Justice Challenge 29th Week in Ordinary Time

This Sunday's Gospel has Jesus reminding us to give to God what is God's. As Catholics, we are called to practice stewardship—to use our time, our resources, and our gifts and talents to build God's kingdom here on earth. Your challenge this week is to examine your efforts to tithe financially. How much of your money goes toward those most in need? In addition to your support of the local parish and the universal Church, to which charities do you contribute? If you don't have a favorite charity, consider making a Catholic organization your charity of choice. Catholic Relief Services, Catholic Charities, St. Vincent de Paul, and the Catholic Campaign for Human Development are a few of the many great Catholic organizations which exist to serve the most vulnerable in our world. Make them part of your practice of stewardship, and give to God what is God's.

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Family Faith Formation

"Come to Me, all you who labor and are burdened."

Mt. 11:23

People reaching for God and God reaching for people.
We can't get there on our own.

We continue our learning about Reverence.

When you come into church, how do you show reverence?

What are you showing reverence to?

I had a conversation this past week about the sanctuary lamp/candle in the red candle holder setting to the side of the back altar. Do we remember why it is there? It is set close to the tabernacle. It is placed there to remind us that Jesus is present in the tabernacle, in our presence. We know that God is with us always, wherever we are. And we know that when we come to church, Jesus is present in the tabernacle.

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

St. Vincent de Paul News

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus says:

"Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." When God is the center of our lives there is no problem with giving others their due.

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you are helping your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless and frightened to know that they belong to God.

From the homilies recently...

Fr. Steve

I came to All Saints to come to the feast that was here. The scripture is clear. God wants us all to come to the feast. It is good to be at a parish where the word of God is proclaimed and the music is sung. We want to do what God wants us to do. We want to celebrate the feast.

Fr. Jay

This story is a little ridiculous. If invited to a wedding, you would probably attend if possible, especially if you were invited by the king. I think it's ridiculous on purpose. God invites everybody. Is everybody here? We are. There are people in churches and synagogues and mosques all over the world, but there are many who do not come.

So, do you think God will let them in? How can they refuse? I think that's the whole point. I think people will get to heaven and say oops. I did not have my priorities straight.

In the story, the king finds a guest in the wedding hall who does not have a wedding garment on. For Fr. Jay's stories, go to <https://allsaintsevansville.org/category/homilies/>

In this wedding banquet, there were plenty of wedding robes. All he had to do was choose one. But this one person refused. He refused to do this one little thing. And, I think that is telling us that there is a small price to pay to come into the banquet. We have to change, we have to adapt. We have to follow God more closely, and do what God wants. There are many tasks that have to be done.

The family that prays together...

Praying together as a family is a source of spiritual strength, protection, nourishment, and much-needed grace for families. Use these tips to strengthen a family prayer habit in your home:

Set reasonable expectations: Based on children's ages and abilities, develop a mix of formula prayer, Scripture reading, and spontaneous prayer that will make up your family prayer routine.

Practice: Prayer is a conversation. Teach children how to have a warm, sharing, prayerful conversation with God. Demonstrate how it can be done.

Be consistent: Meet in the same place and same time every day for a specific amount of time. Children will learn that regular prayer is a priority and a vital habit.

Be generous: Allow each member to choose an intention – someone or something for which to pray. That way, prayer becomes even more personal.

Keep it simple: God wants to encounter our hearts with His grace. If family prayer is as simple as offering intentions before a Crucifix and closing with a hymn of praise, that's good prayer.

Scripture LESSON

Matthew 22:34-40, It all comes down to love

In this Gospel passage, a lawyer starts a debate with Jesus on which of the 613 commands in Jewish law was the most important. Jews had been debating that question for generations without coming to agreement. Egged on by the Pharisees, the lawyer hoped to get Jesus to say something against Jewish law so He could be discredited or even arrested.

Jesus silenced them all by saying that everything starts and ends with love – love of God and love of neighbor. Even the Pharisees couldn't argue with that. The Ten Commandments can be divided into two categories: those recommending respect for God (the first three) and those detailing responsibilities toward neighbors (the last seven). In the end, it is about love. The lawyer was brought to silence. The debate resulted in the gift of the Two Greatest Commandments.

What can a parent do? Talk with children about how easy it is to love people who are nice to us but loving everyone, even if they're not nice, is what God really wants us to do. It's how God loves us.

Feasts & Celebrations

October 2 – Feast of the Guardian Angels. All of us have a guardian angel in charge of protecting us and watching over us day and night. Today, remember to thank the Guardian Angels for the work they have done in helping us.

October 5 – St. Faustina Kowalska (1938). Born Helena Kowalska, St. Faustina joined the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy against her parents' wishes. In 1931, Jesus appeared to her and told her to paint an image of the Divine Mercy and to spread devotion to His mercy.

October 18 – St. Luke the Evangelist

(1st Century). St. Luke was a Christian physician from Antioch. His Gospel and Acts of the Apostles were probably written between A.D. 70 and 85.

October 23 – St. John of Capistrano (1456). Born in Capistrano, Italy in 1386, St. John studied law at Perugia. He eventually joined the Franciscans. Renowned for his preaching, he was asked to lead the crusade that successfully recaptured Constantinople from the Ottomans and saved Christendom.

Parent TALK

Tessa wanted to be Maleficent for Halloween - a strong female character who used powerful magic to subjugate a kingdom. Glamorous but horrible. I wasn't thrilled with my daughter imitating a villainess who cursed a kingdom.

"You know, saints have amazing powers, too," I said. "St. Padre Pio read souls and St. Clare of Assisi turned away an army attacking her monastery."

Tessa thought for a few minutes. "Did St. Clare do that all by herself?" she asked.

"As an answer to prayer," I said. "She put the Eucharist in a monstrance on the convent walls and prayed for protection. The attackers fled."

"I'll be St. Clare," Tessa decided. "Faith was her super power. Courage, too." On Halloween, Tessa wore a brown tunic with a rope belt and a black veil. We made a monstrance out of pipe cleaners, glitter, and aluminum foil. And there was no sign of Maleficent!
