In Sympathy

Our desire is to remember All Saints Parishioners who have experienced the loss of a family member. It is possible for us to miss a notice about your loved one. Please reach out to the parish office at (812)423-5209 or email mwalker@evdio.org if you have lost someone in your family so that we can remember you in our prayers.

Please remember in your prayers the souls of all the recently departed of our Parish Family. May God grant peace & comfort during this difficult time.

Mary Kay Neal

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted."

From the homilies recently...

Fr. Steve

At the heart of the readings, I think we should ask this question, "What is more important in our life... appearances ...or authenticity?" We all know the answer is to be authentic. Lots of what we see all around us is for show.

To hear Fr. Steve's stories, go to <https://allsaintsevansville.org/growing/livestream-all-saints-parish-5-pm-mass/>

Jesus tells us today, don't be fooled. It's a show, they don't practice what they preach. We are not to exalt ourselves, but to be humble of heart and soul. The challenge is not to advance our own desires, but to serve others humbly.

It is not in titles like Rabbi, Father, Master. Jesus was not into our behaviors. It was important what was on the inside of our lives. He wasn't into possessions or authority, but of service. Jesus call is to a very simple life, to be for the other.

Life isn't about privilege. We are called to lead one another as faithful servants. It is all about service to people and being authentic.

Fr. Jay

For Fr. Jay's stories, go to <https://allsaintsevansville.org/category/homilies/>

Sometimes we might need to think things in our life are real, and not know that they are fake. In Jesus' time, he had things to say about the leaders of his people. Jesus called out the leaders and said that they are fakes and hypocrites. They would say one thing and do another. They liked to do acts of charity. They liked to be in charge. We find the same things going on today. I think most politicians and clergy are honest servants of the people. But there are some who are not. In the church, it is called clericalism. Pope Francis has talked out about it many times.

Jesus says that we have to be sincere and be a servant to others. We all make mistakes, but Jesus says be a servant to one another.

Let's take a few moments to reflect, and think about how we serve others and whether we lord it over others. Which side do we fall on? Can we become more of a servant to one another?

Ministry Update... A new ministry... Hand Up

As you know, our Wednesday mornings offer a Community Meal for lunch and a Clothes Closet. These two ministries are charity ministries. Lunch and clothing items are given to people in need.

We are in the process of trying to formalize a Wednesday morning ministry. We are calling it "Hand Up." We are looking for this to be an opportunity to help people take small steps needed to help them move forward from whatever situation they find themselves in. Perhaps we can help them... make phone calls in search for housing or shelter; get an ID so they can apply for assistance; make a copy of paperwork they need to submit for services they need; call for financial help with overdue bills; find specific community resources they need.

This ministry will need volunteers who are interested in working with our neighbors (those who are homeless or living in poverty who come on Wednesday mornings), hearing their story, and building a relationship with them. This will enable the volunteer to have an idea what kind of services the neighbor already has available, and what resources we may be able to help them find.

Do you like to talk with people? People you don't know? Do you have a sense of organization to gather resource information? Find information in a resource book? Do you want to work for justice in small steps? Pray with this ministry possibility. If you are interested and available on Wednesday mornings from 9 – 12 noon, contact Machalle at the Parish Office (812)423-5209

All Saints CAJE House Meeting Results

All Saints CAJE Team Network Leaders (Janie Allen, Bonnie Wink, Jerome Echele, Tom Bogenschutz, Brenda Meyer and Krisit and Vince Wagner.) held 10 listening sessions to find out what keeps people up at night. 55 people attended and 46 committed to being CAJE Network Members. Remember, Network Members agree to attend the Neimiah Action and bring 3 people with them, also attend the Community Problems Assembly, Rally, and consider investing in CAJE's work at the Celebration in June. Many issues were raised but often people talked about someone lacking affordable housing or living in unsafe conditions. Concerns were also voiced about mental health issues, children lacking parental guidance or support, safety issues in the community or a lack of infrastructure or good parks.

Save the date!

The CAJE Community Problems Assembly is Monday, November 13th at Holy Redeemer Catholic Church at 918 W. Mill Road. Sign in at 6:00 and the program starts at 6:30. Learn the results of the concerns expressed at the various House Meetings held across the CAJE network of 27 congregations. Come and vote on the issues that CAJE will focus on this year.

St. Vincent de Paul News

In Sunday's Gospel Jesus challenges us to "stay awake" by taking time to seriously look at ourselves, the priorities of our lives, and how we are growing spiritually. Ask yourself "What would Jesus Christ do?" and then make a donation to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul for those less fortunate during this holiday season.

Thank you for your generous donation!

Advertiser of the Week

Thank you
Ziemer Funeral Home
for sponsoring the All Saints Parish Bulletin.

This bulletin is furnished to the Parish without charge. The advertisements that appear completely defray all publishing costs.

Family Faith Formation

"Come to Me, all you who labor and are burdened."

Mt. 11:23

People reaching for God and God reaching for people.

We can't get there on our own.

It is either ironic or divinely sent...we continue our study of the virtue of faith this month by learning more about the theme of "stewardship – returning to God the first fruits of your time, talent and treasure."

Our Saints are St. Elizabeth of Hungary, Bl. Fra Angelico and St. Joseph Moscati.

32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Children's Liturgy of the Word

Justice Challenge

32th Week in Ordinary Time

November 13 is the feast day of St. Frances Cabrini, the Patron Saint of Immigrants and the first U.S. citizen ever canonized. She herself was an immigrant, encouraged by Pope Leo XIII to leave her native Italy and come to America with her community of religious women. Her service to those in need, including immigrants from Italy, was inspiring. She cared for the poor, the abandoned, the uneducated, and the sick. Your challenge this week is to go on the Justice for Immigrants website of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, click on "Take Action," and find one thing you can do to seek justice for the immigrants in our country today. The website is JusticeForImmigrants.org.

Season of Giving 2023

We received 128 stewardship forms last weekend!

Thank you for your continued support!

Thank You

Birthright provides free pregnancy tests, counseling, free maternity, and baby clothes. We also have a list of referral services to aid parents during their journey with pregnancy and parenting. Everything we do is non-judgmental and confidential. We also offer person to person contact. Birthright is not just a referral service. Birthright is unique because it operates mostly by volunteers. We are open Monday, Wednesday and Friday, from 10 am-2 pm for services and donations. Our address is: 20 Read Street in Evansville.

Birthright exists because of your financial and moral support. We are always in need of clothing, bottles, diapers, and wipes for size preemie to size 6T.

If someone is unable to bring items to us, we are more than willing to pick-up those items. We are unable to take furniture or car seats.

Thank you to all our donors and volunteers who have supported our moms and babies!

"As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

In a time when it was a challenge to follow God's way, Joshua made a public declaration that he and his family would continue to serve the Lord (Joshua 24:15). Here are some ways you and your family can know and serve the Lord:

Family prayer time. At least once a day, pray as a family. Praise God for His goodness. Repent of the times you failed to love God or each other. Intercede for others. Ask for all that you need. Quietly listen for God's voice.

Experience Mass each week. Help your children meet Christ "up close and personal" at Mass on Sunday. Let nothing come in the way of your weekly appointment with the Lord.

Keep a family gratitude journal. At mealtime, take turns writing a line or two about how God blessed you each that day.

Participate in your parish. Take your family to First Friday and Saturday observances, holy days and devotions, and support your parish's charitable efforts. These are important expressions of our Catholic spirituality.

The Beatitudes

Matthew 5:3-12

Blessed are the poor in spirit:
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn:
for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek:
for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they which do hunger & thirst after righteousness:
for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful:
for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart:
for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers:
for they shall be called the children of God.

Blessed are they which are persecuted
for righteousness' sake:
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
