Reception of the Precious Blood

Beginning the weekend of April 15-16, at All Saints Parish and at all Masses, we will begin offering the Precious Blood from the cup as well as the Body of Christ.

This is optional for all who wish to receive Holy Communion. Jesus reminds us to eat and drink of the fullness of the Eucharist.

Dipping the host into the cup is no longer permitted by Diocesan policy. We are pleased the Diocese has restored this practice to the people of God.

All Saints Parish Fob Security System

We will be upgrading our Fob Security System within the next few weeks. I will need to reprogram the new system with names, fob numbers, times and day of use. If you are someone who has an All Saints Parish Fob please call the parish office with your information. Or you can email me at mwalker@evdio.org

If I do not hear from you, your Fob will not get programed and you will be unable to use it.

Justice Challenge

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord/Holy Week

The First Reading for Palm Sunday is from Isaiah (50:4-7) and contains one of several powerful images of the Suffering Servant found in this book of the Bible. While the author was describing the nation of Israel when he wrote, the passages about the suffering servant took on new meaning after the suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus. It is easy to see how Jesus embodied the traits of Isaiah's suffering servant, one of which was his peaceful approach to conflict. Jesus exemplified non-violence, even when he was attacked, spat upon, mocked, and scourged. He met violence by turning the other cheek. And he asks us to do the same. Your challenge this week is to examine your conscience for any signs of violence in your life—in your actions, but also in your words. Make a commitment to responding to violence against your person, be it bullying or being yelled at or being physically attacked, with a strong but peaceful response.

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

We hear the story retold for the first time this Holy Week of Jesus suffering and death.

This story, this reality never fails to make me sad and reflective. Such an action of love.

My happy memories of Palm Sunday surround my time with my grandmother. Every Palm Sunday, I would take our palms along when we went to visit grandma. She taught me how to stack braid palms. I always enjoyed our time together braiding the newly blessed palms and then replacing the old ones... behind the crucifixes in the house, in the car, in a vase in the kitchen.

From the homilies recently...

Fr. Jay

Why didn't Jesus save Lazarus from suffering and dying? Why didn't he save Martha and Mary from suffering. God will have answers to these questions.

Hear Fr. Jay's story of the man who talked with Pope Francis at. <https://allsaintsevansville.org/category/homilies/>

Francis changed his life. He brought him back to life.

I think we can do this. We can listen sincerely with respect. How have we been brought back to life? Have we brought others back to life? Who out there can we listen to?

Fr. Steve

The story of Lazarus is our story. It is a story of faith. Do you believe in the woman at the well? Do you believe in the man born blind being healed? Do you believe in Lazarus? God is more powerful than sin and death in our lives.

All of us have known the grave. We remember our crosses. Those signs of God when we have to come to our faith. A whole new church was begun when people saw what Jesus did. They believed in Jesus as the Messiah. We need to witness to what God has done for us. We need to let people know we do believe.

These stories are about faith. It's about faith over fear, belief over doubt, light over darkness. The Spirit of the Lord is within us.

SHARING SUCCESS

MODERN DAY SIMON OF CYRENE

Palm Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week. As we walk with Jesus this week, we remember the countless women, children and men who carry heavy crosses even today: crosses of hunger, of vulnerability to climate change, or of a lack of resources. How—like Simon of Cyrene—can you help to carry the crosses of our sisters and brothers in your local community and around the world? Visit csrricebowl.org/holy-week to learn more.

Growing in FAITH™

Discovering hope and joy in the Catholic faith.

April 2023

All Saints Parish

One Minute Meditations

The God-shaped hole

St. Augustine wrote, "You have made us for yourself and our hearts are restless until they find their rest in Thee," (Confessions, Saint Augustine). Humans are created with a longing for something good, true, and beautiful. We long for God. We can try filling that void with things of the world. Unless we fill that longing with God, however, we can never be satisfied.

Grow in love

Having received the gift of divine life, we must give it to others. "Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another" (1 John 4:11). When we share God's life and love, we grow in that very life and love.

"But the angel said to the women, 'Do not be afraid; for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has risen, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay'" (Matthew 28:5-6).

Powerful gifts of Eucharistic devotion

As the "the source and summit of our faith," the Eucharist is the greatest of God's gifts. During the Easter season, resolve to look at the Eucharist with new eyes of gratitude and strengthened devotion:

Return love for Love:

The Eucharist is not a symbol; it is Jesus Christ. He loves us beyond imagining — personally, closely, sacrificially, and tenderly. In adoring, receiving, and loving the Blessed Sacrament, we're returning love for Love.

Fuel for the fight: The Eucharist nourishes and strengthens our souls. "How can we last...without hearing Jesus say, 'I love you' — impossible..." (Mother Teresa). The Eucharist strengthens against temptation and protects from mortal sins.

Source of joy: The Eucharist is a glimpse of Heaven, a foretaste of the heavenly banquet, and a pledge of future glory. St. John Vianney commented, "If we really understood the Mass, we would die of joy."

Wisdom and guidance:

As Chancellor of England, St. Thomas More received Communion daily for "light and wisdom" in his administrative decisions. We can turn to the Blessed Sacrament for guidance whenever we have weighty decisions, questions, or doubts.

Communion empowers us to love:

"Even as I have loved you...you also love one another" (John 13:34). Jesus specifically told his followers to love others as we've been loved. Receiving the Eucharist worthily empowers us to love like Him.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics celebrate Holy Week?

Holy Week is a sacred time, specially devoted to celebrating the work of our redemption — the suffering and Death of Jesus on the Cross. The events honored during Holy Week, especially on Holy Thursday and Good Friday, remind us of an amazing truth: God loved us first, even when that love cost Him everything. On Easter, He rose gloriously from the dead, offering redemption. This event is so tremendous we need a week to prepare our hearts to receive it.
