Justice Challenge
5th Sunday of Easter

St. Damien of Molokai is honored on May 10. Damien was canonized a saint because of his dedication and service to the lepers on the island of Molokai in Hawaii. Lepers were considered pariahs who were a threat to healthy people because of their contagious illness. Many of them were torn from their families when they were diagnosed with leprosy. They were taken to Molokai and never saw their loved ones again. (Lepers at the time of Jesus faced a similar alienation. They were often forced to wear a bell around their necks so that people could run from them when they heard the bell.) Damien ministered to the physical and emotional needs of the lepers on Molokai. He followed Jesus' example of reaching out to these rejected human beings, offering them the human contact—the simple touch—which they were denied. Your challenge this week is to look for a leper in your life, but not necessarily in the literal sense of a person with a skin disease. Rather, look for someone who craves human contact and human touch but is denied it. It might be someone who is lonely or angry, smelly or dirty, mentally ill or imprisoned in some way. Whatever the person's reality, reach out in love and compassion. Offer the human touch which every person on earth needs to survive and thrive.

From the homilies recently...

Fr. Steve

I never liked being a sheep. I can understand the Lord as the shepherd. I think the focus can be on us. How we follow after Jesus.

What is it about to be devoted to church? We're devoted to each other at meal, at church, in giving to each other. A devoted church is giving to others. We need to be more welcoming to others in our church and our lives. There is no reason why we can't live well and still be devoted to others. We are called to be good stewards.

Story from Fr. Anthony de Mello can be heard at <https://allsaintsevansville.org/category/homilies/>

Fr. Jay

Jesus as a shepherd. Shepherds keep their sheep in line and together and fed. The shepherd devotes his entire life to them. He tends to them constantly.

We are the sheep and follow Jesus, the shepherd. Jesus finds the lost sheep. He heals the injured and feeds the hungry. Jesus calls us to be faithful sheep. And, to be shepherds ourselves.

Listen to the story of Sarah at <https://allsaintsevansville.org/category/homilies/>.

Sarah was constantly being a shepherd to others.

I think what Jesus is saying is, how can we be of help to others? How can we reach out and show Jesus' love in our lives?

MISSION

Jesus is getting ready for you. Make sure you are getting ready for Jesus. Ask God to help you grow closer to him every day.

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

GOSPEL

Worry. Many times you worry. You worry about sounds in the dark. You worry about having food for supper. You worry when your pet is sick. You worry when your parents are not home. You worry about strangers. Worry. Worry. Worry. Jesus says, "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me." Do the best you can and trust that God will do the rest.

PRAYER

Lord, if I begin to worry, remind me that you are there to help.

DRAW

Draw a worry rock, a pretend rock on which you put your worries. Some people throw a real worry rock into a lake. Take your pretend rock and put it in the offertory basket to show you are giving your worries to God.

20th Annual Nehemiah Action

5th Sunday of Easter

If you had to summarize the essential core of the Christian life, what would it be? Mercy, truth, or love, perhaps? The readings today suggest another word which may surprise you. That word is priesthood.

St. Peter says to us, "You are a 'chosen race, a royal priesthood...'" To be part of a priesthood is to offer a particular sacrifice in order for the community to survive and thrive. Jesus is the great high priest because he offers the one perfect sacrifice which heals and perfects the entire human race. Peter the Apostle wants us to know that all the baptized share in this priestly ministry. The whole of our lives, including every detail, is meant to become our acceptable offering to God.

The baptized exercise this priesthood in many ways, I'll mention three. At Sunday Mass, in private prayer, and in daily work.

At Mass, we offer the sacrifice of our lives with that of the priest, who symbolizes Christ the Priest. In our prayer, a "morning offering" prayer is a great way to offer up all the joys and sufferings of the day to come.

In our daily work, we sacrifice our time, comfort, money, and energy to do good for others.

All this gives the deepest possible meaning to our lives: we share in the priesthood which saves the world. That's at the core of our faith.

Father John Muir
