Congregations Acting for Justice & Empowerment

What a blessing we have at All Saints Parish. What support we have for justice!! All Saints Parish parishioners, friends and supporters raised $26,840 by the end of the year for the Welborn Baptist Foundation Matching grant appeal. This includes $10,000 from the All Saints A-men's Club that offered in the very beginning to match funds. It was this opportunity that made the entire process flow. People responded and within 18 days we had raised $10,000 and with the A-men's Club's funds met the goal of raising $20,000 to get a matching grant of $20,000 from Welborn Baptist Foundation. We have sent off our request and are expecting to receive the Welborn Foundation money in early January. Thank you too all!

SPRED (Special Religious Ed)

St. Vincent de Paul News

Sunday, December 31st is the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. During our New Year may our families "grow in wisdom and have the favor of God upon them." In December, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to bring Christmas to the hearts of the poor, by assisting 49 families with clothing, furniture, appliances, and utilities. Thank you!

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul would like to wish everyone a happy and safe New Year, and thank everyone who has generously donated through out the year!

Family Faith Formation

"Come to Me, all you who labor and are burdened."

Mt. 11:23

People reaching for God and God reaching for people. We can't get there on our own.

The Feast of the Holy Family...

When I think of the holy family, my initial thoughts go to the beautiful Christmas songs that extol the beauty surrounding the birth of Jesus. Then, when I make myself reflect on what must have been their everyday existence, I am brought back to earth and reality. The challenges they faced. The fact that they had to migrate to Egypt to be safe. How difficult life was at that particular time in history.

These reflections make the life of the holy family much more human to me. These reflections give me hope for the human struggles of my family. I know that I am not alone in these struggles. As we continue to make the next best decision for members of our families and ourselves...as we continue to learn what it means to be a caregiver...as we continue to learn what it means to love a family member struggling with addiction...as we continue to learn what it means to have differing abilities...We learn what it means to love. May the love of the holy family be with us this Christmas season and throughout our lives.

Justice Challenge

Feast of the Holy Family

One of the most beautiful messages of Christmas is that of peace. The prophets of the Old Testament put their hope in a Messiah who would bring peace to a war-torn world. And that is what Jesus did. In the Incarnation, we experience God's desire for all human persons, for all families and communities, and for all of creation (even lions and lambs) to live in harmony with each other. The angels proclaimed "peace on earth, goodwill to all" at Jesus' birth.

Your challenge during this Christmas Season is to be people of peace in your actions, words and thoughts. Can you make it through the week without starting any fights or arguing with your family or co-workers? Can you share quiet moments of conversation instead of frantically running here and there? Can you rest peacefully in God's arms in your prayer time? What are ways you can be peace-makers instead of peace-breakers in your relationships during this special time of year?

From the homilies recently...

Fr. Steve

The third weekend of Advent is all about rejoicing and joy. It is Gaudete Sunday. Rejoice! The joy is that Advent is half over, and we're closer to Christmas.

A couple of questions.

What brings you the greatest joy?

What brings you to rejoicing?

What do we believe about ourselves? Our purpose for living? What do we believe about others? What do we believe about Jesus Christ who brings us joy?

Whenever we experience a good moment, a God moment, a spectacular moment in our life, we are in the presence of God and the presence of joy. "God, isn't that beautiful!"

Seeing awe is an exercise. It is a spiritual muscle. A feeling of joy that we need to recapture, especially as we await the coming of Christ in our life. Encounter the holy in the ordinary. Awe is more than an emotion. It is a way of understanding, insight into a being greater than ourselves.

Each of us were anointed by the Lord at baptism. We are called to bring joy and glad tidings to the poor. Paul tells us...rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances. Gratitude is an outpouring of joy in our lives. We are filled with joy...will be filled with gratefulness and ready to be for others.

What is God calling me to do? Where is my joy?
Where is my gratefulness? Where will you use your voice this Advent in the joy of the coming Christmas?

Fr. Jay

Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances says St. Paul in that second reading. That seems kind of impossible especially when we are undergoing great hardships.

I was reading Fr. Richard Rohr. He talked about awe being the beginning of wisdom and the beginning of faith, really. We have to stand in awe of God's work in creation. He says that awe is when we stand back and see something and say, God that is wonderful. Stay there in the moment of awe and wonder and fully appreciate it so it becomes part of you. Then you will appreciate more and more...God awakening us to faith and wisdom. He says it is a spiritual muscle we have to exercise. God needs to be identified, seen, and thanked in all of creation. Fr. Rohr says awe and wonder are the beginning of wisdom, the beginning of faith, so they are extremely important.

To hear Fr. Jay's stories, go to <https://allsaintsevansville.org/category/homilies/>

Let's take a few moments to think about awe and wonder. See if we can recall some moments of awe in our life. Awe that shows us God is present and helps us rejoice, pray and give thanks in the midst of suffering. We always have suffering in our life. We also have to have awe and joy.

GROWING WITH THE Gospel

CYCLE B

PUZZLE

Find 8 differences.

MISSION

Jesus belonged to God. Look up the word "belong" in the dictionary. Thank God that you are his child, too.

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

GOSPEL

Love God and trust him with your life. Then you will want to do what God asks. Simeon listened to God. Anna served God for many years in the temple. Mary and Joseph did everything God asked them to do for Jesus. Everyone in the temple knew that Jesus was sent by God to be their Savior. They trusted God with Jesus' precious life.

PRAYER

God, help me to love you enough to do all that you ask me to.

DRAW

Draw a picture of God watching over you and your family.

The Gift of Family

What a year it has been! How will we speak of these times a decade from now? As time goes by, our impressions of this past year will certainly change. How we feel today about dealing with a killer virus and all the chaos surrounding that is still fresh for all. I would assume that most of us right now are also holding those we love a little closer and hugging them a little harder. Hopefully, even if the fears and concerns of 2020 dissipate in the future, the way we feel toward our family should never leave us.

Stewardship is certainly about everything. God has given us so much, great and small, profound and common. One of the greatest gifts that all have received is family. Families take all shapes and sizes and some look very different than others. For some, family is a caretaker or temporary guardian. For others it is a friend when everyone else seems to have vanished. The bottom line is that, to quote a song from many years ago, "people need people."

When God gave the world His only Son, the Incarnation did not come on a cloud or with a flash of light. He was born into a family. Jesus understood the gift of family all his life. Do you think that if having a family wasn't important God would have still included this in the plan of salvation?

As this year draws to a close, remember your stewardship many days begins and ends with the people closest to you. Don't misuse or take for granted this precious gift. God gives us gifts on purpose, even to His only begotten Son.
