Justice Challenge Epiphany

This week we commemorate the Epiphany, the story of the wise men from the east paying homage and bringing gifts to the Infant Jesus. Their presence in the stable reveals that Jesus came for all people, not just the Jewish community. But the faith of the wise men was almost thwarted by Herod, who sought to destroy the baby he had heard was born. Your challenge this week is to reflect on how often you turn to violence—violent words, violent actions, violent feelings—when you feel threatened by someone. Make a personal commitment to respond to other people's anger or hate or meanness with nonviolence. Pledge to make love the underlying motive and foundation on which you resolve your conflicts.

"This is my body given for you."
(Luke 22:19) ...Awesome God
People reaching for God and God reaching for people.
We can't get there on our own.

I'm writing this 2 weeks ahead of time...

If all went well, today, Sunday, January 8th, our Family Faith Formation group went Christmas caroling at Columbia Health Care Center down the street. The little people sang their hearts out at practice last Sunday. They will be wearing reindeer antlers and one will be sporting a "shiny nose." Do you remember visiting nursing homes? I always thought it a burden. I never understood how important and cherished it was by the residents. Now that nursing home care is part of my everyday life, I deeply know how important visits are. Thank you to everyone who helps to make the lives of our homebound and nursing home folks richer with your visits, cards, letters and all of your contacts!

EPIPHANY

From the homilies recently...

December 24/25

Fr. Steve Home.

It has been a hard year. We haven't always been able to come together as parish family.

Here we celebrate our parish family. Our presence here is important. It is a "we" not an "I". It is about the people of God gathering together, hearing the Word, breaking the bread, and going out to make a difference in other people's lives.

The challenge of Christmas is to give praise to God. Live temperately.....love justly....live devoutly. The song of Christmas is Glory.

Fr. Jay

I picture God seated in heaven looking down on all He created. Things didn't turn out the way I thought it would. They have forgotten that I love them. They compete with each other trying to get and have more. They get angry with one another, fight and have war.

I've given them ten precepts of how to love. I've sent people to tell them how to love. Maybe I should just give up.

As God was looking out over creation, he saw the tiniest movement...a newborn baby. That gave God an idea. If I send my son as a baby, maybe he could start a revolution of love.

You can hear the rest of the story at <https://allsaintsevansville.org/category/homilies/>
How has God come into our lives? How do we give flesh to the presence of God in our midst?

December 31/ January 1

Fr. Tom

January 1st....and tonight is New Year's Eve.
As an individual, family, parish, community....in 2022....
What am I grateful for?
What were the challenges?
Where I have I seen God's presence?

As we begin 2023, we can't just focus on the good or bad going on around us. We are children of God. Our mistakes and sins don't make us who we are. God made us. Let us bring this dignity of who we are into 2023.

Let us ask Mary not to abandon us now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

And Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart.

Sometimes Christmas and the Holy Family can be confusing. Let's picture the Holy Family as it may be in our imaginations. I think of a Christmas card where everything is calm and peaceful and everything is under control.

I think the Holy Family was much like our families. Was it hard for Mary to tell her mother Anne that she was pregnant? And when they had to travel to Bethlehem at the end of Mary's pregnancy, how did Anne feel about them having to travel?

What was it like for Mary to care for baby Jesus without modern conveniences? What normal things did Mary and Joseph help Jesus learn? Once Jesus began his preaching ministry and standing up to the powers that be, what did others say to Mary?

She pondered these things in her heart. Pondering - like putting a mosaic together.

God asks us to ponder. As we do, do may we see in God's wisdom what God wants us to do.

All Saints Catholic Parish and BRIDGE

We are offering a small group program called Want to Talk? Communication Tools for Divided Times.

I'm Brenda Meyer, Justice Minister at All Saints Parish. I'm co-facilitating this program because I've been looking for healthier ways to navigate disagreement in my family and social circle. Especially given the polarization we're experiencing right now, I want to learn how to have tough conversations around justice issues I care about with people who think differently than I do. Would you be interested in joining me?

Want to Talk consists of eight two-hour sessions plus an "immersion experience," in which we'll practice our new communication skills in real life. During each regular session, we'll pray together, discuss books, watch videos, and have conversations around how we can deepen our relationships while staying true to our values. Cost for all materials, including two books, is $50.

One Minute Meditations

A kinder, gentler you

Kindness is contagious. A recent study found that witnessing an act of kindness produces good feelings and inspires imitation. In the new year, make efforts to be kinder – more friendly, generous, and considerate – and inspire others to do the same.

Choose not to be offended

In the news or on social media, it can appear that there is more polarization around issues now than in the past. Each side wants to persuade the other. Being right is no compensation for broken friendships, however. If there is someone in your life who deliberately pursues you to argue, don't take the bait. Rather than let arguments create a rift, look the other way when feeling slighted. Being kind is more rewarding than being right.

"I have told you this that you might have peace in me. In the world you will have trouble, but take courage, I have conquered the world" (John 16:33).

Fall deeper in love with Christ in the New Year

At the center of all we do as Catholics must be a close and personal relationship with Jesus. He offers to each of us a deep, intimate, "I love you forever" kind of relationship. Make time to fall deeper in love with Christ:

T-Talk: Prayer is an amazing privilege. Through it, we have an open invitation: "Call to me, and I will answer you" (Jeremiah 33:3). We have a promise that He hears us: "When you call me, and come and pray to me, I will listen to you" (Jeremiah 29:12). The God of the universe wants to hear from you.

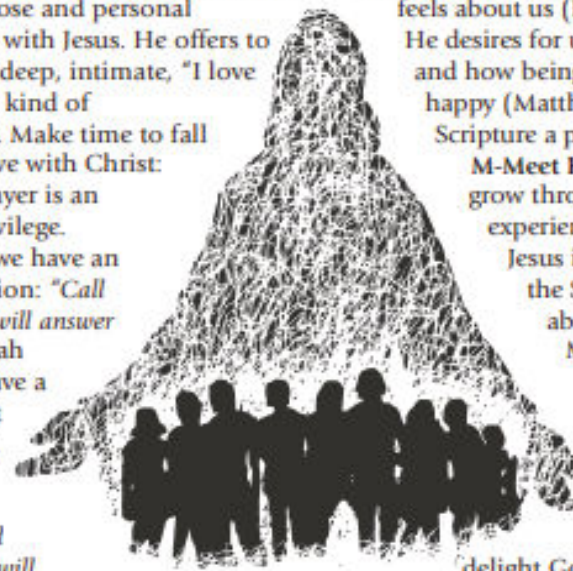

I-Intimacy: To love Christ, we must know Him. In Scripture, God tells us who He is (Exodus 34:6), how He feels about us (Isaiah 43:4), what He desires for us (Luke 12:32), and how being His will make us happy (Matthew 5-7). Make Scripture a part of every day.

M-Meet Him: Relationships grow through shared experiences. We meet Jesus in prayer, Scripture, the Sacraments, and above all, during the Mass.

E-Everything for love: St. Thérèse of Lisieux discovered that she could delight God by simply picking up a pin out of love. He wants to hear us, His beloveds, say, "I love you, too," in words and actions. Essential to falling in love with God is making time for Him.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics believe things that aren't in the Bible?

Catholics recognize the Bible as the inspired, inerrant Word of God, and we reject beliefs that contradict Scripture. Long before the Gospels were written down, the Apostles passed on to their disciples all that Jesus taught and did. This is what we call, "Tradition," or what was "handed on." Not everything that was handed on could be written down. It was impossible to include everything Jesus did (John 21:25). Catholic beliefs don't depart from Scripture, but delve deeper into it.

Make one change for God this year

When making New Year's resolutions this year, consider one change that will bring you closer to God. Here are some ideas other Catholics have used to strengthen prayer, serve the poor, and evangelize our faith ...

Laura felt her prayer life growing stale, so when her parish asked for adorers for the perpetual adoration chapel, she jumped at the chance. Now, Mondays at midnight, Laura can be found in the presence of the Eucharist. She said, "I really look forward to my peaceful hour each week. It's just me and Him."

Peter's law practice is incredibly busy, but he takes an afternoon off every month to work at the local soup kitchen serving hot meals to the homeless and working poor. When asked why, he said, "Jesus said, 'When I was hungry, you gave me to eat.'"

JoAnn's children are grown, yet she teaches a religious education class at her parish. "What better way to spread our faith than to children? That's where I can do the most good," she said.

from Scripture

Matthew 5:1-12a, Jesus' blueprint for holiness

This passage contains the Sermon on the Mount during which Jesus detailed the Beatitudes – the attitudes we need to be truly holy, and therefore happy. In fact, "beatitude" is translated from the Greek word for happiness. Jesus was saying, "Happy are you!" or "Congratulations!" if you live by these attitudes.

When Jesus said, "blessed are the poor in spirit ... blessed are they who mourn ... the persecuted" He promised that when we turn to God in times of trial, we will be comforted and cared for. When He said, "Blessed are the pure in heart ... those who hunger and thirst for righteousness," He was showing us that a holy heart will receive what it desires. When He described "the meek ... the merciful ... the peacemakers," He gave us a blueprint for how to act.

We can measure our behavior against these standards. When we are faithful to God in tempting moments, and translate holy inner attitudes into outward actions, we'll know we're on the right path to holiness. When we live by the Beatitudes, we'll be truly happy.

Q & A What qualities can I pursue to make me a better follower of Jesus?

Actually, when you were baptized, made your First Communion, or got Confirmed, the Holy Spirit conferred gifts to help you grow in strength and holiness. Recognizing these gifts and nurturing them will certainly make you a better Christian.

Wisdom: This gift helps us stay focused on God's will and His plan for us.

Understanding: Lets us grasp truths. It means seeing with the heart and the mind.

Counsel: Also called "right judgment," counsel enables us to weigh alternatives to make the right choice.

Fortitude: The ability to remain firm against pressure. (Also called courage.)

Knowledge: A person with knowledge sees more than one dimension of an issue to determine the right path.

Piety: Helps us think of ourselves as children of God and be eager to serve Him.

Fear of the Lord: The wonder and awe God inspires encourages us to respect Him and all his creations.

The more you use these gifts, the more you will grow in faith and holiness. Then you will certainly become a better Christian.

Feasts & Celebrations

January 2 – St. Gregory Nazianzen (389). Known as "The Theologian" for his faithfulness and eloquence, St. Gregory was unwillingly made Bishop of Sasima. He worked to clarify the Church's teachings about the Holy Trinity.

January 16 – St. Berard and Companions (1220). St. Francis of Assisi sent St. Berard and his companions to evangelize in the Muslim territories. After being arrested in Morocco, they were martyred after refusing to stop preaching and renounce their Faith.

January 23 – St. Marianne Cope

(1918). St. Marianne began religious life as an educator in New York schools, and later became a nurse. In 1883, she helped St. Damien de Veuster serve the leper colonies of Hawaii, continuing his work after his death.

January 25 – Conversion of St. Paul (1st Century). Formally called "Saul", he persecuted the Christians until Jesus appeared to him on the road to Damascus, saying, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting" (Acts 9:5). After that, Saul became Paul and traveled around the known world, preaching the Faith.

Faith and Fear

When I was little, you could tell I believed in the destructive power of the monsters who lived beneath my bed because I would never let my ankles anywhere near the bottom of the mattress. (It's common knowledge that bare ankles are premium monster bait — ask any child you know).

You can often tell what a person believes by what they fear.

But here's the thing: belief isn't always enough. It's obvious that Herod believed in Christ's power because of how terrified he was by it and by the room he made in his life for the possible impact of the Messiah. In fact, if belief was the only measure of orthodoxy, you could stand most modern Christians next to Herod and he would tower above them.

Remember, there's something just as bad as disobeying God: discounting Him. I know I am guilty of that in a thousand small ways each day. In the person I ignore or the opinion I sneer at. In the unkind words I let roll from my tongue. In the prayers of thanksgiving that I don't say because I am "too busy."

I believe in God, but I do not fear Him — mostly because my very modern understanding of the concept of "fear" would lump God in with those monsters beneath my bed.

But what if we understood fear in a more traditional sense — awe, reverence, and wonder? "All kings shall pay him homage, all nations shall serve him." — Psalm 72:11

When Herod heard the news of the coming of the Messiah, it compelled him to do something. Not the right thing, mind you, but something. It moved him into action.

So, then, it should move us all.

We saw his star at its rising, and have come to do him homage. — Matthew 2:2
