Justice Challenge 1st Week of Lent

The Gospel recounts Jesus' experience of being tempted by the devil after 40 days of retreat in the desert. Jesus was tempted to indulge in physical satisfaction (eating bread), ego satisfaction (throwing himself off the temple to be saved by angels), and the satisfaction of power (having the world at his feet if he worshipped the devil). Your challenge this week is to take a serious look at the power you hold over other people—your children or parents, your colleagues at work or school, your friends. Do you use your power in a holy way? Do you ever abuse your power? Pray this week that you always remember that only God really has the power. Remind yourself that you are called to use the power entrusted to you to serve others in the same way Jesus did.

1st SUNDAY OF LENT

A SEASON FOR SLOWING DOWN

During this sacred season, we will intentionally slow down so that we can pay closer attention to our relationship with God, our neighbors and our planet. Reflect on how the pillars of prayer, fasting and almsgiving can guide your journey for a more enriching Lenten experience. How can practicing these pillars help you to live in solidarity with our sisters and brothers around the world?

Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

Family Faith Formation

"This is my body given for you." (Luke 22:19) ...Awesome God People reaching for God and God reaching for people. We can't get there on our own.

We shared many ideas Sunday about Lent in Family Faith Formation. I share some of these questions and responses with you as we begin our time of Lent.

- We don't eat meat on Friday's during Lent. What are your favorite meatless meals...macaroni and cheese, grilled cheese, salmon patties, fish sticks, salad, peanut butter and jelly, cheese pizza.
- We change from the color green in church to purple. What is purple supposed to remind us of... Lent is a time to pray and fast and give alms; It is a penitential color – forgiveness/reconciliation.
- Lent is a time to pray. When do we pray....mealtime, bedtime, in church
- Lent is a time to fast. What does that mean....eat one full meal that day.
- Lent is a time for almsgiving. How can we do that...give money to the poor, give my toys to the poor, don't play games on iPad and do something for mom or dad, visit someone in the nursing home, give up time playing and help someone else.

May God's grace give us the strength and determination we need each day to have a good Lent.

From the homilies recently...

Fr. Tom Kessler

The Gospel, the words of Jesus have a new urgency....love your enemies. We are cluttered with hatred and violence. Hatred eats at our hearts. We are to realize that we are sons and daughters of God and we are to be holy as God is holy.

Leviticus explains what it means to be holy as God is holy.

We desire and seek the heart of God.

Who doesn't God love?

Who does Jesus want us to hate?

We are God's community and we are called to extend God's love to other people. God wants us to keep on trying.

Fr. Jay

Love your enemies. We were raised with many different ideas of who were friends and who are enemies. Stories of life....experiences with race...Go to <https://allsaintsevansville.org/category/homilies/>

I propose we use the word respect.... a deep, sincere, true respect...for when Jesus tells us to love our enemies.

List of most influential people in history....Jesus is #3 on the list. The author of the book says Jesus is third because Jesus taught us to love our enemies, but he doesn't think a lot of people seriously try to do this.

Do we take Jesus seriously? Do we love our enemies and neighbors? How do we show that in our lives?

Living the Faith

JOURNEY TO THE FOOT OF THE CROSS: BISHOP RICKEN OFFERS 10 THINGS TO REMEMBER FOR LENT

Bishop David L. Ricken of Green Bay, Wisconsin, former chairman of the Committee on Evangelization and Catechesis of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), offers "10 Things to Remember for Lent":

1. Remember the formula. The Church does a good job capturing certain truths with easy-to-remember lists and formulas: 10 Commandments, 7 sacraments, 3 persons in the Trinity. For Lent, the Church gives us almost a slogan—Prayer, Fasting, and Almsgiving—as the three things we need to work on during the season.

2. It's a time of prayer. Lent is essentially an act of prayer spread out over 40 days. As we pray, we go on a journey, one that hopefully brings us closer to Christ and leaves us changed by the encounter with him.

3. It's a time to fast. With the fasts of Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, meatless Fridays, and our personal disciplines interspersed, Lent is the only time many Catholics these days actually fast. And maybe that's why it gets all the attention. "What are you giving up for Lent? Hot dogs? Beer? Jelly beans?" It's almost a game for some of us, but fasting is actually a form of penance, which helps us turn away from sin and toward Christ.

4. It's a time to work on discipline. The 40 days of Lent are also a good, set time to work on personal discipline in general. Instead of giving something up, it can be doing something positive. "I'm going to exercise more. I'm going to pray more. I'm going to be nicer to my family, friends, and coworkers."

5. It's about dying to yourself. The more serious side of Lenten discipline is that it's about more than self-control—it's about finding aspects of yourself that are less than Christ-like and letting them die. The suffering and death of Christ are foremost on our minds during Lent, and we join in these mysteries by suffering, dying with Christ and being resurrected in a purified form.

6. Don't do too much. It's tempting to make Lent some ambitious period of personal reinvention, but it's best to keep it simple and focused. There's a reason the Church works on these mysteries year after year. We spend our entire lives growing closer to God. Don't try to cram it all in one Lent. That's a recipe for failure.

7. Lent reminds us of our weakness. Of course, even when we set simple goals for ourselves during Lent, we still have trouble keeping them. When we fast, we realize we're all just one meal away from hunger. In both cases, Lent shows us our weakness. This can be painful, but recognizing how helpless we are makes us seek God's help with renewed urgency and sincerity.

8. Be patient with yourself. When we're confronted with our own weakness during Lent, the temptation is to get angry and frustrated. "What a bad person I am!" But that's the wrong lesson. God is calling us to be patient and to see ourselves as he does, with unconditional love.

9. Reach out in charity. As we experience weakness and suffering during Lent, we should be renewed in our compassion for those who are hungry, suffering, or otherwise in need. The third part of the Lenten formula is almsgiving. It's about more than throwing a few extra dollars in the collection plate; it's about reaching out to others and helping them without question as a way of sharing the experience of God's unconditional love.

10. Learn to love like Christ. Giving of ourselves in the midst of our suffering and self-denial brings us closer to loving like Christ, who suffered and poured himself out unconditionally on the Cross for all of us. Lent is a journey through the desert to the foot of the Cross on Good Friday, as we seek him out, ask his help, join in his suffering, and learn to love like him.

GROWING + WITH THE Gospel

CYCLE A

PUZZLE

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

Worship the Lord your God and serve only him.

MISSION

One really good way to fight the devil's tricks is to pray often. Pray in the morning, at noon, and at night.

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

GOSPEL

After Jesus' baptism, Jesus went 40 days without eating. Imagine how weak, hungry, tired and cranky you could be if you went that long without eating. That was the moment the devil chose to try to trick Jesus into using God's power selfishly. But Jesus was still strong. Jesus had been praying those 40 days, getting ready to save you and the whole world from the devil's tricks. Jesus would never give in to his enemy.

PRAYER

Dear God, thank you for sending Jesus to save me from the devil's tricks.

DRAW

Draw a picture of Jesus praying to God.
