Justice Challenge

We mark Independence Day every July to celebrate our freedom as a democratic nation. We honor the creation of the Declaration of Independence, which describes the equality of all people and their right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Your challenge this week is to celebrate human rights, but to also ask yourselves—as individuals and as families—how much you uphold these rights. Do you vote? Do you study the positions of candidates so you can vote with an informed conscience? Do you advocate with your state and national legislature for bills which defend the human rights of all God's people? On a personal level, do you defend others from persecution, ridicule, or the denial of their right to life, freedom and happiness?

Family Faith Formation

"This is my body given for you."

(Luke 22:19) ...Awesome God People reaching for God and God reaching for people. We can't get there on our own.

A couple of weeks ago, I attended a conference on intergenerational ministry. I also attended this conference back in 2019. We began having Family Faith Formation be more intergenerational. I had been seeing it as a component, a piece of parish life.

One of the points I came away with this time was that intergenerational ministry/life in a parish is not an approach, it is a value that is held...a way of being parish family, not only at Mass, but in all the ways we are parish family. We see the importance of all generations...we recognize that each generation holds some common beliefs and ideals that are different from other generations. I've personally heard many times from my parents, "When we were kids, we'd have never gotten away with that." They were kids being raised by parents (my grandparents) who lived through and survived the Great Depression. Yes, their approach to life was different because of the time in history that they grew up in. The same is true for us today. I remember telling my uncle I'd NEVER use a computer (I'm not writing this on a typewriter.) I watch as two- and three-year-olds know how to use a smart phone or iPad.

Life changes and life is different based on what generation we are a part of. That is life. For me the importance and beauty of this is that, if I can get past judging the way people raise their children, or don't recycle or decide what their priorities are...then I can see and live the beauty of all of us, God's children, who are present together, for each other in this place in time at All Saints Parish. Is it easy to understand the goals and ideals of people of other generations? Not always. Do I agree with them? Not always. Does that make me right and them wrong? No. It is in the differences that we can grow and learn. For me, it means that I must learn to be more accepting, more patient, more compassionate. I have found that life can be filled with more joy when there are people of many generations coming together. Thank you, God, for each of us!

From the homilies recently...

Fr. Steve

Fears....heights, bugs... they can cause real paralysis. Even though there are going to be tough times. Don't worry about those who can hurt the body. Worry about those who can hurt the soul.

God is always there for us. There can be good about fear. It can keep us safe.

Stories...<https://allsaintsevansville.org/growing/livestream-all-saints-parish-5-pm-mass/>

I know I can trust in God, and I didn't have any fears.

Fr. Jay

Fear no one. That is a tall order. Especially since Jesus had just told them if they speak his word they will suffer greatly, they will be flogged and put to death. But they are to speak out and speak God's word without any fear in their hearts.

We have enough petty fears of our own. Let alone not fearing those deadly consequences Jesus proposes for those who speak his words. So, what about this fear thing? Jesus says fear no one. Then it says fear those who can destroy both body and soul in hell. So, we should fear God?

The word fear when we refer to God is not quite the right word. I think he is saying we should respect God. We should be in awe of God. Fear is a strange word. I think it might be explained if we look at how parents raise their children. Parents teach their kids to be afraid of deep water, playing in the street, fire. As they get older they are taught to swim, cross the street, learn to drive, and deal with fire in a safe way. Fear is being careful and respectful of the elements.

Story of Fr. Jay...listen online at <https://allsaintsevansville.org/category/homilies/>

That's the kind of rapport we can have with God. We want to have respect and awe for God and value whatever he says.

Reflect on our fears and ask God that when we are afraid of what we can't control, that God will control the fear for us. We know he suffers with us and all will make all right in the end. God cannot take away your pain, but I am with you and I love you and I will be with you to the end.

All Saints Children's Choir

This summer we will have a special opportunity for the Children's Choir to sing the National Anthem during the Otter's Game at Habitat for Humanity Night on August 3rd (Thursday). Practices will be July 16 & July 23 immediately after the 10:30am Mass. Approximately 20 minutes. Please attend at least one practice.

Children's Choir is on summer break and will resume on October 22.

If you have any questions or are interested in joining, please contact Fatima Seib at fseib@evdio.org

Thanks, Fatima

Reflecting on the Gospel of Matthew:

The Gospel of Matthew was not the first Gospel written, but arguably has been the most favored Gospel for Christians over the Church's history. It is also the Gospel we will hear on Sundays throughout this liturgical year. On Mondays, July 24 and 31 at 6:30 pm, Tom Bogenschutz will offer a presentation and lead a discussion on Matthew's Gospel. We will explore this Gospel's special character as well as reflect on key passages. This will be held in the Davidson Rm (parish office), but you can also join the discussion online by requesting a Zoom invite by emailing Tom, tbogenschutz@evdio.org. All are invited and welcome.

GOSPEL

God wants you to love your family and friends. But God wants you to love him even more. Be kind to your mom and listen to her. Help your dad with chores and have fun with him. But also remember to help people who are not in your family. God gets excited when you share his love with others.

PRAYER

God, show me ways to help all people who love you.

DRAW
