detachment and generosity?
Do I sacrifice for others?
2. Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted.
Do I console and help those who mourn and suffer?
Do I show compassion?
3. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land.
Am I authentically humble and self-giving?
Have I been egotistical or boastful?
4. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for holiness, for they will be satisfied.
Am I passionate for the things of God?
Do I work for the triumph of love, peace and justice?
5. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
Am I forgiving and merciful?
Do I give others the benefit of the doubt?
Am I harsh or judgmental?
6. Blessed are the pure of heart, for they will see God.
Am I single-minded in the practice of my faith?
Have I allowed a particular sin or vice to distract me from God?
7. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
Am I a person of reconciliation, peace and mercy?
Do I hold grudges or seek revenge?
8. Blessed are they who are persecuted, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Do I suffer well?
Am I willing to sacrifice anything for my faith?
Do I allow human respect to keep me from being a Christian witness?

From the homilies recently...

Fr. Jay

Fans of Jesus who are enthusiastic...

Disciples of Jesus who follow him...

Apostles of Jesus who follow and then live and teach as Jesus.

Take time to meditate on which of these you are...

Questions of the Week

First Reading:

The prophet Zephaniah speaks of a "remnant of Israel" who will survive God's judgement and live as a humble and truthful people. What other qualities (besides humility and integrity) make for a good community?

Second Reading:

Paul offers us an interesting sketch of the members of the Corinthian community: foolish, weak, lowly, and despised. How would you describe your community of faith?

Gospel:

Jesus begins his Sermon on the Mount with a list of eight "beatitudes" (blessings). Which of these beatitudes do you see in yourself?

Congregations Acting for Justice & Empowerment

Research continues thru January and February. Each problem issue is directed by a steering committee and has a larger committee represented by all the congregations.

Starting in March, these groups are responsible for cutting the issues and developing the questions that will be presented to key individuals who have the power to implement these community changes.

During the month of February, All Saints Parish will be collecting the items listed below and/ or monetary donations.

There is a box and large baby bottle in each Church for this collection. Benefitting the Westside Gabriel Project Serving and Accompanying Mothers and Families with Infants and Young Children in Need New diapers size 2 and up Baby wipes Monetary Donations also Accepted Checks can be written to St. Boniface Parish Gabriel Project on the Memo Line.

What is our history?

The Gabriel Project is an effective church-based program that reaches out to pregnant women, or women and families with young children, to help them choose life rather than abortion.

In 1973, the late Bishop John L. Morkovsky of the Catholic Diocese of Houston challenged his pastors to reach out to women who were having abortions. The pastor of St. Michael's Church in Houston put a large sign on the church property telling pregnant women who needed help that they would assist them. Thus, the Gabriel Project was born.

In June of 2008, churches in the Evansville area were asked to offer the program locally. Grace Robertson responded to the call, and St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church in Daylight started their own Gabriel Project to serve the Evansville area.

In June of 2022, the Supreme Court overturned Roe v. Wade, which sent the abortion decision back to the states. Pope Francis challenged Catholics to become more proactive in helping women afford to keep their babies.

Westside area churches in the Catholic Diocese of Evansville decided to expand the Gabriel Project in order to reach more women and families and enable them to afford to choose life.

If you know of a mother in need of our services, please give them our number.

If you would like to become a part of the Gabriel Project Ministry, or if you care to donate items or offer financial support, please contact us at:

812-867-3718

The Gabriel Project is a national organization and is supported by the Catholic Diocese of Evansville.

The Gabriel Project is a non-profit organization operated by volunteers. We receive no payment for our services, and all donations are used to purchase needed items for families.

We are committed to serving pregnant women and families with small children, regardless of race or creed.

The Gabriel Project volunteers reserve the right to end or deny services if we determine they are no longer necessary.

MISSION

God loves peacemakers. The next time you are tempted to argue with someone, think of ways to get along instead.

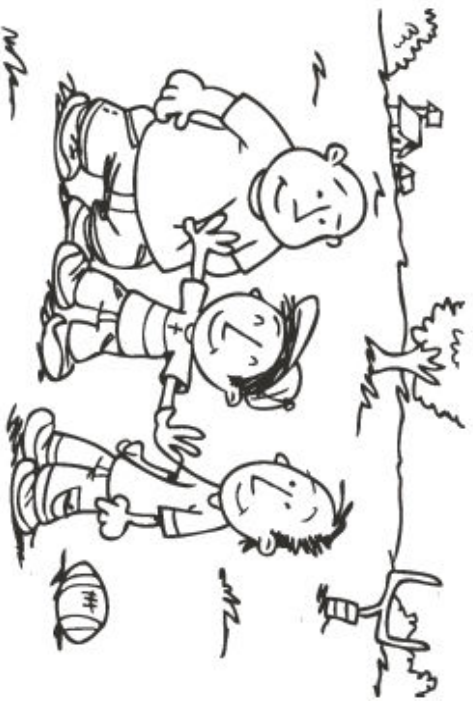

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

BECAUSE VIBRANT CHURCHES MATTER

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time • Matthew 5:1-12a

GOSPEL

God sees the loving things you do. When you show kindness to others, especially when they don't deserve it, your kindness will come back to you. When you see others fighting, and you help them get along, you show that you are God's child. When you are gentle, not bossy, you make God smile. Even when it is hard, keep on doing what's right. One day in heaven God will reward you for the good choices you make.

PRAYER

Dear God, help me love other people the way you want me to.

DRAW

Draw a picture of yourself helping a child who was mean to you.

St. Meinrad Sunday
Weekend of February 4 & 5, 2023

For many years, the Diocese of Evansville has benefited from the ministry of those formed at Saint Meinrad Archabbey, Seminary and School of Theology. Our parish will learn more about their important work from a monk of Saint Meinrad.

In our diocese, 46 active and retired priests, 46 permanent deacons, and 312 lay ministers attended Saint Meinrad. In addition, countless high school students were formed in faith and prepared for liturgical ministry through Saint Meinrad's "One Bread, One Cup" program.

After the weekend of February 4 & 5, Archabbot Kurt Stasiak, OSB, will send a letter asking for your financial support to continue their efforts. Please consider partnering in their work.

As always, please continue to pray more vocations to the priesthood, permanent diaconate, vowed religious life, and lay ministry.

To learn more about Saint Meinrad and to submit prayer requests, visit www.saintmeinrad.edu/prayer.
