Reflecting on the Gospel of Matthew:

The Gospel of Matthew was not the first Gospel written, but arguably has been the most favored Gospel for Christians over the Church's history. It is also the Gospel we will hear on Sundays throughout this liturgical year. On Mondays, July 24 and 31 at 6:30 pm, Tom Bogenschutz will offer a presentation and lead a discussion on Matthew's Gospel. We will explore this Gospel's special character as well as reflect on key passages. This will be held in the Davidson Rm (parish office), but you can also join the discussion online by requesting a Zoom invite by emailing Tom, tbogenschutz@evdio.org. All are invited and welcome.

Justice Challenge

July 14th is the feast day of Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha, the patron of the environment and ecology. She was from an Algonquin tribe that had been hit with a smallpox epidemic which took the lives of her family. As a teenager, she was introduced to Scripture by missionaries, and she was baptized. She led a very prayerful life devoted to the Eucharist and to serving others. Some in her tribe ridiculed her and she endured great suffering for her faith. Yet she never wavered in her beliefs. Your justice challenge this week is to take a step out in faith like Kateri, talk with a friend or someone in your family about your faith. Share what is important to you about it and then encourage those you talk with to do the same. You may be laughed at or ridiculed, or even surprised by a warm reception. Whatever the response, thank God in prayer for the opportunities you have to bring the good news to others and continue to be a living witness of your faith.

Family Faith Formation

"This is my body given for you."

(Luke 22:19) ...Awesome God People reaching for God and God reaching for people. We can't get there on our own.

We, parish, Diocese, Catholic churches in the United States, have entered into the second year of the Eucharistic Renewal. At the beginning of the Renewal last year, several members of the parish shared their reflections on what it means for them to come to Mass.

As we begin year two, I'd ask that we take several weeks this summer to pay particular attention to the Eucharistic Prayer at Mass. What does this prayer call us to? What does it say about our beliefs? Let's listen to and meaningfully pray the Eucharistic Prayer. How is our heart touched?

The following information comes from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) website.

Liturgy of the Eucharist

The Liturgy of the Eucharist begins with the preparation of the gifts and the altar. As the ministers prepare the altar, representatives of the people bring forward the bread and wine that will become the Body and Blood of Christ. The celebrant blesses and praises God for these gifts and places them on the altar, the place of the Eucharistic sacrifice. In addition to the bread and wine, monetary gifts for the support of the Church and the care of the poor may be brought forward. The Prayer over the Offerings concludes this preparation and disposes all for the Eucharistic Prayer.

Eucharistic Prayer

The Eucharistic Prayer is the heart of the Liturgy of the Eucharist. In this prayer, the celebrant acts in the person of Christ as head of his body, the Church. He gathers not only the bread and the wine, but the substance of our lives and joins them to Christ's perfect sacrifice, offering them to the Father. The introductory dialogue, establishes that this prayer is the prayer of the baptized and ordained, is offered in the presence of God, and has thanksgiving as its central focus. Following this dialogue, the celebrant begins the Preface.

The Eucharistic Prayers make clear that these prayers are offered, not to Christ, but to the Father. It is worship offered to the Father by Christ as it was at the moment of his passion, death and resurrection, but now it is offered through the priest acting in the person of Christ, and it is offered as well by all of the baptized, who are part of Christ's Body, the Church. This is the action of Christ's Body, the Church at Mass.

The priest offers the Eucharistic Prayer in the first person plural, for example, "Therefore, O Lord, we humbly implore you..." This "we" signifies that all the baptized present at the Eucharistic celebration make the sacrificial offering in union with Christ, and pray the Eucharistic Prayer in union with him. And what is most important, we do not offer Christ alone; we are called to offer ourselves, our lives, our individual efforts to grow more like Christ and our efforts as a community of believers to spread God's Word and to serve God's people, to the Father in union with Christ through the hands of the priest. Most wonderful of all, although our offering is in itself imperfect, joined with the offering of Christ it becomes perfect praise and thanksgiving to the Father.

Sisters of St. Benedict, Ferdinand Mission Appeal

For over 50 years, the Sisters of St. Benedict of Ferdinand, Indiana, with the support of the Diocese of Evansville, have served in Peru, South America in ministries of education, health care and pastoral work. Sr. Kathy Huber will be speaking at Masses the weekend of Saturday & Sunday, July 29 & 30. She will be sharing greetings from the sisters in Peru along with stories from the many years of ministry that the sisters have provided to the people of this country. An opportunity to continue to support the work of the sisters will be offered.

GOSPEL

Jesus knows that you can get tired.
Doing your best in school is hard work.
You also may feel tired, sad, or left out on the playground. Whenever you start to feel tired, remember that Jesus is with you. Learn from Jesus. Follow his example.
Be honest. Be kind. Help others do the right thing. Jesus will help you.

PRAYER

Jesus, I thank you for helping me when I'm tired.

DRAW

Draw a picture of Jesus beside you at school.
