Justice Challenge
7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Sunday's Gospel challenges us to think differently about revenge and about hating our enemies. While the Old Testament supports the death penalty, it is clear that Jesus is advocating for a different approach when he tells us to turn the other cheek and to love our enemies. Your challenge this week is to google Bud Welch, whose daughter was killed by Timothy McVeigh in the bombing of the Federal Building in Oklahoma City. Read about Bud's view of the death penalty and of his daughter's killer, then examine your own stance and ask God for guidance on where you are called to stand on this controversial issue. Ask the Spirit to be with you as you strive to live out Jesus' teaching about meeting violence with nonviolence.

Family Faith Formation

"This is my body given for you." (Luke 22:19) ...Awesome God People reaching for God and God reaching for people. We can't get there on our own.

This weekend in Family Faith Formation, we are looking toward Lent. We had an opportunity to spend time in prayer reflecting on what it means to be a disciple and how we sometimes sin. We prayed the refrain, "Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned." We talked about using the time during Lent to do good deeds. We talked about the pillars of Lent – prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. We got our Catholic Relief Services Rice Bowls. Using the Rice Bowls has been a tradition at All Saints Parish for many years. We will leave Family Faith Formation with many ideas of how to spend our 40 days of Lent.

Encountering the Eucharist

Believe ✦ Worship ✦ Live ✦ Share

Wherever the Eucharist is reserved, a "Sanctuary Lamp" should be burning. This is a wax candle, generally in a red glass container and is kept burning day and night wherever the Blessed Sacrament is reserved in Catholic churches or chapels. It is an emblem of Christ's abiding love and a reminder to the faithful to respond with loving adoration in return. In Judaism, the sanctuary lamp is known by its Hebrew name, Ner Tamid (Hebrew: "eternal flame"). Hanging or standing in front of the "ark" in every Jewish synagogue where the sacred scrolls are kept. It also symbolizes God's eternal presence and is therefore never extinguished. In a sense, the Sanctuary Lamp can be likened to the "beating heart" of every church.

What We Believe... Love Divine, All Loves Excelling

During the month of February our thoughts usually turn to expressions of love and other amorous acts of affection such as giving or receiving Valentine's Day cards, bouquets of roses, and boxes of chocolate candy. Whatever one's opinion about Valentine's Day, each of us look for affirmation, acceptance, and affection from others. It's simply part of our human nature. Those are legitimate human needs that we desire. But have we ever thought about the fact that Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ also desires to receive affirmation, acceptance and expressions of loving affection? This might sound slightly odd, that Jesus would need or desire any-

Second Person of the Trinity He assumed a fully human nature, Chalcedon says that in the ed a true human nature and confusion, mixture, division, words, when the Son of possessed the divine nature, nature, each nature retained nature did not become hu- did not become divine. Nei- together such that Christ thing. Nevertheless, when the took flesh in the Incarnation, nature. The Definition of one person of Christ is unit- a true divine nature without or separation. In other God, who from all eternity added to Himself a human its own attributes. The divine man and the human nature ther were the natures mixed was a strange human-divine hybrid, neither truly human nor truly divine. No, Christ was and remains the God-man. Therefore, in His human nature, Jesus also looks to receive affirmation, acceptance, and affection from us. But how often do we actually give Him these expressions of love? Don't we often come to Him and ask Jesus to give us something? How often are we even conscious of His presence? Unfortunately, at best Jesus is maybe taken for granted or, at worst, utterly ignored. During the month of February we see lots of heart shapes to symbolize human love. As far back as the antient Greek philosophers, it was agreed that the heart was linked to our strongest emotions, including love. Curiously, whenever there has been a validated Eucharistic miracle where the host has turned into actual flesh, the subsequent scientific investigations of the substance have usually all concluded that the structure of the transformed fragment of the host was identical to the myocardial (heart) tissue of a living person who is nearing death. Thus, in the Eucharist, Jesus is giving us His heart! In other words, Jesus is trying to show His affirmation, acceptance, and affection towards us, His bride! Unfortunately, His gestures are more often met with unrequited love. Jesus has strong intimate feelings toward us but often we do not feel the same way. When this happens between persons, there arises feelings of profound sadness, disappointment, and frustration accompanied by a sense of rejection. As Christ has a fully human nature, there is a way in which He still suffers when His divine love is not returned. It might be worth considering that, as we are being more intentional offering tokens of love to each other this month, perhaps we might also offer an act of love to our Lord Jesus Christ too. "Jesus, I desire to comfort, unite and offer myself in union with Thee."
