Justice Challenge

There is much in our neighborhoods and communities that needs attention: parks and streets, homes and businesses. Our bishops challenge us as Catholics to care for God's creation and to be good stewards of all we have been given. Make a list of things in your community that you are thankful for. Take time to volunteer with something on the list or to thank those who make it possible for you to enjoy the place you call home. Be a good steward to ensure that those who come after you have the same things to enjoy!

Family Faith Formation

"This is my body given for you."

(Luke 22:19) ...Awesome God People reaching for God and God reaching for people. We can't get there on our own.

Our Responsorial Psalm today is "Lord, in your great love, answer me." If we truly believe that God loves us greatly, is there anything that we cannot take to God in prayer? How can we feel unworthy if we believe in God's great love?

How many times have we heard from St. Paul's first letter to the Corinthians, "Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends."

If this is how we understand we are to love, how much greater is God's love?! What do you hold in your heart that you have not been willing to take to God in prayer? God knows our heart..."Lord, in your great love, answer me." Let us rejoice in God's love for us and everyone!

12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

From the homilies recently...

Fr. Steve

We've all had many kinds of fathers. There's a beautiful scene in the movie, Dr Zhivago. The young woman is reluctant to tell how she became lost. The young woman finds out who her father is. There's a big difference between a true father and a false father.

In this Gospel, God our father would never let go of us. The father had compassion that moves his inner guts. We only hear of this mercy and compassion one other time in scripture in the story of the Good Samaritan.

Jesus tells his disciples, there are so many in need. I will give you the power to help. Jesus gives us the same power to help, to be compassionate.

Another father who was very wealthy spoiled his daughter. She was into cosmetics and clothes. She was going on a mission trip to Mexico. She learns the great truth of compassion. She came back with a toothbrush and the clothes on her back. She had changed.

We are to see those who need our help.

Fr. Jay

Since the beginning of human beings there have been apprentices...carpenters, electricians, doctors, lawyers. We learn not just from books, but from master teachers.

When Jesus thought they were ready, he sent them out. He names the disciples. Then Jesus refers to them as apostles, people sent out. He sends us out as his apostles to do his work. So the question is how are we doing?

Whenever we go out to bring someone back to life who is down or depressed, we bring life back to them.

A story of St. Francis of Assisi. You can hear this story online at <https://allsaintsevansville.org/growing/livestream-all-saints-parish-5-pm-mass/>

Do good things for others that show Jesus' love.

Let's reflect on the following...

Who have been our masters?

What have we learned from them?

For whom have we been the master?

All Saints Children's Choir

This summer we will have a special opportunity for the Children's Choir to sing the National Anthem during the Otter's Game at Habitat for Humanity Night on August 3rd (Thursday). This will be a good opportunity to experience singing with the choir and to HAVE FUN !!!! There will be two practices before the event. Practice date & time TBD.

If you have any questions or are interested in joining, please contact Fatima Seib at fseib@evdio.org. Thanks, Fatima

One Minute Meditations

Pray for priests daily

The average parish priest is celebrant, teacher, counselor, minister, and financial manager. He works more than 60 hours per week, does everything from administering Sacraments to bringing comfort to troubled souls to taking out the trash, and he is paid just enough to get by. Yet, nearly nine out of ten priests report being happy in their ministry. Our support can help them stay strong in their faith and true to their calling.

Love at home

"God has created us so we do small things with great love. I believe in that great love that comes, or should come from our heart, should start at home: with my family, my neighbors across the street, those right next door. And this love should then reach everyone." Saint Teresa of Calcutta

"The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice; he who begets a wise son will be glad in him" (Proverbs 23:24).

God so loves the world

In 1673, Jesus appeared to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, a French nun, and revealed the intensity of His love in the image of the Sacred Heart, "Behold the Heart which has so loved [mankind] that it has spared nothing...in order to testify Its love."

God's love is intense: The famous image illustrates the reality of a love that is intense, extravagant, passionate, and eternally faithful. Display the Sacred Heart image in your home or workplace to remind you that His extravagant love is for you.

His Heart is our safe place: Jesus advised St. Faustina: "Do not bargain with temptation but lock yourself immediately in my Heart." Seek His protection often throughout the day, "O Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in You."

God shares our nature: The Sacred Heart illustrates the mystery of the Incarnation – when the Son of God became (sinless) man. He "worked with human hands; he thought with a human mind ... with a human heart he loved" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #470). He shared and understands our human condition.

Our hearts can conform to His:

When we put others needs before our own, find the good in others, and show patience, we love like Christ. We do this with His help, "O Sacred Heart of Jesus, make my heart like Yours!"

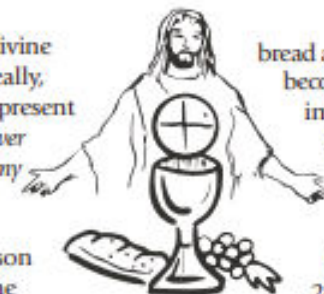

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics believe the Eucharist is more than a symbol?

Catholics have it on divine authority that Jesus is really, truly, and substantially present in the Eucharist, "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life" (John 6:54). When the priest, acting in the person of Christ, consecrates the bread and wine, we believe that Jesus becomes truly present. Scientific investigations of the hundreds of Eucharistic miracles support this amazing mystery. In the Eucharist, Christ fulfills His promise to remain with us "to the end of time" (Matthew 28:20).

16TH ANNUAL FRIENDS OF THE POOR WALK® - ST. VINCENT DE PAUL, EVANSVILLE DISTRICT COUNCIL

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: June 1, 2023

Sisters of St. Benedict to Host Adoration for Vocations.

FERDINAND, IN -- For those interested in focusing more intently on the Blessed Sacrament and praying for vocations, the Sisters of St. Benedict will be hosting a special “Adoration for Vocations” event at Monastery Immaculate Conception in Ferdinand, Indiana on Thursday, July 13. Adoration begins at 7 p.m. EDT, with prayer led by Sister Jill Reuber and silence with the Blessed Sacrament. Refreshments will be provided afterwards, and all are welcome to stay and socialize.

Sister Jill Reuber has a Bachelor’s degree from St. Mary-of-the-Woods College and a Master’s from the University of Southern Indiana. She has been a teacher, and currently serves as Director of Vocations for the Sisters of St. Benedict in Ferdinand, Indiana.

The Sisters of St. Benedict in Ferdinand make up one of the largest Benedictine communities of women in the United States — over 110 members strong and thriving. They seek God through the Benedictine tradition of community life, prayer, hospitality, and service to others. By their life and work, they commit themselves to be a presence of peace as they join their sisters and brothers in the common search for God. The Monastery Immaculate Conception was founded in 1867 by four young Benedictine sisters who came to Ferdinand to teach the children of area settlers. Since then, more than 1,000 women have entered this community. Their ministries extend both beyond education and beyond Ferdinand, with members of their community serving as teachers, social workers, parish ministers, counselors, nurses, youth ministers, chaplains, librarians, and much more.

The Necklace

I have a necklace that originally belonged to my great-grandmother. I don't really know much about the man who gave it to her, most of those details have been lost to time. But I know that he wanted to marry her, and that she refused, and it had something to do with religion — ultimately, he did not share her faith. And while I've certainly seen many interfaith couples have loving and successful marriages, in this particular case, my great-grandmother discerned that this would not be one of those marriages.

Like I said, I don't have many details about this man, but I know that she felt she couldn't marry him because it might jeopardize the souls of her children, and therefore the souls of their children, and their children after them — me. She turned him down because of me.

My great-grandmother never sold that necklace, not even when the Great Depression further reduced her financial circumstances. She kept it, and she gave it to her daughter, who gave it to her daughter, who gave it to me. The necklace is always given with a warning: there is something worse than being poor, worse than being scared, worse even than being desperate. Worse than all of these things is separation from God.

When I wear this necklace, I think about my great-grandmother and this man she possibly loved a hundred years ago. I think of the many decisions we make every day — large and small, good and bad — that reverberate down through the generations in ways we cannot, at the time, imagine. I think of the God who knows every hair on my head.

"And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna." — Matthew 10:28
