Justice Challenge 30th Week in Ordinary Time

The Sunday readings challenge us to care for the most vulnerable in our midst. The First Reading focuses on immigrants, orphans, widows, and the poor. The Gospel has Jesus linking the great commandment of loving God with the command to also love our neighbor. Jesus made them inseparable. Your challenge this week is to explore your definition of neighbor. Whom does it include? Can you identify the people whom is God calling you to love as you love yourself? Stretch yourself as an individual and as a family by expanding your circle of neighbors to include those beyond your comfort zone and beyond your own parish or neighborhood. Have a conversation, meet for coffee, sit in the school cafeteria, or share a ride with someone with whom you haven't connected. Make a new neighbor!

OR

November 3 is the feast day of St. Martin de Porres. Martin was the son of a knight and a freed slave woman. His passion and life work were dominated by his care for the sick, the poor, and slaves in Peru. While we don't officially have slaves in our country today, we do have people who are unjustly bound. There are victims of human trafficking in our cities who are working for unjust wages or are caught up in the commercial exploitation of sex. Many of them are immigrants, and many are children, innocent victims of crimes which deny them their basic human rights. Your challenge this week is to educate yourself—as an individual and as a family—on one of the ways in which people are treated as slaves in our country. Then pray for the victims, and pray for the perpetrators of the injustice. Do one thing—send an email, make a phone call, talk to others—to advocate for safeguards which will prevent this crime from happening in our country and our world.

Family Faith Formation

"Come to Me, all you who labor and are burdened."

Mt. 11:23

People reaching for God and God reaching for people.

We can't get there on our own.

This is our last weekend bulletin before November 1st, the Solemnity of All Saints...our parish feast day! I used to teach Saints with a capital "S" and saints with a lower case "s." It is probably not theologically correct, but I wanted the children to know the stories of official Saints in the church and those people in our lives who have taught us what it means to live as God teaches...to do our best to live as disciples and saints.

In these next few days, let us take some time to think about the Saints whose lives have guided us. Our personal patron Saint, the patron Saint of our occupation, the sport we play, our hobby, our parish. The Saints we call on the most. For me it would be St. Anthony for the items I lose each day, and St. Isidore of Seville to help when I am yelling at my computer or another piece of technology that is smarter than me. St. Dymphna for all who are living with mental illness.

I also have my regular prayer conversations with family and friends who have died asking them for any help they can give me with challenges here on earth.

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

From the homilies recently...

Fr. Steve

Today we're reminded to give to Caesar what is Caesar's and to give to God what is God's. Today at the heart of these readings is the call to be a good steward of all the gifts that God has given us. We are celebrating stewardship.

For Fr. Steve's story, go to <https://allsaintsevansville.org/growing/livestream-all-saints-parish-5-pm-mass/>

Jesus was not going to be trapped today by the Pharisees. He put his faith in God. The Lord always had a way to pay the Temple tax. The Lord calls us to trust and be responsible for all of our gifts. We need to use our money wisely and be responsible. God will always take care of us if we put God first in our lives.

Fr. Jay

The last few weeks we've had a series of confrontations between Jesus and the hierarchy of his region. The tension is building. They asked him about taxes.

For Fr. Jay's story, go to <https://allsaintsevansville.org/category/homilies/>

Everything we have comes from God. As good stewards, we manage it.

All Saints CAJE House Meeting Results

All Saints CAJE Team Network Leaders (Janie Allen, Bonnie Wink, Jerome Echele, Tom Bogenschutz, Brenda Meyer and Krisit and Vince Wagner.) held 10 listening sessions to find out what keeps people up at night. 55 people attended and 46 committed to being CAJE Network Members. Remember, Network Members agree to attend the Neimiah Action and bring 3 people with them, also attend the Community Problems Assembly, Rally, and consider investing in CAJE's work at the Celebration in June. Many issues were raised but often people talked about someone lacking affordable housing or living in unsafe conditions. Concerns were also voiced about mental health issues, children lacking parental guidance or support, safety issues in the community or a lack of infrastructure or good parks.

Save the date!

The CAJE Community Problems Assembly is Monday, November 13th at Holy Redeemer Catholic Church at 918 W. Mill Road. Sign in at 6:00 and the program starts at 6:30. Learn the results of the concerns expressed at the various House Meetings held across the CAJE network of 27 congregations. Come and vote on the issues that CAJE will focus on this year.

Anointing of the Sick

This weekend at all three Masses Saturday, & Sunday, October 28 & 29.

A sacrament of healing...we come together in compassion and support.

Anointing for those who are ill or suffering. Please bring family or friends who are interested in receiving the sacrament to Mass this weekend.

St. Vincent de Paul News

In this Sunday's Gospel we find the truth that loving God isn't merely a matter of fervor in our hearts, but that it must be expressed in doing good for the sake of others.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of SVdP was able to show that we indeed love our neighbors by assisting 80 families, providing beds, furniture and clothing, and helping with utilities and rent.

Thank you for your generous donation!

anointing of the sick: joined to Christ, witnesses of hope and healing

BEACONS OF HOPE

Pope John Paul II wrote, "Even the sick are sent forth as laborers into the Lord's vineyard" (Christifideles Laici, no. 53). As the sick unite their sufferings to those of Christ, they become bearers of the joy of the Holy Spirit in the midst of affliction and witnesses of Christ's Resurrection. Anointing of the Sick testifies to the fact that all are called to participate in the redemption of the world (Sacramentum Caritatis, no. 22). We all have a role in sanctifying and building up the Church, whatever our physical condition. As the Synod of Bishops told an audience of sick and suffering persons, "We need you to teach the whole world what love is" (Per Concilii Semitas ad Populum Dei Nuntius, no. 12).

This reflection is one excerpt from this document. You can read the rest online at <https://www.usccb.org/resources/anointing%20of%20the%20sick%20joined%20to%20christ,%20witnesses%20of%20hope%20and%20healing.pdf>
