"Come to Me, all you who labor and are burdened."
Mt. 11:23 People reaching for God and God reaching for people. We can't get there on our own.

Christ has no body but yours,
No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which He looks
Compassion on this world,
Yours are the feet with which He walks to do good,
Yours are the hands, with which He blesses all the world.

Yours are the hands, yours are the feet,
Yours are the eyes, you are His body.

Christ has no body now but yours,
No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which he looks
compassion on this world.

Christ has no body now on earth but yours.

— St. Teresa of Ávila (attributed)

I'm sure many of us have seen this prayer/reflection many times. At this time of the year when we have experienced Easter, Pentecost, Feast of the Holy Trinity, and Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ, I hear this prayer as an echo of what we have heard in our homilies the past month. As the season of Ordinary Time begins in our church year, it is to be anything but ordinary. As Fr. Tom told us, it is simple...Go." Fr. Steve told us we are "to be of service, to witness to our faith."

At this time of year, when we see the changing of the seasons, how can we recommit ourselves to be nourished by the Body and Blood of Christ at Mass with our parish family AND then go out to be the feet, eyes, hands, body of Christ in our world?

~Sharon Vogler, Pastoral Life Coordinator

Justice Challenge

Solemnity of the Most Body and Blood of Christ

The Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ is a powerful reminder of Jesus' life, death and resurrection. We celebrate the gift of the Eucharist, the sacrament in which each of us is nourished and sent forth. This day reminds us that we don't do things on our own power – but from strength gained from the Eucharist. Before Jesus died, he asked his disciples if they could drink from the cup. He was asking if they were willing to endure what might come if they chose to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, heal the sick and blind and set captives free. They said YES. The Body and Blood of Jesus is a gift to us, yet it is a challenge too. Ask yourself this week, "How does the Eucharist nourish and strengthen me? How am I being sent like the disciples? To whom am I being sent?" Reflect on how you have responded to these questions in the past. What will your response be from now on?

GROWING WITH THE Gospel

CYCLE B

PUZZLE

Find your way from Jesus to the cup.

MISSION

Using the concordance found at the back of your Bible, look up the word "Passover." As a family, write down the verses, find them in your Bible, and read them out loud. Sometimes Jesus is referred to as the Lamb of God, or the Lamb sacrificed for our sins. Talk about how Jesus took our sins away when he died on the cross.

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

GOSPEL

Ever since the night Moses led the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt, God's people remembered that special night with the Passover meal. They ate flat bread, just as the Israelites did the night they left Egypt. They drank wine, remembering the lamb's blood that saved the Israelites from the Angel of Death. Jesus ate the Passover meal with his disciples. As they ate, Jesus taught his disciples that, under God's new agreement, his own body and blood would save them.

PRAYER

Dear God, help me to be truly thankful for the way Jesus gave up his own body and blood to save me from my sins. Amen.

DRAW

Draw a picture of Jesus serving wine and flat bread to his disciples. (Flat bread looks a little bit like pita bread.)
