Justice Challenge 20th Week in Ordinary Time

Sunday's Gospel is a tough one. Jesus seems to be calling the Canaanite woman a dog. But she persists, challenging Jesus to see her human need. Jesus is persuaded to cure her daughter because of the woman's enduring faith. This Gospel event illustrates that Jesus' mission was not just to the Chosen People, but to the whole world. Your challenge this week is to follow in Jesus' footsteps. Reach out to someone of a different faith, defend a Muslim who is persecuted for his/her religion, learn something about Judaism, or invite someone who struggles with faith to join you for Sunday worship. How can you model our Catholic belief that Jesus is a universal Savior—for everyone, everywhere, all the time?

20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Family Faith Formation

"This is my body given for you."

(Luke 22:19) ...Awesome God

People reaching for God and God reaching for people.
We can't get there on our own.

Does the Eucharistic Prayer ever seem to hold a different meaning? When does it seem to have more meaning than on a regular Sunday?

As you know, we recently had three funerals. At these funeral Masses, as I listened to the Eucharistic Prayer, I found it held a slightly different meaning for me. It was more personal as I put the life of Joe, Bob, and Bob into the prayer. Jesus' love and sacrifice for them. The three of them now as part of the Communion of Saints. Their lives with their families and community and now in heaven.

This reminds me that the Eucharistic Prayer is not a static prayer. It is not just one of those prayers that we keep hearing at every Mass. It is a prayer that can be alive for me. How about you?

Registration forms are available online and were sent to families this past week.

Our first session is today, August 20th.

We have a pitch in breakfast from 8:30 – 9 am.

We continue with our session from 9 – 10:15 am.

We welcome all families with children and any other adults who would be interested in learning more about your faith in an intergenerational setting. Here, we accept the wisdom of God moving in all of us. It is wonderful to hear the wisdom coming from people of many different ages and generations.

Our next session will be NEXT SUNDAY, August 27th.

If you have a child in 2nd grade, you will be part of Family Faith Formation sessions as your child prepares for First Communion.

From the homilies recently...

Fr. Steve

Hear Fr. Steve's story at...<https://allsaintsevansville.org/growing/livestream-all-saints-parish-5-pm-mass/>

I think the challenge of the word of God today might be, where is God working in my life? What risks am I invited to take in my own life? In my family life? In my church life? The story of Elijah is a story of risk-taking.

In our struggles, God is not always in the mighty winds, or the earthquakes, or the fires. God comes in a tiny, whispering sound, as we wait for the word of God. The story is about faith, and trusting in God.

We all take risks in life. The Lord calls us all the time. We can't quit. Sometimes we all need to step out and take a few more risks. Lord, let us see your kindness and grant us your salvation.

How long has it been since I took a risk for God in my life? How long has it been since I've taken a risk to do something for my church or my family? I think risk taking is a part of discipleship. Where is God calling me to walk on water?

Fr. Jay

Peter walked on the water. We're all supposed to be walking on the water.

Hear Fr. Jay's stories at...
<https://allsaintsevansville.org/category/homilies/>

There are lots of risks everywhere, and we wouldn't get anywhere if we didn't take risks.

There are a lot of risks out there that need to be taken. If we didn't take any risks, we'd never get married.

Jesus is asking us to take a risk for him. Have you ever invited someone to church with you? Have you ever worked for justice in our community? Jesus asked us to take a risk. Jesus asks us to walk on water.

What exactly is Jesus asking you to do? And, will you?

Exercising School Bus Safety

Hoosier students are returning to school, which means school buses will be on our roads again. The Indiana State Police ask all motorists to remain aware of traveling and stopped school buses by abiding by the following state laws.

- If a school bus stops on a two-lane road with the red lights flashing and stop arm extended, all motorists must stop.
- If a school bus stops on a multi-lane roadway without a barrier and with the red lights flashing and stop arm extended, all motorists must stop.
- If a school bus stops on a multi-lane roadway with a grassy and/or concrete barrier and with the red lights flashing and stop arm extended, only vehicles behind the bus must stop. Vehicles approaching from the opposite side are not required to stop but should remain cautious.

Children should also stand six feet away from the curb while waiting for the bus to arrive and only approach the bus when the doors open after it comes to a complete stop.

Make sure children look both ways before crossing the street in front of the bus in case motorists do not heed state school bus safety laws.

"Go and make disciples"

We're all called to spread the Gospel as missionaries (Mark 16:15), but not everyone is required to travel. As a Carmelite nun, St. Thérèse of Lisieux lived out her "second calling" to be a missionary. Here are three ways to spread the Gospel within any vocation:

Go deeper in your faith. You can't share what you don't have. St. Thérèse developed her "Little Way" of holiness after years of prayer and study. Step deeper into your faith daily: read a section of the Catechism, pray over a verse of Scripture, listen to a

Catholic podcast while driving or walking, pray.

Adopt-a-missionary: St. Thérèse was a "spiritual sister" to several missionaries, writing them letters and supporting them in prayer, indirectly helping hundreds of souls. Adopt a missionary – or anyone who shares the Faith. Contact your parish or diocese for suggestions.

"Intercession fueled by charity": St. Thérèse lovingly offered to God the "thorns" she received from others – discomforts, misunderstandings, hurt feelings – to win souls for Christ. Offer your "thorns" as saving graces.

from Scripture

Matthew 16:13-20, The "Rock-solid" foundation

The events in this passage lay the foundations for the Catholic Church. In it, Jesus asks His disciples, "Who do you say that I am?" It was a question about Jesus' identity, rather than about the persuasiveness of His teaching or His popularity. The heart of Catholicism centers around the truth of who Jesus is.

Inspired by the Holy Spirit, Simon answers for the group, identifying Jesus as the Son of God, the Messiah (Matthew 16:17). Jesus proclaims this was divinely revealed to Simon and changes his name to Peter ("Rock"). Jesus gives him the keys to the kingdom, giving Peter (and his successors) the authority to interpret Scripture, forgive sins, and admit people into the Church.

By this, Jesus signaled He was building His Church on a rock-solid foundation – on the confession of Peter about Jesus' divinity. This truth has been handed down through the ages, from the Apostles to the bishops to us. The Holy Spirit would lead Peter – and his successors, the popes – to continue speaking and acting in truth as the visible head of the Church.

Q & A How can I avoid gossiping?

Chatting with friends can become gossip – unfairly disclosing another's faults or sins without a valid reason, to people who don't know them (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #2477). Try these ideas when chatting becomes gossip:

Name it: A gentle reminder between friends is an act of kindness. Try, "I think we're edging into gossip," or "Oh, that's not kind!" It's better to risk speaking up than silently allowing sin.

Redirect the conversation: Highlight good qualities of the person about whom others are gossiping. Refocus on inspiring news, a good book you read – anything else that is "honorable ... just ... pure ... pleasing" (Philippians 4:8).

Leave: If nothing else works, excuse yourself and leave the conversation. You'll avoid becoming complicit to sin and wordlessly communicate that you find gossip unacceptable.

Pray: Sins of the tongue (gossip, slander, calumny, detraction) are serious and require grace to resist. Invoke the Holy Spirit for yourself, for those who engage in gossip, and especially for those harmed by it.

Feasts & Celebrations

August 6 – Transfiguration of the Lord. Christ appeared in glory in the company of Moses and Elijah, discussing the Passion (Luke 9:30-31), and a voice was heard to say, "This is my beloved son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him" (Matthew 17:5).

August 14 – St. Maximilian Mary Kolbe (1941). A Polish Franciscan, St. Maximilian was imprisoned at Auschwitz. When the jailers chose ten people to execute, he substituted himself for a man with a family. He was honored as a "martyr of charity" by Pope John Paul II.

August 23 – St. Rose of Lima (1617). Born in colonial Peru, Rose worked constantly to help her poverty-stricken family. She became a lay Dominican, and cared for homeless children, the elderly, and the sick in her house.

August 29 – Passion of St. John the Baptist (1st century). St. John the Baptist courageously spoke the truth to the leaders of his time, making him powerful enemies. He was arrested by Herod and martyred (Mark 6:17-29).
