TODAY, after the 10:30 Mass All Saints CAJE Network members (people who agreed in the fall (CAJE House Meetings to bring 3 people with them to the Action) are meeting to plan for the CAJE Nehemiah Action.

Please come for a light lunch in the cafeteria after Mass and learn what the Research committees have been learning about early education and affordable housing actionable steps.

Also, now is the time to commit to who you are going to invite to the Action.

We should be done by 12:45.

Easter Flower Memorials

Please turn in your Easter Flower Memorial by Tuesday, March 19 to be included in the Easter Sunday Bulletin. You may drop your envelope in the collection basket, at the parish office, through the mail, on the Website click on "Online Giving" or on our APP under Lent then choose "Easter Memorial Flowers" and follow the prompts.

Check out the new steps for the Year to Date Financial Report, visit our website at allsaintsevansville.org.

All Saints Parish Synod:

Our Journey Together...Come share what the Holy Spirit is saying to you about All Saints Parish

Prior to coming to the synodal gathering, each participant is asked to prayerfully prepare themselves to actively respond to the questions that will be asked during the gathering by conversing in prayer with Christ and listening with the ear of the heart to the Holy Spirit.

The Parish Synod: Our Journey Together... will take place in three stages as detailed below:

Stage 3: Re-Gathering to Plan the Journey

⇒ Sunday, April 7th St. Anthony Cafeteria

- Simple lunch 12:00pm – 12:30pm
- Discussion & Planning 12:30pm – 2:00pm

From the homilies recently...

Fr. Tom

This transfiguration story...what did the disciples see and hear on the mountain?

They saw that Jesus is God's beloved son.

We Christians forget our basic identity... We are beloved daughters and sons of God.

Do we see our sins, our falling down? Do we believe that all we are is sinners? God forgives our sins. God sees us with all of our flaws and weaknesses and sins. We can never forget that we are daughters and sons of God. God's love for us never ends.

In Sympathy

Our desire is to remember All Saints Parishioners who have experienced the loss of a family member.

It is possible for us to miss a notice about your loved one. Please reach out to the parish office at (812)423-5209 or email mwalker@evdio.org if you have lost someone in your family so that we can remember you in our prayers.

Please remember in your prayers the souls of all the recently departed of our Parish Family. May God grant peace & comfort during this difficult time.

*Betty Alldredge– long time member of All Saints Parish
Diane Dunkel– parishioner*

*"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted."
Matthew 5:4*

Special Points of Interest

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the Parish Office. It is best to arrange the anointing while the person who is ill can participate.

Baptism of children should be arranged in advance by contacting Sharon Vogler at the Parish Office.

Catholic Schools: Grades K-12, open to children of our parishioners. Contact Sharon Vogler at the Parish Office to ask about our policy of sponsoring students in Catholic Schools.

Family Faith Formation: Religious Education for families and children is available. Please call Sharon Vogler at the Parish Office.

Homebound, Nursing Home or Hospital Visitation: Call the Parish Office.

Marriage: Couples planning to be married should contact the parish office at least six months before the wedding date. This ensures time for adequate preparation.

New Parishioners: Call Tom Bogenschutz at the Parish Office to receive our Welcome Packet and Parish Directory.

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA):

Those wishing to become Catholic or learn more about the Catholic faith may call the Parish Office.

RAISING CHICKENS TO SUPPORT HER FAMILY

Nowadays, in Morazán, El Salvador, it is very difficult to know when the rainy or dry seasons will be. The unpredictable weather puts the livelihood of Sandra's family in jeopardy. Despite the challenges, Sandra and her husband, Santos, remain dedicated to ensuring their children grow healthy and succeed in school. Learn how their strong family dynamic enabled Sandra to participate in a Catholic Relief Services' project on raising chickens and how her determination has helped her family and community. Visit crsricebowl.org to read this week's Story of Hope.

Thank you to everyone who brought you Rice Bowls in this weekend. We do have more bowls if you need one for the next 2 weeks.

Our second/final Rice Bowl collection will be the weekend of Saturday & Sunday, March 16 & 17. Thank you for your support!!

Congregations Acting for Justice & Empowerment

Two important CAJE events are coming up. Put these dates on your calendar now.

The CAJE Rally is coming up April 15th at Nazarene Missionary Baptist Church at 867 E. Walnut Street. Sign in starts at 6:00 pm and the program starts at 6:30. Network members gather at the Rally to build energy and momentum for the Action.

Save the date for the Nehemiah Action on Monday, May 6, at 6:00pm at St. Benedict's School Auditorium at 530 S. Harlan Avenue. Sign-in starts at 6:00pm and the call to order at 6:30pm. This is where the entire CAJE Network and their guests gather to get commitments from our community leaders for positive change in our community regarding affordable housing and early childhood learning.

Change happens because people show up (people power) and champion the importance of these issues to those who have the power to make changes.

Family Faith Formation

"Come to Me, all you who labor and are burdened."
Mt. 11:23 People reaching for God and God reaching for people. We can't get there on our own.

As we look at Lent, we remember that Lent is a season for Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving...

2 things this week....

First, our virtue in practice for March in Family Faith Formation is "mercy." So, what does mercy mean to you? How would you explain mercy to a child? How do we live examples of mercy for them to see?

Second, things in life seemed to come together on Sunday, February 18th...in other words I really appreciate when the Holy Spirit is very obvious for me. I was present with our Candidates and Elect in OCIA as we shared and learned more about sin and conversion. Instead of a cross in our pocket for Lent, we each have a heart in our pocket...conversion...metanoia...change of heart. Then we heard Fr. Tom's homily on having a change of heart and what it would mean to live the faith of Jesus.... not to simply have faith in Jesus.

Then as we prayed the preface of the Eucharistic Prayer...we pray
The Lord be with you...And with your spirit.
Lift up your hearts...We lift them up to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God...It is right and just.

And for the first time in my life that I remember, I thought...what do I mean when I say that I lift up my heart to the Lord...and we all say we lift up our hearts to the Lord.

What does it mean? How does this prepare me for receiving Christ in the Eucharist? How does this change me, and how I try to live the faith of Jesus?

3rd SUNDAY OF LENT

Justice Challenge 3rd week of Lent

In the First Reading (Exodus 20:1-17) for this Sunday, we hear the story of God giving the Ten Commandments to the Israelites. Did you know that many, if not most, of the justice teachings in the Catechism of the Catholic Church are found in the section on the commandments, particularly Commandment Seven—You Shall Not Steal? This is because the Seventh Commandment reminds us of how important it is to be other-centered and to respect their rights and property. Jesus' whole life was a witness to living for others. As disciples, we are called to follow Jesus' example. Your challenge this week is to choose one thing you can do each day which is totally other-centered, something which has no direct benefits for you. Do it, not because it makes you feel good or makes you proud, but simply because it's what God is calling you to do.

3D SUNDAY OF LENT

Upcoming Vocations Mass:

Sunday, March 17th at the 10:30am Mass, at St. Anthony Church we are welcoming Fr. Tyler and the seminarians currently living at the Fr. Deydier House in the Propaedeutic Stage of seminary formation.

These men are taking this year to grow as disciples of Christ and to continue to discern whether God is calling them to the priesthood. They are coming to give a brief witness on their own discernment, promote Vocations, and encounter the people of All Saints Parish!

Please continue to pray for an increase in Vocations to the priesthood, religious life, and holy marriages within our Diocese.

We would love for you to join us every Monday at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, 2703 W Franklin St. for Adoration & Confession at 6:30pm and Mass for Vocations at 7:30pm.

March 3, 2024 3rd Sunday of Lent

I am the Lord your God ... You shall not have other gods beside me. —Ex 20:2-3

One of the greatest golfers of all time — if not the greatest — was Jack Nicklaus. Which is why it is baffling that at the beginning of each season he would return to his childhood coach and re-learn how to grip the golf club. It's like Shakespeare re-learning the alphabet and grammar. Why would he do that? Because Jack knew that the fundamentals are always relevant. Perfecting and obsessing over his grip allowed him to do everything else in the game well. In sports and life, the best ones love the basics.

Similarly, as we begin Lent, we re-learn the spiritual basics in the Ten Commandments. Consider the first, to "have no other gods besides me." This is our "grip." Is our connection to God one of absolute fidelity and exclusive worship? Am I willing to let go of my precious idols, the things I cling to instead of God? Once we say "yes" to this fundamental question of our spiritual "grip," then we are ready to properly engage with everything else in life. Watch how beautifully the game of life unfolds in the next nine commandments (numbered in parentheses): how we speak to God and others (2 and 8), how we organize our week (3), how we relate to our family (4) and the wider community (5 and 7), how we live our sexuality (6), and how we order all the other desires of the human heart (9 and 10). But don't rush to these later Commandments too soon! Everything in life is built on the first Commandment. The more we focus on worshipping God alone, the better we navigate the complexity of life with panache, effectiveness, and love.

Lenten challenge:

This week, identify what you can do to better worship God alone. If you're not sure, scan the last nine commandments to identify what you are most likely to worship instead of God. Power, pleasure, control of your time, possessions, family, health, reputation, money? Commit to concrete action to help you let go of this "idol" to better hold on to God alone in faithful worship. Remember: the best love the basics.

April 17 -20, 2024

What is a faith and justice pilgrimage?

A pilgrimage is more than a trip to an important site. It is a spiritual journey that deepens one's understanding. A pilgrimage allows us to immerse ourselves in cultural, historical, and spiritual aspects of places we visit. We will visit places at the center of the struggles for racial and civil liberty that call us to examine our own social justice actions. Witness and be open to what God has to say.

Prayer is an important part of a pilgrimage.

As pilgrims of various faith communities, we will at times stop, reflect, and pray.

Our Goal for our Community

A pilgrimage can be a transformational inner journey, but we are also hoping it has a community impact as well. During our pilgrimage we will have opportunities to meet and develop relationships with others who are interested in social justice. Our hope is that we can return from Alabama with deeper connections so that we can work more effectively on social justice issues.

It is now or never!!!!!! Time is closing on your opportunity to join All Saints and Mt. Olive's Southern Justice Tour. The deadline for registration is Tuesday, March 12th .

If you are interested call Brenda Meyer at 812-457-5529 or register on line Southern Justice Pilgrimage All Saints Catholic Parish Evansville allsaintsevansville.org. We are expecting to have fun, make new friends and gain knowledge and insight into racial justice issues.
