In Sympathy

Our desire is to remember All Saints Parishioners who have experienced the loss of a family member.

It is possible for us to miss a notice about your loved one. Please reach out to the parish office at (812)423-5209 or email mwalker@evdio.org if you have lost someone in your family so that we can remember you in our prayers.

Please remember in your prayers the souls of all the recently departed of our Parish Family. May God grant peace & comfort during this difficult time.

Robert Davidson, brother to Fr. Jay

Joseph Childers, husband to Janice

Robert Lamkin, husband to Angie

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted."

Justice Challenge

On July 26 we celebrate the feast day of Joachim and Anne, the parents of Mary. Anne is the patron saint of grandmothers, since she herself was Jesus' grandma. While many cultures around the world honor the elderly and give them the highest respect, in our own country we have witnessed the neglect and sometimes even the abuse of our elders.

Your challenge this week is to be an advocate for the "wisdom people" in your life. How can you show respect for the older people in your own family, or on your block, or in a nursing home in your community? How can you support the needs of the elderly through legislation? Can you offer a smile, a greeting, and perhaps even a visit with an elder who is lonely and gets few visitors?

Family Faith Formation

"This is my body given for you." (Luke 22:19) ...Awesome God

People reaching for God and God reaching for people.
We can't get there on our own.

Sit with your eyes closed. Think of the Eucharistic prayer. What is the first thing that comes to mind? For me, it is "so that they may become for us the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ." And, "Do this in memory of me." The "epiclesis" and "transubstantiation." For me, the power of the God at work through the Holy Spirit and Jesus to nourish me. In this part of the prayer, I am called to remember Jesus' last supper with his disciples. How would I understand this moment if I put myself into that occasion of the last supper? How would I feel? How would I be changed when I left the meal?

Family Faith Formation

Registration forms coming soon!

Our first session will be on Sunday, August 20th. We welcome all families with children and any other adults who would be interested in learning more about your faith in an intergenerational setting. Here, we accept the wisdom of God moving in all of us. It is wonderful to hear the wisdom coming from people of many different ages and generations.

If you have a child in 2nd grade, you will be part of Family Faith Formation sessions as your child prepares for First Communion.

From the homilies recently...

Fr. Steve

There's something about summertime. There's something about being out in the garden.

Hear Fr. Steve's stories at...<https://allsaintsevansville.org/growing/livestream-all-saints-parish-5-pm-mass/>

We have this great story of the sower and the seed. It's not about the seeds, the generosity of God, who throws this seed everywhere. It's not about the harvest. It's not even about the powerful Word of God, the seed that must take root for life.

It's all about the earth, the soil, the dirt. It's about us, and how receptive we are to the Word of God, to everything that God gives us, not only the good news, but sometimes the bad news.

We learn very clearly in this parable that the seed that falls on the path, rocky ground, the thorns, it will go nowhere. The seed needs to fall on the good soil.

Who has ears ought hear. How receptive am I to God's grace. That's the challenge. Do we have ears to hear when people are telling us something we need to hear? Do we have ears to hear and eyes to see? As we listen to the parables these next weeks, let's listen to hear what God has in store for us.

Catholic - Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Catholic Bubble

There's a dangerous myth that exists among pockets of faithful, observant Catholic families. I call it the Legend of the Catholic Bubble.

Here's how the legend goes: you find a devout Catholic parish and a devout Catholic community filled with devout Catholic people who care about devout Catholic things, and you stay away from everything and everyone else, you and your children will be safe from the influence of the evil one. Your children will never fall away from the faith, or even be tempted, and your own faith will stay steel-strong amidst the many tempests and trials of this earthly life.

But like the Loch Ness Monster and the Abominable Snowman, it's all made up.

Don't misunderstand me: I love a good devout Catholic parish. I live for a supportive, devout Catholic community. It's one of the biggest blessings in the Christian life, and I cannot overstate how helpful it is to raise children in an environment that upholds your Catholic faith and does not denigrate it.

But. But.

Make no mistake: the Catholic Bubble will not save you. The trials and the temptations will find you there, too: on the parish council, at Catholic school, in your Catholic moms' group. No community on earth is so supportive that it mimics Heaven. The weeds have been sown with the good seed, and the harvest time is not yet upon us.

Cherish your community, certainly — but beware of the lure of the Catholic Bubble. We are called to be yeast in the loaf of bread, and yeast is nothing on its own.

"And the one who searches hearts knows what is the intention of the Spirit, because he intercedes for the holy ones according to God's will." — Romans 8:27

Sisters of St. Benedict, Ferdinand Mission Appeal

For over 50 years, the Sisters of St. Benedict of Ferdinand, Indiana, with the support of the Diocese of Evansville, have served in Peru, South America in ministries of education, health care and pastoral work. Sr. Kathy Huber will be speaking at Masses the weekend of Saturday & Sunday, July 29 & 30. She will be sharing greetings from the sisters in Peru along with stories from the many years of ministry that the sisters have provided to the people of this country. An opportunity to continue to support the work of the sisters will be offered.

Reflecting on the Gospel of Matthew:

The Gospel of Matthew was not the first Gospel written, but arguably has been the most favored Gospel for Christians over the Church's history. It is also the Gospel we will hear on Sundays throughout this liturgical year. On Mondays, July 24 and 31 at 6:30 pm, Tom Bogenschutz will offer a presentation and lead a discussion on Matthew's Gospel. We will explore this Gospel's special character as well as reflect on key passages. This will be held in the Davidson Rm (parish office), but you can also join the discussion online by requesting a Zoom invite by emailing Tom, tbogenschutz@evdio.org. All are invited and welcome.

Tri State Creation Care- Green Solutions for a New Era in Water Treatment

Wednesday, July 26th, 6:30pm Central Library
Downtown, Browning Rm B

For a long time, too much raw sewage was being released into the Ohio River and Pigeon Creek during significant rainstorms. Evansville has taken an innovative "green" approach to this problem and one part of the solution has been the transformation of Bee Slough into a wetland that treats storm water in a natural and Earth friendly way. Water and Sewer Executive Director, Lane Young and Wayne Montgomery, EWSU Capital Projects Manager, will explain this project as well as other green efforts in the "Evansville Renew" plan.

All are welcome.

Congregations Acting for Justice & Empowerment

CAJE News

All Saints hosted the 20th Anniversary Nehemiah Action on May 1st. All Saints CAJE Network members brought 108 of the 435 people who joined together to act for justice. The A-Men's club turned out in large numbers to help with traffic control and parking with special shout outs to Jerome and Jeremiah Echele, Roger Rogge, Jim Tolen, both José Ramirez Sr. and Jr. Sorry if not every man who helped is listed as you all did a good job. Also, thanks to Sharon Vogler who taxied people from parking lots to the church. Bonnie Wink, Machalle Walker, Sandy Bruno, Vera Gilbert, Ava Neidlinger, Karen Stewart, and Carol Wagner helped get people situated in the church and gym. Lee Ann Rasche took magnificent pictures. Welcoming the community to St. Anthony Church was made possible by your hard work.

With your support CAJE won commitments from Mayor Wennecke to commit to recommending $500,000 into the AHTF for the 2024 budget. As well as, allocating $10 million in ARPA funds set aside for affordable housing and informing CAJE about how those monies will be spent by the end of this year. Zac Heronemus, Evansville City Council, indicated he would work towards forming a group to address ways to hold landlords responsible for providing safe housing. Va Cun, new director of the United Caring Shelter indicated they are looking for a program director for the crisis care unit and expect it to be operational 3-4 nights a week starting in the fall.

Thirty of us gathered at St. Wendel for the CAJE Celebration. The group made contributions or pledges to support CAJE in its work for next year. If you have not yet invested in CAJE please send a check to CAJE at P.O. Box 18172 or go to www.greaterevansvillecaje.org and click on invest. Or, consider making a Qualified Charitable Distribution from your IRA. Let CAJE know if there is a program that will match your investment. If you know of a business that might be interested in investing in CAJE contact Brenda Meyer.

Finally, we are coming up on the start of a new justice cycle with CAJE. House Meetings will be offered in September and October. Please join us as we gather information about unmet needs or injustices in our community in preparation for the Community Problems Assembly in November.

GOSPEL

As God's child, you are the wheat in God's field. As you love and trust God more, your faith will grow. You will see others around you who love God, too. God will be happy to see you growing up in God's love. As you grow taller and stronger, you will also notice others around you who ignore or hate God. God will get rid of those weeds. Then he will bring you into heaven.

PRAYER

God, help my love and faith to grow strong.

DRAW

Draw a picture of wheat and weeds.
