Justice Challenge 21st Week in Ordinary Time

Saint Rose of Lima (August 23) and Saint Monica (August 27) are both known for the power of their prayer. Saint Rose is believed to have prevented a devastating earthquake from destroying Lima by praying for the safety of the city. Saint Monica's persistent prayer helped in the conversion of her son, Augustine, who turned from his hedonistic life and became a Father and Doctor of our Church.

Your challenge this week is to tap into the power of prayer. Prayerfully choose an injustice which you see—in your local community, in our country, or in the world. Then pray every day this week for an end to the injustice. Open your heart and listen to what God wants you to do to help end the injustice.

Family Faith Formation

"This is my body given for you."

(Luke 22:19) ...Awesome God

People reaching for God and God reaching for people.
We can't get there on our own.

This Sunday, August 27th is our second gathering for this year.

We are going to be learning more about the Virtue of Faith.

What does "faith" mean to you?

Who are people you know/have known whom you would identify as people of faith?

What makes someone a person of faith?

Our next two sessions will be on Sunday, September 10 and 24.

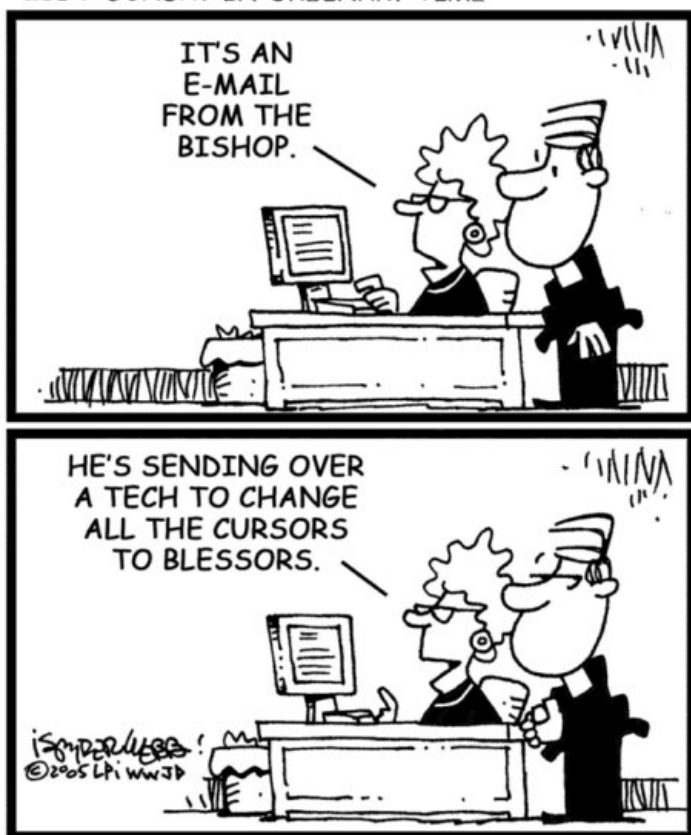

We have a pitch in breakfast from 8:30 – 9 am.

We continue with our session from 9 – 10:15 am.

We welcome all families with children and any other adults who would be interested in learning more about your faith in an intergenerational setting. Here, we accept the wisdom of God moving in all of us. It is wonderful to hear the wisdom coming from people of many different ages and generations.

If you have a child in 2nd grade, you will be part of Family Faith Formation sessions as your child prepares for First Communion.

From the homilies recently...

Fr. Steve

The Scripture today challenges – how accepting are we of all God's people?

Do I know my own biases and prejudices ingrained in me from my youth?

Where do we learn about diversity and acceptance?
Where do we learn about respect and equality due to all genders? Where do we learn about racial or economic injustice?

Today is a challenge. God's house is a house of prayer for all people. God's creation knows no boundaries. He knows no partiality. Love usurps all exclusions.

Maybe like the disciples, you and I have learned and will continue to learn equality for all in this world. Mercy and justice is our birthright. All are invited to celebrate at the table.

Fr. Jay

Well, what happened to good old sweet Jesus? He doesn't sound like himself does he? He sounds like he's having a bad day.

What's going on here? When she told Jesus her daughter was tormented by a demon, he didn't say anything at all. When he'd just sent the disciples out, he told them to go to the Israelites only. That is what he is saying here.

Let's look at what's really going on here. First of all, this is how the Jewish people of Jesus' day talked about the Canaanites. They were the enemy. This is the language Jesus heard growing up.

I think that, as Jesus grew, he learned he had special gifts. At this point, the woman pushed him to realize he was there for everyone and not just the Jews. This is a possibility.

Matthew doesn't give us a lot of detail about what is going on between Jesus and this lady. We have to think about the relationship between Jesus and this woman. Did Jesus know her? Had they been talking?

Like this woman, we need to look at how we talk to the Lord. How we present ourselves to him. Do we keep talking and asking? Is our faith strong?

From Eucharistic Prayer II

"Therefore, as we celebrate the memorial of his Death and Resurrection, we offer you, Lord, the Bread of life and the Chalice of salvation, giving thanks that you have held us worthy to be in your presence and minister to you.

Humbly we pray that,
partaking of the Body and Blood of Christ,
we may be gathered into one by the Holy Spirit."

This part of the Eucharistic prayer caught my attention the other Saturday evening at Mass. I need to pray with these verses more to see what they are fully saying to me.

I was struck especially by the phrases, "to be in your presence and minister to you" and "we may be gathered into one by the Holy Spirit."

How do I minister to Christ? Being gathered into one takes me back to all of us being the Body of Christ. So, I minister to Christ when I minister to others? When and how do I minister to others? Am I aware of when others are in need? Do I minister joyfully, impatiently, compassionately, distractedly? Just thinking...and praying.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN THE STATE OF HAWAII
DIOCESE OF HONOLULU
WITNESS TO JESUS

August 11, 2023

To our Catholic Faithful in Hawaii and Beyond:

Peace be with you!

Today our thoughts and prayers are with all those affected by the devastating wildfires that have ravaged the island of Maui. As a community of faith, we are called to come together and provide unwavering support to those who are suffering. It is in times like these that our collective love, faith, and compassion can make a tremendous difference.

In 2008, the Hawaii Catholic Community Foundation (HCCF) was established as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation to support our parish and school communities. We have set up a dedicated webpage for donations to go directly to HCCF to support the relief efforts for our fellow community members affected by the Maui wildfires. This is an opportunity for us to show our solidarity as a Catholic faith community and lend a helping hand to those who have lost so much.

You can make a tax-deductible contribution by visiting the following link:
<https://tinyurl.com/MauiCatholic>. Every donation, no matter the amount, will play a crucial role in helping to rebuild lives and restore hope.

Let us also remember the power of prayer. In our collective prayers, we ask for strength, resilience, and healing for the fire victims and their families. May we find the grace to rebuild our families, their livelihoods, and the physical structures that were lost. Let our faith guide us as we navigate the challenges ahead, knowing that with the grace of God, all things are possible.

May God bless you all abundantly, and may our efforts bring comfort and hope to those in need. Maria Lanakila (Our Lady of Victory), pray for us!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Larry Silva

GOSPEL

God had sent great prophets to his people. Jeremiah, Elijah, and John the Baptist were faithful to God. They told God's people to love each other. But God's people would not listen. That is why God sent his Son Jesus to be your Savior. With Jesus' help, you can turn back to God. Because of Jesus, you can love others. Because of Jesus, you can look forward to heaven.

PRAYER

God, I thank you for sending your Son, Jesus to be my Savior.

DRAW

Draw a picture of Jesus in heaven, holding out his hand to you.
